The first two Chinese words “敬業” suggest the respect for one’s professional knowledge; they encompass the requirement to combine academic professionalism and career ethics as called for in the modern era. The last two words “樂群” emphasise the relationship between the individual and society; they encourage personal growth and development, and advocate group spirit and the need to care for society.

Officium et Civitas is the Latin translation of the motto. Officium captures the rich connotations of the word “業” and denotes a high-minded sense of duty, including high office, with a very positive moral connotation. Civitas refers to both town/city and “union of citizens (commonwealth)”, a spirit embraced by the word “群”, which is most appropriate for City University.
Vision

City University of Hong Kong aspires to become a leading global university, excelling in research and professional education.

4. Accountability in the use of public resources;

5. Global outreach and international competitiveness.
Foreword

Calendar is an informative, comprehensive, and highly accessible online gateway to City University of Hong Kong (CityU). It provides detailed coverage of the overall University organisation, its regulations and programmes, and offers profiles of our academics and our general activities.

CityU aspires to become a leading global university, excelling in research and professional education by promoting a culture of discovery and innovation through its Discovery-enriched Curriculum (DEC). The DEC is the blueprint for the campus’s Academic Development Proposal for 2012–2015, which was recently endorsed by the University Grants Committee. Through the creation and communication of new knowledge, CityU prepares its students to contribute to social and economic advancement.

The information in the Calendar is correct at the time of publication in October 2011, to the best of our knowledge. Updates to the Calendar, which may be found at http://www.cityu.edu.hk/lib/digital/calendar/index.htm, are made monthly.

Introduction

CityU offers professional education that prepares its students for the challenges and exciting opportunities opening up in Hong Kong, the Asia-Pacific region and throughout the world in business, science and engineering, energy and environment, law, creative media and social sciences. Through its extensive links with relevant industries, CityU provides real-life opportunities for students to work with and learn from professionals in the workplace, from bachelor degrees and postgraduate studies to associate degrees and continuing education.

At CityU, we strive to nurture well-rounded graduates, who are competent professionals, critical thinkers and life-long learners equipped to cope with a globalised work environment and positioned to capitalise on our extensive links to mainland China. Our approach to education is heavily influenced by the philosophy of “whole-person development”, a contemporary theory about learning and development that strongly resembles traditional Chinese educational philosophy. Subject to particular focus are the spiritual, intellectual, physical, social and aesthetic elements of education, coupled with the special attention paid to the emotional and career development aspects typical to Western educational philosophies.

Our teachers are recruited from around the world, each an expert in their profession. Employing interactive, IT-based teaching methodologies, students acquire a first-rate grounding in their chosen subjects and the life-long learning skills needed for the real world.

CityU offers state-of-the-art learning, teaching and research facilities in a high-technology environment to create an ambiance that encourages intellectual curiosity, social interaction, self-expression and mutual support.

CityU has achieved phenomenal growth since its establishment in 1984. To date, it has a student population of 20,000 enrolled in more than 140 programmes at the associate degree, undergraduate and postgraduate levels.

Academic Organisation

The three Colleges: Business, Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, Science and Engineering, and the School of Creative Media and School of Law offer bachelors degree and postgraduate programmes. The newly established School of Energy and Environment currently offers postgraduate degree programmes.

The Chow Yei Ching School of Graduate Studies strengthens the operation and development of all postgraduate programmes and fosters an ambiance for graduate studies.

The School of Creative Media, the Division of Building Science and Technology and the Community College of City University run associate degree programmes. The School of Continuing and Professional Education helps fulfil the University’s role as a centre for life-long education by providing continuing educational opportunities for the community through self-financing degree, certificate and short programmes.

(t) provide for profit or otherwise advisory, consultancy, research and other related services.

8. (repealed)
Part II A
The Court

8A. The Court

(1) There is to be a Court of the University which is the supreme advisory body of the University.

(2) The Court shall consist of the Chancellor as chairman and such other persons as the statutes specify.

(3) The Court has the following functions:
   (a) to receive an annual report from the President;
   (b) to consider reports made to it by the Council;
   (c) to discuss any motion on general University policy;
   (d) to raise funds at the request of the University to further the University’s objects;
   (e) to promote the interests of the University in Hong Kong and elsewhere.

Part III
The Council

9. Establishment of the Council

(1) There is hereby established a Council, to be known as the Council of City University of Hong Kong.

(2) The Council is the supreme governing body of the University.

(3) The Council may exercise the powers, and shall perform the duties, of the University.

10. Membership of the Council

(1) The Council shall consist of the following members:
   (a) the President;
   (b) the Deputy President;
   (c) (repealed)
   (d) (repealed)
   (e) (repealed)
   (f) not more than 15 members who are not students or employees of the University of whom:
      (i) not more than 8 are appointed by the Chief Executive on the recommendation of the Council; and
      (ii) 7 are appointed by the Chief Executive;
(g) an academic member of the Senate nominated by the Senate and appointed by the Council;

(h) 2 members of staff elected from among their number and appointed by the Council;

(i) the Chairman of the Convocation;

(j) the President of the Students’ Union; and

(k) 1 postgraduate student elected from among postgraduate students and appointed by the Council.

(2) (a) The Chief Executive shall appoint from the members appointed under subsection (1)(f):

(i) one member as Chairman;

(ii) one member as Deputy Chairman; and

(iii) one member as Treasurer.

(b) The Deputy Chairman shall act as the Chairman if the Chairman is absent from Hong Kong or is, for any other reason, unable to act as Chairman.

(c) If for any period both the Chairman and Deputy Chairman are unable by reason of absence from Hong Kong or incapacity to perform the functions of their respective offices, or if for any period both of those offices are vacant, the members may appoint one of the members appointed under subsection (1)(f) to act as Chairman during that period.

(3) (repealed)

(3A) A member of the Council appointed under subsection (1)(f):

(a) shall be appointed for a period of 3 years or such lesser period as the Chief Executive may in any particular case appoint, but may from time to time be reappointed;

(b) may at any time by notice in writing to the Chief Executive resign from the Council.

(3B) A member appointed by the Council under subsection (1)(g), (h) or (k):

(a) shall be appointed for a period of 3 years or such lesser period as the Council may in any particular case appoint, but may from time to time be reappointed;

(b) shall cease to be a member of the Council:

(i) when he ceases to meet the criteria of eligibility for nomination by the body that nominated him; or

(ii) when he ceases to be a member of the body that elected him;

(c) may at any time by notice in writing to the Chairman of the Council resign from the Council;
(4) Upon the expiry of the appointment of any member, other than an ex officio member, whether by effluxion of time or as a result of resignation or otherwise, the procedure for a new appointment, or reappointment, as the case may be, shall be as if the position thus vacated were being filled for the first time.

(5) The provisions of this section are without prejudice to section 42 of the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance (Cap. 1).

11. Meetings and procedure of the Council

(1) Meetings of the Council shall be held at such times and places as the Chairman may appoint.

(2) One half of the number of members for the time being shall form a quorum at a meeting of the Council.

(3) (a) If a member has an interest in any matters to be considered at a meeting of the Council and is present at such meeting, he shall as soon as possible after the commencement of the meeting disclose to the Council the fact and nature of the interest and shall, if required by the Council, withdraw from the meeting while the Council is considering the matter and in any case shall not vote thereon.

(b) In this subsection “interest” includes a pecuniary interest.

(4) A meeting of the Council may be adjourned by the Chairman or the person presiding or, where the Council so resolves, by the Council.

(5) Subject to this Ordinance, the Council may determine its own procedure.

12. Transaction of business by circulation papers

The Council may transact any of its business by circulation of papers, and a resolution in writing which is approved in writing by a majority of the members shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Council.

13. Committees generally

(1) The Council may create and appoint such committees for any general or special purposes as it thinks fit and any such committee may consist partly of persons who are not members of the Council.

(2) The chairman of any committee appointed under subsection (1) shall be appointed by the Council from among the members of the Council.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the Council may in writing, with or without restrictions or conditions as it thinks fit, delegate any of its powers and duties to any committee appointed under subsection (1).

(4) The Council shall not delegate to any committee appointed under subsection (1) the power:

(a) to approve the terms and conditions of service of any class of persons in the employment of the University;

(b) (repealed)
(c) to authorize the preparation of the statements required under section 19(2);
(d) to make statutes under section 21A;
(e) to appoint the President and the Deputy President or to remove the President and the Deputy President from office or to approve the duties of the President and the Deputy President.

(5) Subject to the directions of the Council, each committee may determine its own procedure at its meetings.

Part IV
President, Deputy President and other staff

   (7) advise the Senate on any matter which may be referred to it by the Senate;

   (8) appoint sub-committees, working parties and similar bodies for the purpose of discharging its duties, and approve their terms of reference and membership.

2. The membership of the Board shall comprise:

   (1) the Dean of Graduate Studies who shall be the Chairman;

   (2) the Deputy Chairman shall be the Associate Dean (School of Graduate Studies);

   (3) the Deputy President;

   (4) the Chairman of the Senate’s Research Committee;

   (5) Chairmen of College/School Graduate Studies Committees;

   (6) two members appointed from each College Graduate Studies Committee;
(7) one member appointed from each School Graduate Studies Committee;
(8) five members appointed from and by the Senate;
(9) three postgraduate students, one of whom is to be the President of the CityU Postgraduate Association, appointed by the Board in consultation with the CityU Postgraduate Association.

3. The period of office of members shall be two years, except for members in category 9 whose term shall be one year. The membership in categories 6 to 8 above shall allow for overlapping periods to ensure continuity.

4. A person appointed by the Dean of Graduate Studies shall be the Secretary to the Board.

Statute 10: The Convocation

1. Subject to the provisions in the Ordinance, the Convocation shall have the following objectives:
   (1) to strengthen the relationship among members of the Convocation and between the Convocation and the University;
   (2) to promote good relations between the University and the general public;
   (3) to discuss any matter relating to the development of the University including any matter referred to it by the Council and to make recommendations to the Council;
   (4) to promote the objectives and activities of the University.

2. Each graduate on receipt of an academic award granted by the University or the Polytechnic, in accordance with the Academic Regulations as approved by the Senate, shall be a member of the Convocation.

3. Emeritus Professors and honorary award recipients on whom the titles have been conferred by the University shall be members of the Convocation.

4. A register containing the names of all members of the Convocation shall be kept by the Secretary of the Convocation.

5. A member may at any time by giving notice in writing to the Secretary of the Convocation resign from membership of the Convocation.

6. There shall be a Standing Committee of the Convocation which shall be the executive body of the Convocation.

7. There shall be a Chairman of the Convocation who shall at the same time be Chairman of the Standing Committee.

8. The Convocation shall, from its own members, elect a Chairman and not more than four Vice-Chairmen who shall respectively hold office for a period of two years. A retiring Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall be eligible for re-election except for the retiring Chairman who has, at the time of such retirement, held an office for two consecutive full terms.
9. In case of a vacancy in the office of the Chairman arising from other than expiry of the term of office of a retiring Chairman, the Convocation shall elect one of its members at a special or the next annual general meeting to fill the vacancy. The person so elected shall hold office for the remainder of the term for which his/her predecessor was appointed.

10. In the absence of the Chairman, one of the Vice-Chairmen shall be appointed by the Chairman to act on his behalf. If the Chairman fails to appoint an acting Chairman, the Standing Committee shall appoint one of the Vice-Chairmen to act as the Chairman.

11. Subject to the Ordinance and this Statute, the Convocation may appoint committees for any general or special purposes as it thinks fit, and to approve their terms of reference and membership.

12. The Convocation shall meet at least once in each calendar year and at such other times as it may determine.

13. Thirty members of the Convocation shall form a quorum for meetings.

14. The Secretary of the Convocation shall be appointed by the President.

Statute 11: Emeritus Professors

1. On the recommendation of the Senate, the Council may confer the title of Emeritus Professor upon any Chair Professor of the University on retirement from office and after being employed in the service of the University for not less than ten years, of which at least five shall have been as a full-time Chair Professor, and who in the opinion of the Senate has made a distinguished contribution to his chosen academic field.

2. Emeritus Professors shall be members of Convocation, and shall rank in precedence before Chair Professors of the University on any ceremonial or official occasion. In addition, they shall have the right to use University facilities, and be eligible to apply for office facilities within the University.

3. Emeritus Professors shall not be entitled, solely by virtue of that title, to be a member of any other body of the University, or to exercise any administrative or executive functions, except as specified in this Statute.

4. Emeritus Professors may be requested to represent the University, or to carry out duties on the University’s behalf, either in Hong Kong or elsewhere.

Statute 12: Honorary Awards and Award Holders

1. Honorary awards may be conferred by the Chancellor from time to time on the recommendation of the Honorary Awards Committee.

2. The Chancellor may confer the following honorary awards in the name of the University:

   - Honorary Doctor of Business Administration (Hon DBA)
   - Honorary Doctor of Engineering (Hon DEng)
   - Honorary Doctor of Laws (Hon LLD)
   - Honorary Doctor of Letters (Hon DLitt)
   - Honorary Doctor of Science (Hon DSc)
   - Honorary Doctor of Social Science (Hon DSocSc)
3. The Honorary Awards Committee shall determine which of the honorary awards to be conferred under section (2).

4. The criteria for the award of an honorary doctorate shall be distinctive contributions to learning, to the development of the University, or to the well-being of society in general.

5. The Certification of an honorary award conferred by the Chancellor shall be in Chinese and in English and shall record the full name of the recipient and the title of the award. It shall be authenticated by the signature of the Chancellor of the University, the Chairman of the Council and the President.

6. The recipient of an honorary award conferred by the Chancellor shall sign his name in the Register of Honorary Awards.

7. The holders of such honorary awards shall rank in precedence before the Emeritus Professors of the University on ceremonial occasions, and shall be members of the Convocation. They shall also have the right to use all University facilities.

Statute 13: The Community College of City University (hereinafter referred to as ‘CCCU’)

1. The Community College of City University (CCCU) shall be established by the Council of the University as a company limited by guarantee.

2. The Objects of CCCU shall be:
   (a) to provide educational programmes leading to the award of the Associate Degree of the City University of Hong Kong;
   (b) to provide full-time and mixed mode educational programmes leading to the award of undergraduate degrees of other educational institutions;
   (c) to provide educational programmes which fulfill the entry requirements to Associate Degree programmes of the City University of Hong Kong;
   (d) to provide other programmes of study, whether or not leading to formal awards, for the benefit of the community.

3. Members of CCCU shall be the City University of Hong Kong, and the members of the Executive Committee of the Council of the University. Additional Members can be admitted by the Board of Management in accordance with the Memorandum and Articles of Association of CCCU.

4. There shall be a Board of Management of CCCU appointed by the Members.

5. The Board of Management shall be responsible for:
   (a) determining the strategic direction of CCCU;
   (b) determining its management structure;
   (c) overseeing its contractual and business matters;
   (d) advising the Principal on the management and operations of CCCU;
(e) ensuring that the operation of CCCU is consistent with its self-financing status.

6. The Board of Management shall comprise not fewer than 6 and not more than 9 members including:

(a) the Chairman who shall be a member of the Council of the University;
(b) the Vice-Chairman who shall be the President or his nominee;
(c) two external members who may or may not be members of Council of the University;
(d) the Director of Finance of the University;
(e) the Principal of CCCU.

7. Any new members shall be appointed where necessary by the Members of CCCU.

8. ‘Director of Finance’ should be interpreted as the senior staff member of the University responsible for managing its financial affairs.

9. The Board of Management shall create and appoint committees for any general or specific purposes as it thinks fit.

10. There shall be an Academic Board of CCCU established by the Board of Management.

11. The Academic Board shall be responsible for:

(a) planning, developing and maintaining the Associate Degree programmes of the University run by CCCU and for deciding on the awards for students studying these programmes;
(b) directing and regulating the teaching at CCCU;
(c) regulating the admission of persons to the approved programmes run by CCCU;
(d) regulating the examinations leading to the awards of the University.

12. The Academic Board, under the delegated authority from the University Senate, takes full responsibility for the academic management of the CityU award-bearing Associate Degree programmes offered by CCCU.

13. The delegation covers:

(a) approving academic plans, student intakes and enrolments, and discontinuation of programmes subject to the agreement of the Board of Management of CCCU;
(b) approving entrance requirements and maintaining an appropriate academic standard at entry;
(c) approving the curriculum of new programmes;
(d) approving changes to programmes;
(e) approving academic regulations for student progress through programmes of study, assessment of students, and requirements for graduation;
(f) establishing principles and policies for the assurance of the academic standards and quality of programmes of study;

(g) deciding, on behalf of Senate, awards of Associate Degree for students successfully completing their programmes.

14. The delegation of authority from Senate is conditional upon CCCU subscribing to quality assurance principles, policies and practices consistent with those of the University, and the submission of an annual report to Senate which should include the development of the Associate Degree programmes and any changes made to the academic policies of CCCU.

15. The Senate reserves the right to conduct periodic academic audits on the Associate Degree programmes and, if necessary, rescind its authorization if not satisfied as to quality.

16. The constitution of the Academic Board shall be as follows:

(a) the Principal, who shall be the Chairman;
(b) all Heads of Divisions;
(c) Secretary of Senate;
(d) Secretary of Quality Assurance Committee;
(e) two members of the full-time academic staff of each Division elected by and from among their number in that Division;
(f) one student from each Division, elected by and from among their number in that Division;
(g) up to three members from academic support units of the University.

17. The Secretary of the Academic Board shall be appointed by the Principal.

18. The Academic Board shall have the power to co-opt additional members.

19. The terms of office shall be two years for elected staff and nominated members, and a term of one year for the student members. The Academic Board shall meet at least once each semester or more frequently as determined by the Principal, or by a majority of its members. One half of the number of members shall form the quorum at a meeting of the Academic Board.

20. The Board of Management shall ensure that CCCU maintains financial accounts for its operations and shall submit its audited Annual Financial Report to the Council of the University.

21. The Board of Management shall submit an Annual Report to the Council of the University giving details of the activities of CCCU.

22. At the Congregations of CCCU, the Chairman of the Board of Management may preside.

Admission of Students
Admission of Students

For admission to programmes of the University:

1. applicants must meet (a) the general entrance requirements; and (b) the programme specific entrance requirements, if any; OR

2. applicants must hold such other qualifications deemed acceptable by the University as equivalent to 1(a) and 1(b) above.

General Entrance Requirements for Bachelor's Degree Programmes

(The grades indicated below are the minimum acceptable but possession of the qualifications in no way guarantees acceptance.)

For admission to a bachelor’s degree programme, an applicant must satisfy ONE of the following:

1. Hong Kong Advanced Level Examination (HKALE)
   - grade E or above in two A-level subjects, OR grade E or above in one A-level subject and two AS-level subjects (other than Use of English, and Chinese Language and Culture); AND
   - grade E or above in AS-level Use of English, or A-level Literature in English*#; AND
   - grade E or above in AS-level Chinese Language and Culture, or A-level Chinese Literature†#.

2. Other Qualifications

Other qualifications may include academic qualifications from local post-secondary institutions or professional qualifications acceptable to the University. Qualifications obtained by study at a local international school such as GCE Advanced Level or an International Baccalaureate Diploma are also accepted as satisfying the General Entrance Requirements.

For non-local qualifications, most school-leaving qualifications acceptable for university entry are recognised.

* The following qualifications are acceptable in place of the HKALE AS-level Use of English or the HKALE Literature in English:
  - GCEAL English Literature: Grade E or above
  - GCEOL/GCSE English Language: Grade C or above
  - Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL): score of 550 (paper-based test), 213 (computer-based test) or 79 (internet-based test) or above
  - International English Language Testing System (IELTS): overall band score of 6 or above

† The following qualifications are acceptable in place of the HKALE AS-level Chinese Language and Culture or the HKALE Chinese Literature:
  - HKCEE/GCEOL/GCSE — a language subject other than Chinese or English: Grade C or above

When this subject is used for meeting the language requirement, it cannot be used again to count towards the general requirements.
Applicants whose entrance qualification were obtained in a language other than English will need an acceptable result in an approved English language test such as TOEFL or IELTS.

3. Mature Applicants

Mature applicants are eligible to apply for given programmes even if they do not satisfy the requirements in (1) or (2) above. They must be over the age of 25 by 1 September of the year of admission and be able to demonstrate aptitude and suitability for the programme.

General Entrance Requirements for Government-funded Associate Degree Programmes

(The grades indicated below are the minimum acceptable but possession of the qualifications in no way guarantees acceptance.)

1. Hong Kong Advanced Level Examination (HKALE)

   (a) grade E or above in one A-level subject, OR grade E or above in two AS-level subjects, which may include Use of English, and Chinese Language and Culture; AND

   (b) grade E or above in five HKCEE subjects, which may include level 2 or above in English Language or Chinese Language; AND

   (c) grade E or above in AS-level Use of English, or level 2 or above in HKCEE English Language*; AND

   (d) grade E or above in AS-level Chinese Language and Culture, or level 2 or above in HKCEE Chinese Language†.

* The following qualifications are acceptable in place of the HKALE AS-level Use of English or the HKALE Literature in English:

- HKALE Literature in English: Grade E or above
- HKCEE English Language (Syllabus B): Grade E or above, or HKCEE English Language (Syllabus A): Grade C or above
- GCEAL English Literature: Grade E or above
- GCEOL/GCSE English Language: Grade C or above
- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)
  - For Division of Social Studies (DSS): score of 500 (paper-based test) or 200 (computer-based test) or above
  - For Division of Building Science and Technology (BST) and School of Creative Media (SCM): score of 550 (paper-based test) or 213 (computer-based test) or 79 (internet-based test) or above
- International English Language Testing System (IELTS)
  - For DSS: overall band score of 5 or above
  - For BST and SCM: overall band score of 6 or above
- College English Test: band 4 (applicable to DSS only)

† The following qualifications are acceptable in place of the HKALE AS-level Chinese Language and Culture or the HKCEE Chinese Language:

- HKALE Chinese Literature: Grade E or above
- HKCEE Chinese Language: Grade E or above
- HKCEE—a language subject other than Chinese or English: Grade E or above
- GCEOL/GCSE — a language subject other than Chinese or English: Grade C or above
2. Other Qualifications

Other qualifications may include academic qualifications from local post-secondary institutions or professional qualifications acceptable to the University. Qualifications obtained by study at a local international school, or a non-local high school, at Grade 12 or equivalent, are also accepted as satisfying the General Entrance Requirements.

Applicants whose entrance qualifications were obtained in a language other than English will need an acceptable result in an approved English language test such as TOEFL or IELTS.

3. Mature Applicants

Mature applicants are eligible to apply for given programmes even if they do not satisfy the requirements in (1) or (2) above. Mature applicants must be over the age of 25 by 1 September of the year of admission and be able to demonstrate aptitude and suitability for the programme.

Programme Specific Entrance Requirements for Bachelor’s Degree and Associate Degree Programmes

Programme specific entrance requirements are stipulated by the relevant College/School Board. Details of these requirements are set out at http://www.cityu.edu.hk/admo/programme.

For the purpose of satisfying the programme specific entrance requirement of a grade D in HKALE AS-level Use of English, grade D or above in HKALE Literature in English or GCEAL English Literature are accepted as equivalents.

For programmes which require an attainment of grade C, D or E in certain HKCEE subjects, grade C or above in the corresponding GCSE/GCEOL subjects are accepted as equivalents, with the exception of GCSE/GCEOL/GCEAL Chinese Language, which cannot replace HKCEE Chinese Language.

General Entrance Requirements for Postgraduate Certificate, Postgraduate Diploma and Master’s Degree (by Coursework and Examination) Programmes

For admission to the University’s Postgraduate Certificate, Postgraduate Diploma or Taught Master’s Degree programmes, an applicant must:
(a) hold a bachelor’s degree of one of the universities in Hong Kong or of an overseas institution recognised for this purpose by the University;

OR

(b) hold such other qualifications as deemed acceptable by the University as equivalent to (a).

Applicants whose entrance qualification is obtained from an institution where the medium of instruction is not English should also fulfill the following minimum English proficiency requirement:

* For the programmes offered by the Division of Social Studies, mature applicants must be over the age of 23 by 1 September of the year of admission.
Admission of Students

- A TOEFL score of 550 (paper-based test), 213 (computer-based test) or 79 (internet-based test); OR
- An overall band score of 6.0 in IELTS; OR
- Band 6 in the Chinese mainland’s College English Test*; OR
- Other equivalent qualifications.

(Individual Colleges and Schools may stipulate a higher English proficiency requirement, or equivalent acceptable qualifications, suitable for their disciplines.)

Minimum Entrance Requirements for Degrees of Master of Philosophy and Doctor of Philosophy

Applicants seeking admission to a research degree programme should satisfy the following minimum entrance requirements:

Master of Philosophy (MPhil)

(a) hold a relevant Bachelor’s degree with first or second class honours (or equivalent qualification) from a recognised university;

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)

(a) be a current MPhil student in the University who seeks transfer to PhD candidature;

OR

(b) hold a higher degree by research (or equivalent qualification) from a recognised university;

OR

(c) hold a taught Master’s degree (or equivalent qualification) from a recognised university;

OR

(d) hold a Bachelor’s degree with first class honours (or equivalent qualification) from a recognised university.

Equivalent qualifications mentioned above include relevant professional qualifications or other scholarly achievements recognised by the University.

In addition to the above, individual Departments and Schools may prescribe further entrance requirements.

English Proficiency Requirements

Research degree applicants from a university where the language of teaching is not English should obtain at least a score of 550 (paper-based test), 213 (computer-based test) or 79 (internet-based test) in the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or an overall band score of 6.5 in the International English Language Testing System (IELTS). Equivalent qualifications are also

* Applicants holding the old CET-6 result must attain a pass in the test. For applicants holding the new CET-6 result, they should refer to the CET-6 core requirements specified for individual programmes. acceptable. Some Colleges/Schools have prescribed a higher English proficiency requirement suitable for their disciplines. For details, please refer to the admissions website for research degree programmes at www.cityu.edu.hk/sgs/rpg/admission.

Application for Admission
Applications for admission to associate degree, bachelor’s degree and taught postgraduate programmes are normally invited in November. Non-government-funded programmes may follow a different schedule. Enquiries should be directed to:

Research degree and professional doctorate programmes
Applications for admission to research degree programmes are accepted throughout the year. Professional doctorate programmes accept applications for admission in December/January. Enquiries should be directed to:
Visiting Students

Applicants who do not wish to pursue a full programme of study at the University may apply for admission as a visiting student to attend selected course(s) and take the assessment as defined in the programme scheme. No qualification will be awarded to visiting students in respect of their studies at the University. A Certificate of Completion/Attendance, however, will be issued to visiting postgraduate students upon their fulfillment of the relevant course/attendance requirements.

Visiting students will only be admitted if the relevant College/School/Department is satisfied with their academic suitability for the course(s) applied for, and if there are places in the lecture groups for the course(s) concerned.

Enquiries should be directed to the Admissions Office (for undergraduate level) or Chow Yei Ching School of Graduate Studies (for taught postgraduate and research degree levels).

Regulations
Academic Regulations for Associate Degrees

(Effective from Semester A 2011/12)

Glossary

Academic Transcript The official academic record of a student’s studies at the University, including grades assigned for courses.

Academic Year/Semester/Term The academic year is a period of twelve months starting normally in September of each year. The academic year is divided into two Semesters and a Summer Term.

Assessment The tests, coursework, examinations and other activities undertaken to assess students’ progress through courses and to assign final grades.

Assessment Panels University bodies responsible for assigning grades to students for their courses.

Course The basic units of instruction into which students are registered and for which grades may be assigned. University courses are approved for inclusion in the course catalogue.

Course Catalogue The official record of University courses maintained by the University.

Course Leader A Course Leader is appointed by the Head of department for each course offered by the department, to coordinate the assessment of the course.

Credit Transfer The assignment of credit units toward the credit unit requirements of a programme on the basis of work done outside that programme. Credit units are normally assigned against specific courses for work equivalent in content and standard.

Credit Unit Each course is assigned a number of credit units. A credit unit is earned by approximately forty-to-fifty hours of student work.

Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) $CGPA = \frac{\sum_{i=1}^{n} G_i U_i}{\sum_{i=1}^{n} U_i}$
For the calculation of Grade Point Average (GPA), G is the grade point awarded, U is the credit units earned for the $i^{th}$ course. CGPA is calculated for courses taken during enrolment for a specific programme, $i=1-n$ are all courses completed at the time of the calculation, unless excluded under AR9.3, or AR12.3.

Dean

Dean refers to Deans and other equivalent posts.

Enrolment

On entry to the University, students are enrolled in a programme of study.

Equivalent Course

Equivalent courses are courses where there is sufficient overlap in content that students may, with approval, register in the course to meet a programme requirement, to recover a failure or to improve a course grade.

Examination Board

University bodies responsible for classifying students’ awards, recommending to Senate conferment of awards, and terminating the studies of students on academic grounds on behalf of Senate.

Exclusive Course

Exclusive courses are courses where there is sufficient overlap in their content to make it inappropriate for students to earn credits for more than one of the courses. Students may be restricted from registration in a course when they have earned credit units for an exclusive course.

Each academic year has three graduation dates as set by Senate for the graduation of students who have completed requirements for awards.

Exemption

Students can be exempted from a requirement of a programme. Credit units are not earned for an exemption from a course.

Graduation Date

Each academic year has three graduation dates as set by Senate for the graduation of students who have completed requirements for awards.

Department

Department refers to “departments and equivalent bodies” as defined by Senate. A student’s “home department” is the department offering the programme in which the student is enrolled.

Mode of Study

Students are enrolled in a full-time, part-time or combined mode of study. Students’ modes of study govern their maximum and minimum course loads.

Operational Grade

A course grade assigned for administrative purposes to assist in the management of student records. Operational grades of I, IP, S, X, WD and AU do not count in the calculation of students’ GPAs.
Prerequisite
A requirement that must be fulfilled before a student can register in a particular course. Precursors are set for some courses. Precursors are not requirements, but students are advised to complete precursors before registering in these courses.

Programme
The structured academic programme leading to a named award of the University into which students are enrolled.

Registration
The inclusion of a student in the class list of a course.

Required Course
A course that must be passed to complete a programme.

Semester GPA (SGPA)
The GPA calculated for all the courses taken in a semester, including F grades, but excluding courses graded I, X, S, IP, P, WD or AU.

Senate
The University Senate of City University of Hong Kong.

Substitute Course
Where the normal course requirements of a programme cannot be completed, a “substitute” course may be approved by the home department for a student, replacing the required course.

University
City University of Hong Kong

University Award
An award of the University approved by the University Senate on completion of specified programme requirements.

University Requirement
A requirement set by the University Senate, irrespective of programme.

Working Days
Mondays to Fridays, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays and excluding a day throughout or for part of which a black rainstorm warning or Typhoon Signal Number 8 or above is issued by the Hong Kong Observatory.

Academic Regulations

These Academic Regulations are made by the University Senate to govern student progress leading to associate degree awards approved by the University Senate. Regulations for studies leading to awards of bachelor’s degrees, taught postgraduate programmes, MPhil, PhD, and Professional Doctorates are published separately.

Only the University Senate can amend the Regulations, or permit exceptions, exemptions, or variations from them. Any variation from the Regulations approved by Senate for a programme is set out in the requirements for the programme in the University website.

The Regulations are supplemented by information on administrative procedures and about particular programmes to be found in the University website.

* Associate degree programmes offered by Community College of City University are governed by a separate set of Academic Regulations.
1. Language of Instruction and Assessment
   Unless otherwise determined by Senate for a specific course or programme, the medium of instruction and assessment at the University is English.

2. Admission
   2.1 Admission to the University is based on academic criteria. The University does not discriminate on the basis of age, gender, race, nationality, social or ethnic origin, or disability. The University may have to consider whether its facilities are adequate, before admitting a disabled applicant.
   2.2 To be eligible for admission, the applicant must EITHER hold the general entrance requirements as specified by Senate and other specific requirements, if any, OR be a “mature applicant” as defined in the general entrance requirements, and be able to demonstrate aptitude and suitability for studies at the University.
   2.3 Meeting the entrance requirements does not guarantee admission. The University’s decision on the admission of applicants is final.

3. Enrolment
   3.1 On entry to the University, students are enrolled in a specific programme of the University.
   3.2 Only in exceptional circumstances may students enrol for more than one programme. To enrol for an additional programme, students must apply in writing for approval by the University.
   3.3 Students may change their programme of study. To change their programme, students must apply in writing for approval by the University. Changes of programme become effective only after at least one semester of study in a prior programme.
   3.4 To maintain their enrolment, students must conform to the University’s rules and regulations.

4. Leave of Absence
   Students may take a leave of absence from their studies for an approved period. Periods of approved absence may not be less than one full semester/term, and may not accumulate to more than four semesters. Applications for leave of absence must be made in writing for approval by the University.

5. Credit Transfer
   5.1 The University may allow previous educational or vocational experience to be counted toward the credit units required to earn an award of the University and appear on students’ transcripts.
   5.2 At least half of the credit units required for an award of the University must be earned by the successful completion of courses required by the programme concerned.
5.3 Credit units earned outside the University and counted toward a University award do not count in the calculation of a student’s GPA, except where special arrangements have been made.

5.4 Applications for credit transfer should be made in writing for approval by the University. Applications for credit transfer for work completed prior to entry to the University must be made before the start of the first semester according to the deadline set by the University. Applications for credit transfer for outside work completed after admission to the University must be made immediately in the semester following attainment of the additional qualification.

6. Course Registration

6.1 Students registering for courses must follow the instructions issued by the University.

6.2 Registration for some courses is restricted to students holding the necessary prerequisites.

6.3 The University reserves the right to restrict registration in courses, or permit registration only on a priority basis.

6.4 Students can add or drop a course during the add/drop period prescribed by the University. Requests for late add/drop of courses require approval by the relevant department.

6.5 If students remain registered for a course after the last date for dropping the course, as determined by the University, they will be assigned a course grade.

6.6 Students intending not to register in any courses in a semester but who will subsequently continue their study should apply for a leave of absence no later than the end of the course add/drop period.

6.7 Students who have met all the requirements to graduate from a programme may not register in further courses.

7. Maximum and Minimum Credit-Unit Load

7.1 In each semester, except the Summer Term, full-time students must register for courses to a total of at least twelve credit units, and for not more than eighteen credit units; part-time students must register for courses to a total of no more than eleven credit units; and combined mode students must register for courses for not more than eighteen credit units.

7.2 In the Summer Term, students may not register for courses to a total of more than seven credit units.

7.3 Except where special arrangements are made for their programme, students seeking an exception to AR7.1 or AR7.2 should apply in writing for approval by the University.
8. Maximum Period of Study

8.1 Students shall complete all programme requirements within the stipulated maximum period of study (i.e. two times the normal study period for the respective programme), inclusive of programme transfer and any periods of leave of absence and suspension of studies.

8.2 If a student applies for programme transfer involving a change of study mode, the new maximum period of study will be calculated on a pro-rata basis as determined by the University.

8.3 Students who cannot complete all programme requirements for graduation within the maximum study period will be required to discontinue their studies.

8.4 Requests for extension of study beyond the maximum study period will not be granted.

8.5 A student whose study has been discontinued due to expiry of the maximum period of study is not allowed readmission to the same programme.

8.6 If a student is readmitted to the same programme after study withdrawal or termination of study (but has not exceeded the maximum period of study), his/her previous period of study should be counted in the calculation of the student’s maximum period of study. The student’s credit units and grades previously earned from the same programme are normally counted in the GPA calculation, and the final decision on acceptance of credit units and grades rests with the respective department.

9. Grading of Courses

9.1 Courses are graded according to the following schedule:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Letter Grade</th>
<th>Grade Point</th>
<th>Grade Definitions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A+</td>
<td>4.3</td>
<td>Excellent: Strong evidence of original thinking; good organization, capacity to analyze and synthesize; superior grasp of subject matter; evidence of extensive knowledge base.</td>

</tr>
</tbody>
WD Withdrawn  Assigned when a student has registered for the course in a semester/term and subsequently submitted a notification of withdrawal from the University.

9.2 Students assigned a grade of D or better, or a Pass grade in a pass-fail course, earn credit units for the course. Grades of F, IP, I, S, WD, X or AU do not earn credit units.

9.3 Grades of P, I, IP, S, WD, X and AU are not counted in the calculation of a student’s CGPA. Grades of F are counted, unless the fail is recovered under AR12.3.

9.4 Grades of P, I, IP, S, WD, X and AU are not counted in the calculation of a student’s SGPA.

10. Illness or other Circumstances Affecting Assessment

10.1 A student who believes that his/her ability to attend an examination, or in-course assessment with a weighting of 20% or above, has been adversely affected by circumstances beyond his/her control must submit the case, with documentary evidence, to his/her home department following the procedures stated on the University website, as soon as possible and no later than 5 working days of the scheduled date for completing the affected examination or assessment.

10.2 The home department of the student will investigate the case, in consultation with the course-offering department. Only compelling reasons such as illness, hospitalization, accident, family bereavement or other unforeseeable serious personal or emotional circumstances will be considered. The decision of the home department is final.

10.3 If the case is justified and substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Assessment Panel which will determine whether to offer the student a make-up examination or coursework or other alternative assessment. Where assessments for more than one course are affected, it is the responsibility of the home department to inform all relevant Assessment Panels. The Assessment Panel may also adjust the grade of the student if deemed appropriate.

11. Review of Course Grades

11.1 Requests for review of course grades are governed by AR11.

Informal Resolution

11.2 For review of course grades via informal resolution, the Course Leader will only consider requests on grounds of administrative error in recording or calculating the mark or result, or other circumstances that impact the course grade awarded.

11.3 A student should contact the Course Leader within 5 working days of the announcement of grades by the University with a view to resolving the matter informally.
11.4 If a revision to the student’s course grade is considered necessary, the Course Leader should make a recommendation to amend the grade and seek the endorsement of the Chair of the Assessment Panel. Any grades thus amended will be reported to the Assessment Panel at its next meeting.

11.5 The decision on the informal review will be communicated to the student by the Course Leader no later than 13 working days following the announcement of grades by the University.

11.6 Other than disagreement with the academic judgment of Course Leaders which does not constitute valid grounds for formal review by virtue of AR 11.7, if the student’s concerns regarding course grades as stipulated in AR 11.2 cannot be resolved by informal means, the student may seek resolution via the formal procedures outlined below. However, informal review is not a prerequisite for the formal procedure.

Formal Procedures for Review

11.7 Disagreement with the academic judgement of Course Leaders does not constitute valid grounds for formal review. For formal review of course grades, only requests with the following grounds will be considered:

(i) there has been a procedural irregularity in the assessment process; for example, the assessment was not conducted in accordance with the Academic Regulations or with the arrangement prescribed for the course;

(ii) there exist circumstances that impact the course grade awarded that the student was unable to bring them to the attention of the Course Leader prior to the assessment for valid reasons.

11.8 Any request for review of course grades must be made in writing to the Dean of the College/School offering the course within 22 working days of the announcement of grades by the University. For courses offered by the Chinese Civilization Centre and the English Language Centre, the request for formal review should be submitted to the respective Head of Centre. The written application must:

(i) state the grounds on which the request for review is made;

(ii) include a description of the relevant facts; and

(iii) provide supporting evidence.

11.9 Upon receipt of the formal request for review, the Dean of the College/School or the Head of Centre will determine whether or not a prima facie case for review has been established. If, in the view of the Dean of the College/School or the Head of Centre, there is no prima facie case, then the request will be dismissed and the decision conveyed to the student no later than 32 working days following the announcement of grades by the University.

11.10 If, in the view of the Dean of the College/School or the Head of Centre, there is a prima facie case, then he/she will refer the matter to the College/School/Centre Grade Review Committee for consideration. The Committee may interview the student and staff members concerned. If the student does not show up for the interview, the Committee will consider the student’s request for formal review of course grade on the basis of the information and documents provided by the student and other information available to the Committee. The Committee will record its proceedings and resolutions.

11.11 If the Committee determines that the case is substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Assessment Panel to decide the action to be taken. The Assessment Panel will report back to the College/School/Centre Grade Review Committee any decisions taken on cases referred via this procedure.

11.12 The decision on the formal review will be communicated in writing to the student by the Dean of the College/School or the Head of Centre with a brief statement of the reasons for the decision. The decision should be conveyed to the student no later than 54 working days following the announcement of grades by the University.

Appeal Procedures

11.13 Formal requests for review of course grades should normally be resolved at the College/School/Centre level. A student may only appeal against the decision of the College/School/Centre Grade Review Committee on the basis of procedural irregularity in the review process within 10 working days following receipt of the decision on the formal review. Students may submit an appeal in writing to the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education). Appellants should clearly indicate the grounds for appeal, and provide evidence in support of the appeal. The Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education) will determine whether or not a prima facie case for appeal has been established. If, in the view of the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education), there is no prima facie case, then the appeal will be dismissed and the decision conveyed to the student normally no later than 10 working days following receipt of the appeal. The decision of the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education) to dismiss an appeal is final.

11.14 If, in the view of the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education), there is a prima facie case, he/she will refer the matter to the Academic Review Committee for consideration.

11.15 If the Academic Review Committee determines that the case is substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Assessment Panel to decide the actions to be taken. The Assessment Panel will report back to the Academic Review Committee any decisions taken on cases referred via this procedure.

11.16 The Academic Review Committee should record its proceedings and resolutions. The decision on the appeal will be conveyed to the student in writing normally no later than 27 working days following receipt of the appeal case by the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education) and is final.

11.17 The College/School/Centre Grade Review Committees will submit a report of formal requests for review of course grades considered to the Senate via the Quality Assurance Committee annually. The Academic Review Committee will submit an annual report to the Senate via the Quality Assurance Committee on all appeal cases received by the Academic Review Committee.
12. Students’ Academic Progress and Academic Standing

Academic Standing

12.1 Academic standing provides an indicator of the student’s academic progress and identifies students in academic difficulty needing academic advising and extra help. The four levels of academic standing are defined as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Standing</th>
<th>Definitions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Good Standing</td>
<td>Students are making satisfactory academic progress.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Academic Warning</td>
<td>Students’ most recent academic performance has been unsatisfactory, or their overall academic average is below minimum requirements. Students on warning are asked to seek academic advice from their academic advisor.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Probation</td>
<td>Students’ most recent academic performance has been extremely unsatisfactory, or their overall academic average has continued to be below the minimum requirements for graduation. Students on Probation will be assigned an academic advisor by their home department, and will not be permitted to register in courses in the following semester without the approval of the academic advisor. The home department may also require students on Probation to take a reduced credit unit load in the semester.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Academic Suspension</td>
<td>Students who cannot benefit from course registration in the next semester may be suspended for an approved period of not less than one semester. Academic Suspension is designed to provide students with an opportunity to resolve the problems that are preventing them making academic progress. On return from their suspension, students may be given the opportunity for one additional course repeat in each failed course to recover failure(s).</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Operational Standing

| Review              | A temporary status indicating that a student’s performance may require a change of academic standing and has been referred to the student’s department. |

12.2 An academic standing decision is made for all students at the end of each semester, in accordance with rules adopted by Senate and published by the University.

Repeating Courses to Improve Grades

12.3 Except for courses covered by AR12.4, students may repeat a course, or an equivalent course, to recover a failure or to improve a course grade of D. After the first attempt, only two repeat attempts are permitted. Course grades for all attempts will appear on the student’s transcript, but only the final grade earned will be included in the calculation of the student’s CGPA.
12.4 Courses may be designated ‘dissertation-type’ courses in the course catalogue. For dissertation-type courses, the catalogue will specify the normal duration for course registration and the maximum duration for course registration. Students are not permitted to repeat a dissertation-type course.

Dean’s List

12.5 At the end of each semester, or for part-time students on the completion of two semesters, students’ GPAs are calculated. Where a student over that period has (1) earned twelve credit units or more, (2) achieved a GPA of 3.7 or greater, and (3) not failed any course, the student is placed on the Dean’s List.

12.6 Students on a combined mode of study will have their GPAs calculated at the end of each semester or upon the completion of two semesters, as appropriate. When a student over that period has (1) earned twelve credit units or more, (2) achieved a GPA of 3.7 or greater, and (3) not failed any course, the student is placed on the Dean’s List.

13. Conferment and Classification of Awards

Requirements for University Awards

13.1 To be granted an award of the University, students must successfully complete a programme of the University, including specific requirements of the named award for which they are registered, general University requirements, and college/school requirements, if any. The requirements for awards are set out in the University website for each programme.

13.2 Credit units earned for courses at a level below the associate degree level are not normally counted toward requirements for an award.

13.3 Where two or more courses are defined as exclusive for a programme by the home department, the credit units earned for only one of the courses will count toward the requirements for the award.

13.4 Where the normal course requirements of a programme cannot be completed, a “substitute” course may be approved by the home department for a student, replacing the required course.

13.5 The University may allow credit units earned by students registered for a particular programme of the University to be counted toward the requirements of another programme for which they register.

13.6 The University may allow exemption from courses required for an award of the University. Credit units toward the award are not given when an exemption is granted.

13.7 Students may be granted an award only if they have achieved a CGPA of 1.70 or above.

13.8 Students completing the requirements for an award graduate on the next following graduation date.

Classification of Awards

13.9 The University grants associate degree awards with classifications as follows:
13.10 University awards are classified by the relevant College/School Examination Board, that makes a recommendation to Senate for the conferment of awards.

13.11 College/School Examination Boards classify awards with regard to, but not necessarily in strict conformity with, a student’s CGPA.

14. Termination of Studies

14.1 The University has the right to terminate a student’s study for failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress as determined by the Examination Board or to comply with the policies and procedures of the University.

14.2 For termination of studies due to academic reasons, students may not continue their studies at the University without readmission, with readmission to any programme no earlier than one academic year after the student’s termination.

15. Review of Examination Board Decisions

15.1 Requests for review of an Examination Board’s decision on academic standing or final award are governed by AR15. The academic judgement of the Board shall not be subject to review.

Informal Resolution

15.2 For review of an Examination Board’s decision via informal means, the University will only consider requests on grounds of administrative error in recording, transcribing, or reporting of the result.

15.3 A student should attempt to resolve the matter informally by contacting the Programme Leader within 5 working days of the publication of the academic standing or final award by the University through the University administrative information system. However, informal review is not a pre-requisite for the formal procedure.

15.4 If an amendment to the decision on academic standing or award classification is considered necessary, the Programme Leader should make a recommendation via the Head of Department to this effect and seek the endorsement of the Chair of the Examination Board. Any Examination Board decision thus amended will be reported to the Examination Board at its next meeting.

15.5 The decision on the informal review will be communicated to the student by the Programme Leader no later than 8 working days following receipt of the formal request for review.

Formal Procedures for Review

15.6 For formal review of an Examination Board’s decision, only requests with the following grounds will be considered:
(i) there has been a procedural irregularity affecting the Board’s decision;
(ii) there exist circumstances that impact the Board’s decision that the student was unable to bring them to the attention of the Board prior to its deliberations for valid reasons.

15.7 Students may submit a formal request in writing to the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education) within 22 working days of the publication of the Examination Board’s decision by the University. The application must:

(i) state the grounds on which the request for review is made;
(ii) include a description of the relevant facts; and
(iii) provide supporting evidence.

15.8 The Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education) will determine whether or not a prima facie case for review has been established. If, in the view of the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education), there is no prima facie case, then the request will be dismissed and the decision conveyed to the student no later than 10 working days following receipt of the request. The decision of the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education) to dismiss the request for review is final.

15.9 If, in the view of the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education), there is a prima facie case, he/she will refer the matter to the Academic Review Committee for consideration. The Committee may interview the student and staff members concerned. If the student does not show up for the interview, the Committee will consider the student’s request for formal review of Examination Board’s decision on the basis of the information and documents provided by the student and other information available to the Committee. The Committee will record its proceedings and resolutions.

15.10 If the Academic Review Committee determines that the case is substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Examination Board. The Examination Board will review the case and decide whether changes to the student’s academic standing or award classification are required. The Examination Board will report back to the Academic Review Committee any decisions taken on cases referred via this procedure.

15.11 The decision on the formal review will be conveyed to the student in writing no later than 22 working days following receipt of the formal request for review.

Appeal Procedures

15.12 Formal requests for review of the Examination Board’s decisions should normally be resolved by the Academic Review Committee. A student may only appeal against the decision of the Committee on the basis of procedural irregularity in the review process. Students may submit an appeal in writing to the Provost within 10 working days following receipt of the decision regarding the formal review. Appellants should clearly indicate the grounds for appeal and provide evidence in support of the appeal.

15.13 If the Provost determines that the case is substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Examination Board. The Examination Board will review the case and decide whether changes to the student’s academic standing or award classification are required. The Examination Board will report back to the Provost any decisions taken on cases referred via this procedure.

15.14 The Office of the Provost should record its proceedings and resolutions. The decision on the appeal will be conveyed to the student in writing within 22 working days following receipt of the appeal and is final.

15.15 The Academic Review Committee will submit a report of formal requests for review of Examination Board decisions and of appeals cases received to the Senate via the Quality Assurance Committee annually. The Provost will submit an annual report to the Senate via the Quality Assurance Committee on all appeal cases received by him/her.

For the calculation of Grade Point Average (GPA), $G$ is the grade point awarded, $U$ is the credit units earned for the $i$th course. CGPA is calculated for courses taken during enrolment for a specific programme/degree, $i=1-n$ are all courses completed at the time of the calculation, unless excluded under AR9.3, or AR12.3.
For the calculation of Grade Point Average (GPA), \( G \) is the grade point awarded, \( U \) is the credit units earned for the \( i \)th course. CGPA is calculated for courses taken during enrolment for a specific programme/degree, \( i=1-n \) are all courses completed at the time of the calculation, unless excluded under AR9.3, or AR12.3.

Dean
Dean refers to Deans and other equivalent posts.

Degree
Degree refers to bachelor’s degrees with honours offered by the University. The type of bachelor’s degree awards includes Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Business Administration, Bachelor of Engineering, Bachelor of Laws, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Social Sciences, and any other degree titles as approved by the Senate.

Enrolment
On entry to the University, students are enrolled in a programme of study or degree.

Equivalent Course
Equivalent courses are courses where there is sufficient overlap in content that students may, with approval, register in the course to meet a programme/degree requirement, to recover a failure or to improve a course grade.

Examination Board
University bodies responsible for classifying students’ awards, recommending to Senate conferment of awards, and terminating the studies of students on academic grounds on behalf of Senate.

Exclusive Course
Exclusive courses are courses where there is sufficient overlap in their content to make it inappropriate for students to earn credits for more than one of the courses. Students may be restricted from registration in a course when they have earned credit units for an exclusive course.

Exemption
Students can be exempted from a requirement of a programme/degree. Credit units are not earned for an exemption from a course.

Graduation Date
Each academic year has three graduation dates as set by Senate for the graduation of students who have completed requirements for awards.

Home Department
A student’s home department is the department/college/school offering the programme, degree or major he/she is enrolled in.

Major
A major field of study is the core competence area comprising a structured group of courses which aim to create a broad and deep intellectual experience in an academic discipline.

Mode of Study
Students are enrolled in a full-time, part-time or combined mode of study. Students’ modes of study govern their maximum and minimum course loads.

Operational Grade
A course grade assigned for administrative purposes to assist in the management of student records. Operational grades of I, IP, S, X, WD and AU do not count in the calculation of students’ GPAs.
Academic Regulations for Undergraduate Degrees

Prerequisite: A requirement that must be fulfilled before a student can register in a particular course. Precursors are set for some courses. Precursors are not requirements, but students are advised to complete precursors before registering in these courses.

Programme: The structured academic programme leading to a named award of the University into which students are enrolled.

Registration: The inclusion of a student in the class list of a course.

Required Course: A course that must be passed to complete a programme/degree.

Semester GPA (SGPA): The GPA calculated for all the courses taken in a semester, including F grades, but excluding courses graded I, X, S, IP, P, WD or AU.

Senate: The University Senate of City University of Hong Kong.

Substitute Course: Where the normal course requirements cannot be completed, a “substitute” course may be approved by the home department for a student, replacing the required course.

University: City University of Hong Kong

University Award: An award of the University approved by the University Senate on completion of specified programme/degree requirements.

University Requirement: A requirement set by the University Senate for all undergraduate students, irrespective of programme/degree.

Working Days: Mondays to Fridays, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays and excluding a day throughout or for part of which a black rainstorm warning or Typhoon Signal Number 8 or above is issued by the Hong Kong Observatory.

Academic Regulations

These Academic Regulations are made by the University Senate to govern student progress leading to bachelor’s degree awards approved by the University Senate. Regulations for studies leading to awards of associate degrees, taught postgraduate programmes, MPhil, PhD, and Professional Doctorates are published separately.

Only the University Senate can amend the Regulations, or permit exceptions, exemptions, or variations from them. Any variation from the Regulations approved by Senate for a programme/degree is set out in the requirements for the programme/degree in the University website.

The Regulations are supplemented by information on administrative procedures and about particular programmes or degrees to be found in the University website.

1. Language of Instruction and Assessment

   Unless otherwise determined by Senate for a specific course or programme, the medium of instruction and assessment at the University is English.
2. Admission
2.1 Admission to the University is based on academic criteria. The University does not discriminate on the basis of age, gender, race, nationality, social or ethnic origin, or disability. The University may have to consider whether its facilities are adequate, before admitting a disabled applicant.

2.2 To be eligible for admission, the applicant must EITHER hold the general entrance requirements as specified by Senate and other specific requirements, if any, OR be a “mature applicant” as defined in the general entrance requirements, and be able to demonstrate aptitude and suitability for studies at the University.

2.3 Meeting the entrance requirements does not guarantee admission. The University’s decision on the admission of applicants is final.

3. Enrolment
3.1 On entry to the University, students are enrolled in a specific programme of study or degree with a declared/undeclared major. Students having an “undeclared major” shall declare their major in accordance with the timeline and procedures announced by the University.

3.2 Students may apply for changing their programme of study or major according to the procedures stipulated by the University. If approved, the change will take effect from the following semester/year.

3.3 To maintain their enrolment, students must conform to the University’s rules and regulations.

4. Leave of Absence
Students may take a leave of absence from their studies for an approved period. Periods of approved absence may not be less than one full semester/term, and may not accumulate to more than four semesters. Applications for leave of absence must be made in writing for approval by the University.

5. Credit Transfer
5.1 The University may allow previous educational or vocational experience to be counted toward the credit units required to earn an award of the University and appear on students’ transcripts.

5.2 At least half of the credit units required for an award of the University must be earned by the successful completion of courses required by the programme/degree concerned.

5.3 Credit units earned outside the University and counted toward a University award do not count in the calculation of a student’s GPA, except where special arrangements have been made.

5.4 Applications for credit transfer should be made in writing for approval by the University. Applications for credit transfer for work completed prior to entry to the University must be made before the start of the first semester according to the deadline set by the University. Applications for credit transfer for outside work completed after admission to the University must be made immediately in the semester following attainment of the additional qualification.

6. Course Registration

6.1 Students registering for courses must follow the instructions issued by the University.

6.2 Registration for some courses is restricted to students holding the necessary prerequisites.

6.3 The University reserves the right to restrict registration in courses, or permit registration only on a priority basis.

6.4 Students can add or drop a course during the add/drop period prescribed by the University. Requests for late add/drop of courses require approval by the relevant department.

6.5 If students remain registered for a course after the last date for dropping the course, as determined by the University, they will be assigned a course grade.

6.6 Students intending not to register in any courses in a semester but who will subsequently continue their study should apply for a leave of absence no later than the end of the course add/drop period.

6.7 Students who have met all the requirements to graduate from a programme or completed the maximum credit units allowed for a degree may not register in further courses.

7. Maximum and Minimum Credit-Unit Load

7.1 In each semester, except the Summer Term, full-time students must register for courses to a total of at least twelve credit units, and for not more than eighteen credit units; part-time students must register for courses to a total of no more than eleven credit units; and combined mode students must register for courses for not more than eighteen credit units.

7.2 In the Summer Term, students may not register for courses to a total of more than seven credit units.

7.3 Except where special arrangements are made, students seeking an exception to AR7.1 or AR7.2 should apply in writing for approval by the University.

8. Maximum Period of Study

8.1 Students shall complete all programme/degree requirements within the stipulated maximum period of study (i.e. two times the normal study period for the respective programme/degree), inclusive of programme transfer and any periods of leave of absence and suspension of studies.

* The Academic Regulations on the maximum period of study only apply to students admitted in Semester A 2010/11 and thereafter.
8.2 If a student applies for programme/degree transfer involving a change of study mode, the new maximum period of study will be calculated on a pro-rata basis as determined by the University.

8.3 Students who cannot complete all programme/degree requirements for graduation within the maximum study period will be required to discontinue their studies.

8.4 Requests for extension of study beyond the maximum study period will not be granted.

8.5 A student whose study has been discontinued due to expiry of the maximum period of study is not allowed readmission to the same programme/degree with the same major.

8.6 If a student is readmitted to the same programme/degree with the same major after study withdrawal or termination of study (but has not exceeded the maximum period of study), his/her previous period of study should be counted in the calculation of the student’s maximum period of study. The student’s credit units and grades previously earned from the same programme/degree with the same major are normally counted in the GPA calculation, and the final decision on acceptance of credit units and grades rests with the respective department.

9. Grading of Courses

9.1 Courses are graded according to the following schedule:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Letter Grade</th>
<th>Grade Point</th>
<th>Grade Definitions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A+</td>
<td>4.3</td>
<td>Excellent: Strong evidence of original thinking; good organization, capacity to analyze and synthesize; superior grasp of subject matter; evidence of extensive knowledge base.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>4.0</td>
<td>Good: Evidence of grasp of subject, some evidence of critical capacity and analytic ability; reasonable understanding of issues; evidence of familiarity with literature.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A-</td>
<td>3.7</td>
<td>Adequate: Student who is profiting from the university experience; understanding of the subject; ability to develop solutions to simple problems in the material.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B+</td>
<td>3.3</td>
<td>Marginal: Sufficient familiarity with the subject matter to enable the student to progress without repeating the course.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>3.0</td>
<td>Failure: Little evidence of familiarity with the subject matter; weakness in critical and analytic skills; limited, or irrelevant use of literature.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B-</td>
<td>2.7</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C+</td>
<td>2.3</td>

</tbody>
</table>
P Pass: “Pass” in a pass-fail course. Courses to be graded on a pass-fail basis are specifically identified in the course catalogue.

Operational Grades

IP In Progress An IP grade is shown where students will register in subsequent Semesters to complete the assessment of the course.

I Incomplete A grade of incomplete may be granted (1) where there are extenuating circumstances that have prevented a student from completing required work, or attending the examination; (2) at the discretion of the Assessment Panel. Where an “I” grade is assigned, the Assessment Panel will approve a schedule for the completion of work, or a supplementary examination. An “I” grade will be converted into an “F” grade four weeks after the “I” grade is first reported, unless an alternative grade has been assigned.

S Dissertation Submitted In a dissertation-type course, an S grade is assigned by the Course Leader when a student’s dissertation has been submitted for assessment.

X Late Drop Assigned when a student is permitted to drop the course after the normal drop date.

AU Audit An audited grade is assigned when an auditing student has completed the conditions established at registration as an auditor. No assessment is made or grade awarded for auditing.

WD Withdrawn An audited grade is assigned when an auditing student has completed the conditions established at registration as an auditor. No assessment is made or grade awarded for auditing.

9.2 Students assigned a grade of D or better, or a Pass grade in a pass-fail course, earn credit units for the course. Grades of F, IP, I, S, WD, X or AU do not earn credit units.

9.3 Grades of P, I, IP, S, WD, X and AU are not counted in the calculation of a student’s CGPA. Grades of F are counted, unless the fail is recovered under AR12.3.

9.4 Grades of P, I, IP, S, WD, X and AU are not counted in the calculation of a student’s SGPA.
10. Illness or other Circumstances Affecting Assessment

10.1 A student who believes that his/her ability to attend an examination, or in-course assessment with a weighting of 20% or above, has been adversely affected by circumstances beyond his/her control must submit the case, with documentary evidence, to his/her home department following the procedures stated on the University website, as soon as possible and no later than 5 working days of the scheduled date for completing the affected examination or assessment.

10.2 The home department of the student will investigate the case, in consultation with the course-offering department. Only compelling reasons such as illness, hospitalization, accident, family bereavement or other unforeseeable serious personal or emotional circumstances will be considered. The decision of the home department is final.

10.3 If the case is justified and substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Assessment Panel which will determine whether to offer the student a make-up examination or coursework or other alternative assessment. Where assessments for more than one course are affected, it is the responsibility of the home department to inform all relevant Assessment Panels. The Assessment Panel may also adjust the grade of the student if deemed appropriate.

11. Review of Course Grades

11.1 Requests for review of course grades are governed by AR11.

Informal Resolution

11.2 For review of course grades via informal resolution, the Course Leader will only consider requests on grounds of administrative error in recording or calculating the mark or result, or other circumstances that impact the course grade awarded.

11.3 A student should contact the Course Leader within 5 working days of the announcement of grades by the University with a view to resolving the matter informally.

11.4 If a revision to the student’s course grade is considered necessary, the Course Leader should make a recommendation to amend the grade and seek the endorsement of the Chair of the Assessment Panel. Any grades thus amended will be reported to the Assessment Panel at its next meeting.

11.5 The decision on the informal review will be communicated to the student by the Course Leader no later than 13 working days following the announcement of grades by the University.

11.6 Other than disagreement with the academic judgment of Course Leaders which does not constitute valid grounds for formal review by virtue of AR 11.7, if the student’s concerns regarding course grades as stipulated in AR 11.2 cannot be resolved by informal means, the student may seek resolution via the formal procedures outlined below. However, informal review is not a pre-requisite for the formal procedure.
Formal Procedures for Review

11.7 Disagreement with the academic judgement of Course Leaders does not constitute valid grounds for formal review. For formal review of course grades, only requests with the following grounds will be considered:

(i) there has been a procedural irregularity in the assessment process; for example, the assessment was not conducted in accordance with the Academic Regulations or with the arrangement prescribed for the course;

(ii) there exist circumstances that impact the course grade awarded that the student was unable to bring them to the attention of the Course Leader prior to the assessment for valid reasons.

11.8 Any request for review of course grades must be made in writing to the Dean of the College/School offering the course within 22 working days of the announcement of grades by the University. For courses offered by the Chinese Civilization Centre and the English Language Centre, the request for formal review should be submitted to the respective Head of Centre. The written application must:

(i) state the grounds on which the request for review is made;
(ii) include a description of the relevant facts; and
(iii) provide supporting evidence.

11.9 Upon receipt of the formal request for review, the Dean of the College/School or the Head of Centre will determine whether or not a prima facie case for review has been established. If, in the view of the Dean of the College/School or the Head of Centre, there is no prima facie case, then the request will be dismissed and the decision conveyed to the student no later than 32 working days following the announcement of grades by the University.

11.10 If, in the view of the Dean of the College/School or the Head of Centre, there is a prima facie case, then he/she will refer the matter to the College/School/Centre Grade Review Committee for consideration. The Committee may interview the student and staff members concerned. If the student does not show up for the interview, the Committee will consider the student’s request for formal review of course grade on the basis of the information and documents provided by the student and other information available to the Committee. The Committee will record its proceedings and resolutions.

11.11 If the Committee determines that the case is substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Assessment Panel to decide the action to be taken. The Assessment Panel will report back to the College/School/Centre Grade Review Committee any decisions taken on cases referred via this procedure.

11.12 The decision on the formal review will be communicated in writing to the student by the Dean of the College/School or the Head of Centre with a brief statement of the reasons for the decision. The decision should be conveyed to the student no later than 54 working days following the announcement of grades by the University.
Appeal Procedures

11.13 Formal requests for review of course grades should normally be resolved at the College/ School/Centre level. A student may only appeal against the decision of the College/ School/Centre Grade Review Committee on the basis of procedural irregularity in the review process within 10 working days following receipt of the decision on the formal review. Students may submit an appeal in writing to the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education). Appellants should clearly indicate the grounds for appeal, and provide evidence in support of the appeal. The Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education) will determine whether or not a prima facie case for appeal has been established. If, in the view of the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education), there is no prima facie case, then the appeal will be dismissed and the decision conveyed to the student normally no later than 10 working days following receipt of the appeal. The decision of the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education) to dismiss an appeal is final.

11.14 If, in the view of the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education), there is a prima facie case, he/she will refer the matter to the Academic Review Committee for consideration.

11.15 If the Academic Review Committee determines that the case is substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Assessment Panel to decide the actions to be taken. The Assessment Panel will report back to the Academic Review Committee any decisions taken on cases referred via this procedure.

11.16 The Academic Review Committee should record its proceedings and resolutions. The decision on the appeal will be conveyed to the student in writing normally no later than 27 working days following receipt of the appeal case by the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education) and is final.

11.17 The College/School/Centre Grade Review Committees will submit a report of formal requests for review of course grades considered to the Senate via the Quality Assurance Committee annually. The Academic Review Committee will submit an annual report to the Senate via the Quality Assurance Committee on all appeal cases received by the Academic Review Committee.

12. Students’ Academic Progress and Academic Standing

Academic Standing

12.1 Academic standing provides an indicator of the student’s academic progress and identifies students in academic difficulty needing academic advising and extra help. The four levels of academic standing are defined as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Standing</th>
<th>Definitions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Good Standing</td>
<td>Students are making satisfactory academic progress.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Academic Warning</td>
<td>Students’ most recent academic performance has been unsatisfactory, or their overall academic average is below minimum requirements. Students on warning are asked to seek academic advice from their academic advisor.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Probation

Students’ most recent academic performance has been extremely unsatisfactory, or their overall academic average has continued to be below the minimum requirements for graduation. Students on Probation will be assigned an academic advisor by their home department, and will not be permitted to register in courses in the following semester without the approval of the academic advisor. The home department may also require students on Probation to take a reduced credit unit load in the semester.

Academic Suspension

Students who cannot benefit from course registration in the next semester may be suspended for an approved period of not less than one semester. Academic Suspension is designed to provide students with an opportunity to resolve the problems that are preventing them making academic progress. On return from their suspension, students may be given the opportunity for one additional course repeat in each failed course to recover failure(s).

Operational Standing

Review

A temporary status indicating that a student’s performance may require a change of academic standing and has been referred to the student’s home department.

12.2 An academic standing decision is made for all students at the end of each semester, in accordance with rules adopted by Senate and published by the University.

Repeating Courses to Improve Grades

12.3 Except for courses covered by AR12.4, students may repeat a course, or an equivalent course, to recover a failure or to improve a course grade of D. After the first attempt, only two repeat attempts are permitted. Course grades for all attempts will appear on the student’s transcript, but only the final grade earned will be included in the calculation of the student’s CGPA.

12.4 Courses may be designated ‘dissertation-type’ courses in the course catalogue. For dissertation-type courses, the catalogue will specify the normal duration for course registration and the maximum duration for course registration. Students are not permitted to repeat a dissertation-type course.

Dean’s List

12.5 At the end of each semester, or for part-time students on the completion of two semesters, students’ GPAs are calculated. Where a student over that period has (1) earned twelve credit units or more, (2) achieved a GPA of 3.7 or greater, and (3) not failed any course, the student is placed on the Dean’s List.

12.6 Students on a combined mode of study will have their GPAs calculated at the end of each semester or upon the completion of two semesters, as appropriate. When a student over that period has (1) earned twelve credit units or more, (2) achieved a GPA of 3.7 or greater, and (3) not failed any course, the student is placed on the Dean’s List.
13. Conferment and Classification of Awards

Requirements for University Awards

13.1 To be granted an award of the University, students must successfully complete the University requirements, including specific requirements of the named award/degree for which they are registered, and college/school requirements, if any. The requirements for awards are set out in the University website.

13.2 Credit units earned for courses at a level below the bachelor’s degree level are not normally counted toward requirements for an award.

13.3 Where two or more courses are defined as exclusive, the credit units earned for only one of the courses will count toward the requirements for the award.

13.4 Where the normal course requirements cannot be completed, a “substitute” course may be approved by the home department for a student, replacing the required course.

13.5 The University may allow credit units earned by students registered for a particular programme/degree of the University to be counted toward the requirements of another programme/degree for which they register.

13.6 The University may allow exemption from courses required for an award of the University. Credit units toward the award are not given when an exemption is granted.

13.7 Students may be granted an award only if they have achieved a CGPA of 1.70 or above.

13.8 Students completing the requirements for a degree award graduate on the next following graduation date.

Classification of Awards

13.9 The University grants bachelor’s degree awards with classifications as follows:

(i) First Class Honours
(ii) Upper Second Class Honours
(iii) Lower Second Class Honours
(iv) Third Class Honours
(v) Pass

13.10 University awards are classified by the relevant College/School Examination Board, that makes a recommendation to Senate for the conferment of awards.

13.11 College/School Examination Boards classify awards with regard to, but not necessarily in strict conformity with, a student’s CGPA.

14. Termination of Studies

14.1 The University has the right to terminate a student’s study for failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress as determined by the Examination Board or to comply with the policies and procedures of the University.
14.2 For termination of studies due to academic reasons, students may not continue their studies at the University without readmission, with readmission to any programme/degree no earlier than one academic year after the student’s termination.

15. Review of Examination Board Decisions

15.1 Requests for review of an Examination Board’s decision on academic standing or final award are governed by AR15. The academic judgement of the Board shall not be subject to review.

Informal Resolution

15.2 For review of an Examination Board’s decision via informal means, the University will only consider requests on grounds of administrative error in recording, transcribing, or reporting of the result.

15.3 A student should attempt to resolve the matter informally by contacting the Programme Leader within 5 working days of the publication of the academic standing or final award by the University through the University administrative information system. However, informal review is not a pre-requisite for the formal procedure.

15.4 If an amendment to the decision on academic standing or award classification is considered necessary, the Programme Leader should make a recommendation via the Head of Department to this effect and seek the endorsement of the Chair of the Examination Board. Any Examination Board decision thus amended will be reported to the Examination Board at its next meeting.

15.5 The decision on the informal review will be communicated to the student by the Programme Leader no later than 8 working days following receipt of the formal request for review.

Formal Procedures for Review

15.6 For formal review of an Examination Board’s decision, only requests with the following grounds will be considered:

(i) there has been a procedural irregularity affecting the Board’s decision;

(ii) there exist circumstances that impact the Board’s decision that the student was unable to bring them to the attention of the Board prior to its deliberations for valid reasons.

15.7 Students may submit a formal request in writing to the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education) within 22 working days of the publication of the Examination Board’s decision by the University. The application must:

(i) state the grounds on which the request for review is made;

(ii) include a description of the relevant facts; and

(iii) provide supporting evidence.

15.8 The Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education) will determine whether or not a prima facie case for review has been established. If, in the view of the
Academic Regulations for Undergraduate Degrees

Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education), there is no prima facie case, then the request will be dismissed and the decision conveyed to the student no later than 10 working days following receipt of the request. The decision of the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education) to dismiss the request for review is final.

15.9 If, in the view of the Associate Provost (Academic Planning and Undergraduate Education), there is a prima facie case, he/she will refer the matter to the Academic Review Committee for consideration. The Committee may interview the student and staff members concerned. If the student does not show up for the interview, the Committee will consider the student’s request for formal review of Examination Board’s decision on the basis of the information and documents provided by the student and other information available to the Committee. The Committee will record its proceedings and resolutions.

15.10 If the Academic Review Committee determines that the case is substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Examination Board. The Examination Board will review the case and decide whether changes to the student’s academic standing or award classification are required. The Examination Board will report back to the Academic Review Committee any decisions taken on cases referred via this procedure.

15.11 The decision on the formal review will be conveyed to the student in writing no later than 22 working days following receipt of the formal request for review.

Appeal Procedures

15.12 Formal requests for review of the Examination Board’s decisions should normally be resolved by the Academic Review Committee. A student may only appeal against the decision of the Committee on the basis of procedural irregularity in the review process. Students may submit an appeal in writing to the Provost within 10 working days following receipt of the decision regarding the formal review. Appellants should clearly indicate the grounds for appeal and provide evidence in support of the appeal.

15.13 If the Provost determines that the case is substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Examination Board. The Examination Board will review the case and decide whether changes to the student’s academic standing or award classification are required. The Examination Board will report back to the Provost any decisions taken on cases referred via this procedure.

15.14 The Office of the Provost should record its proceedings and resolutions. The decision on the appeal will be conveyed to the student in writing within 22 working days following receipt of the appeal and is final.

15.15 The Academic Review Committee will submit a report of formal requests for review of Examination Board decisions and of appeals cases received to the Senate via the Quality Assurance Committee annually. The Provost will submit an annual report to the Senate via the Quality Assurance Committee on all appeal cases received by him/her.
Academic Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Degrees

(Effective from Semester A 2011/12)

Glossary

Academic Transcript  The official academic record of a student’s studies at the University, including grades assigned for courses.

Academic Year/Semester/Term  The academic year is a period of twelve months starting normally in September of each year. The academic year is divided into two Semesters and a Summer Term.

Assessment  The tests, coursework, examinations and other activities undertaken to assess students’ progress through courses and to assign final grades.

Assessment Panels  University bodies responsible for assigning grades to students for their courses.

Course  The basic units of instruction into which students are registered and for which grades may be assigned. University courses are approved for inclusion in the course catalogue.

Course Catalogue  The official record of University courses maintained by the University.

Course Leader  A Course Leader is appointed by the Head of department for each course offered by the department, to coordinate the assessment of the course.

Credit Transfer  The assignment of credit units toward the credit unit requirements of a programme on the basis of work done outside that programme. Credit units are normally assigned against specific courses for work equivalent in content and standard.

Credit Unit  Each course is assigned a number of credit units. A credit unit is earned by approximately forty-to-fifty hours of student work.

Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA)

\[ CGPA = \frac{\sum_{i=1}^{n} G_i U_i}{\sum_{i=1}^{n} U_i} \]

For the calculation of Grade Point Average (GPA), Gi is the grade point awarded, Ui is the credit units earned for the ith course. CGPA is calculated for courses taken during enrolment for a specific programme, i=1, 2, ..., n are all courses completed at the time of the calculation, unless excluded under AR9.3, or AR12.3.

Academic Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Degrees

Senate  The University Senate of City University of Hong Kong.

Substitute Course  Where the normal course requirements of a programme cannot be completed, a “substitute” course may be approved by the home department for a student, replacing the required course.

Taught Postgraduate  A student enrolled for a Postgraduate Certificate, Postgraduate Diploma, or Master’s Degree. These regulations do not cover students enrolled for a MPhil, PhD, or Professional Doctorate.

University  City University of Hong Kong

University Award  An award of the University approved by the University Senate on completion of specified programme requirements.

University Requirement  A requirement set by the University Senate, irrespective of programme.

Working Days  Working days refer to Mondays to Fridays, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays and excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, a day throughout or for part of which a black rainstorm warning or Typhoon Signal Number 8 or above is issued or hoisted by the Hong Kong Observatory.

Academic Regulations

These Academic Regulations are made by the University Senate to govern student progress leading to taught postgraduate awards approved by the University Senate. Regulations for studies leading to awards of bachelor’s degrees and associate degrees, MPhil, PhD, and Professional Doctorates are published separately.

Only the University Senate can amend the Regulations, or permit exceptions, exemptions, or variations from them. Any variation from the Regulations approved by Senate for a programme is set out in the requirements for the programme in the University website.

The Regulations are supplemented by information on administrative procedures and about particular programmes to be found in the University website.

1. Language of Instruction and Assessment

Unless otherwise determined by Senate for a specific course or programme, the medium of instruction and assessment at the University is English.

2. Admission

2.1 Admission to the University is based on academic criteria. The University does not discriminate on the basis of age, gender, race, nationality, social or ethnic origin, or disability. The University may have to consider whether its facilities are adequate, before admitting a disabled applicant.

2.2 To be eligible for admission, the applicant must hold the general entrance requirements as specified by Senate and other specific requirements, if any, and be able to demonstrate aptitude and suitability for studies at the University.
2.3 Meeting the entrance requirements does not guarantee admission. The University’s decision on the admission of applicants is final.

3. Enrolment

3.1 On entry to the University, students are enrolled in a specific programme of the University, and in the full-time, part-time or combined mode of study.

3.2 To enrol for an additional CityU programme or a government-funded programme/place, students must apply in writing for approval by the University.

3.3 Students may change their programme of study. To change their programme, students must apply in writing for approval by the University. If approved, the change will take effect from the following semester/year.

3.4 To maintain their enrolment, students must conform to the University’s rules and regulations.

4. Leave of Absence

Students may take a leave of absence from their studies for an approved period. Periods of approved absence may not be less than one full semester/term, and may not accumulate to more than four semesters. Applications for leave of absence must be made in writing for approval by the University.

5. Credit Transfer

5.1 The University may allow previous educational or vocational experience to be counted toward the credit units required to earn an award of the University and appear on students’ transcripts.

5.2 At least half of the credit units required for an award of the University must be earned by the successful completion of courses required by the programme concerned.

5.3 Credit units earned outside the University and counted toward a University award do not count in the calculation of a student’s GPA, except where special arrangements have been made.

5.4 For students who have completed an award level at the University and wish to enrol in a higher award level within the programme, the previous credits and grades earned from lower level awards within the same programme may count towards the higher award level being pursued and in the calculation of a student’s GPA.

5.5 The following guidelines apply to credit transfer (a) between different taught postgraduate programmes at the University and (b) between different streams of study at the same award level within the same programme:

   a) Credit transfer should be limited to a maximum of 50% of the total credits for the award being pursued.

   b) Grades from the transferred credits may be counted in the calculation of a student’s GPA for the award being pursued.
5.6 Colleges and Schools may stipulate a validity period for courses recognized at the time of admission for credit transfer purposes, if deemed necessary.

5.7 Applications for credit transfer should be made in writing for approval by the University. Applications for credit transfer for work completed prior to entry to the University must be made before the start of the first semester according to the deadline set by the University. Applications for credit transfer for outside work completed after admission to the University must be made immediately in the semester following attainment of the additional qualification.

6. Course Registration

6.1 Students registering for courses must follow the instructions issued by the University.

6.2 Registration for some courses is restricted to students holding the necessary prerequisites.

6.3 The University reserves the right to restrict registration in courses, or permit registration only on a priority basis.

6.4 Students can add or drop a course during the add/drop period prescribed by the University. Requests for late add/drop of courses require approval by both the course-offering department and the home department.

6.5 If students remain registered for a course after the last date for dropping the course, as determined by the University, they will be assigned a course grade.

6.6 Students intending not to register in any courses in a semester but who will subsequently continue their study should apply for a leave of absence no later than the end of the course add/drop period.

6.7 Students who have met all the requirements to graduate from a programme may not register in further courses.

7. Maximum and Minimum Credit-Unit Load

7.1 In each semester, except the Summer Term, full-time students must register for courses to a total of at least twelve credit units, and for not more than eighteen credit units; part-time students must register for courses to a total of no more than eleven credit units; and combined mode students must register for courses for not more than eighteen credit units.

7.2 In the Summer Term, students may not register for courses to a total of more than seven credit units.

7.3 Except where special arrangements are made for their programme, students seeking an exception to AR7.1 or AR7.2 should apply in writing for approval by the University.
8. Maximum Period of Study*

8.1 Students shall complete all programme requirements within the stipulated maximum period of study†, inclusive of programme transfer and any periods of leave of absence and suspension of studies.

8.2 If a student applies for programme transfer involving a change of study mode, the new maximum period of study will be calculated on a pro-rata basis as determined by the University.

8.3 Students who cannot complete all programme requirements for graduation within the maximum study period will be required to discontinue their studies.

8.4 Requests for extension of study beyond the maximum study period will not be granted.

8.5 A student whose study has been discontinued due to expiry of the maximum period of study is not allowed readmission to the same programme.

8.6 If a student is readmitted to the same programme after study withdrawal or termination of study (but has not exceeded the maximum period of study), his/her previous period of study should be counted in the calculation of the student’s maximum period of study. The student’s credit units and grades previously earned from the same programme are normally counted in the GPA calculation, and the final decision on acceptance of credit units and grades rests with the respective department.

9. Grading of Courses

9.1 Courses are graded according to the following schedule:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

9.2 Students assigned a grade of D or better, or a Pass grade in a pass-fail course, earn credit units for the course. Grades of F, IP, I, S, WD, X or AU do not earn credit units.

9.3 Grades of P, I, IP, S, WD, X and AU are not counted in the calculation of a student’s CGPA. Grades of F are counted, unless the fail is recovered under AR12.3.

9.4 Grades of P, I, IP, S, WD, X and AU are not counted in the calculation of a student’s SGPA.
10. Illness or other Circumstances Affecting Assessment

10.1 A student who believes that his/her ability to attend an examination, or in-course assessment with a weighting of 20% or above, has been adversely affected by circumstances beyond his/her control must submit the case, with documentary evidence, to his/her home department following the procedures stated on the University website, as soon as possible and no later than 5 working days of the scheduled date for completing the affected examination or assessment.

10.2 The home department of the student will investigate the case, in consultation with the course-offering department. Only compelling reasons such as illness, hospitalization, accident, family bereavement or other unforeseeable serious personal or emotional circumstances will be considered. The decision of the home department is final.

10.3 If the case is justified and substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Assessment Panel which will determine whether to offer the student a make-up examination or coursework or other alternative assessment. Where assessments for more than one course are affected, it is the responsibility of the home department to inform all relevant Assessment Panels. The Assessment Panel may also adjust the grade of the student if deemed appropriate.

11. Review of Course Grades

11.1 Requests for review of course grades are governed by AR11.

Informal Resolution

11.2 For review of course grades via informal resolution, the Course Leader will only consider requests on grounds of administrative error in recording or calculating the mark or result, or other circumstances that impact the course grade awarded.

11.3 A student should contact the Course Leader within 5 working days of the announcement of grades by the University with a view to resolving the matter informally.

11.4 If a revision to the student’s course grade is considered necessary, the Course Leader should make a recommendation to amend the grade and seek the endorsement of the Chair of the Assessment Panel. Any grades thus amended will be reported to the Assessment Panel at its next meeting.

11.5 The decision on the informal review will be communicated to the student by the Course Leader no later than 13 working days following the announcement of grades by the University.

11.6 Other than disagreement with the academic judgment of Course Leaders which does not constitute valid grounds for formal review by virtue of AR 11.7, if the student’s concerns regarding course grades as stipulated in AR 11.2 cannot be resolved by informal means, the student may seek resolution via the formal procedures outlined below. However, informal review is not a prerequisite for the formal procedure.
Formal Procedures for Review

11.7 Disagreement with the academic judgement of Course Leaders does not constitute valid grounds for formal review. For formal review of course grades, only requests with the following grounds will be considered:

(i) there has been a procedural irregularity in the assessment process; for example, the assessment was not conducted in accordance with the Academic Regulations or with the arrangement prescribed for the course;

(ii) there exist circumstances that impact the course grade awarded that the student was unable to bring them to the attention of the Course Leader prior to the assessment for valid reasons.

11.8 Any request for review of course grades must be made in writing to the Dean of the College/School offering the course within 22 working days of the announcement of grades by the University. For courses offered by the Chinese Civilization Centre and the English Language Centre, the request for formal review should be submitted to the respective Head of Centre. The written application must:

(i) state the grounds on which the request for review is made;

(ii) include a description of the relevant facts; and

(iii) provide supporting evidence.

11.9 Upon receipt of the formal request for review, the Dean of the College/School or the Head of Centre will determine whether or not a prima facie case for review has been established. If, in the view of the Dean of the College/School or the Head of Centre, there is no prima facie case, then the request will be dismissed and the decision conveyed to the student no later than 32 working days following the announcement of grades by the University.

11.10 If, in the view of the Dean of the College/School or the Head of Centre, there is a prima facie case, then he/she will refer the matter to the College/School/Centre Grade Review Committee for consideration. The Committee may interview the student and staff members concerned. If the student does not show up for the interview, the Committee will consider the student’s request for formal review of course grade on the basis of the information and documents provided by the student and other information available to the Committee. The Committee will record its proceedings and resolutions.

11.11 If the Committee determines that the case is substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Assessment Panel to decide the action to be taken. The Assessment Panel will report back to the College/School/Centre Grade Review Committee any decisions taken on cases referred via this procedure.

11.12 The decision on the formal review will be communicated in writing to the student by the Dean of the College/School or the Head of Centre with a brief statement of the reasons for the decision. The decision should be conveyed to the student no later than 54 working days following the announcement of grades by the University.
Appeal Procedures

11.13 Formal requests for review of course grades should normally be resolved at the College/School/Centre level. A student may only appeal against the decision of the College/School/Centre Grade Review Committee on the basis of procedural irregularity in the review process within 10 working days following receipt of the decision on the formal review. Students may submit an appeal in writing to the Dean of Graduate Studies. Appellants should clearly indicate the grounds for appeal, and provide evidence in support of the appeal. The Dean of Graduate Studies will determine whether or not a prima facie case for appeal has been established. If, in the view of the Dean of Graduate Studies, there is no prima facie case, then the appeal will be dismissed and the decision conveyed to the student normally no later than 10 working days following receipt of the appeal. The decision of the Dean of Graduate Studies to dismiss an appeal is final.

11.14 If, in the view of the Dean of Graduate Studies, there is a prima facie case, he/she will refer the matter to a Postgraduate Academic Review Committee for consideration.

11.15 If the Postgraduate Academic Review Committee determines that the case is substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Assessment Panel to decide the actions to be taken. The Assessment Panel will report back to the Postgraduate Academic Review Committee any decisions taken on cases referred via this procedure.

11.16 The Postgraduate Academic Review Committee should record its proceedings and resolutions. The decision on the appeal will be conveyed to the student in writing normally no later than 27 working days following receipt of the appeal case by the Dean of Graduate Studies and is final.

11.17 The College/School/Centre Grade Review Committees will submit a report of formal requests for review of course grades considered to the Senate via the Quality Assurance Committee annually. The Postgraduate Academic Review Committee will submit an annual report to the Senate via the Quality Assurance Committee on all appeal cases received by the Postgraduate Academic Review Committee.

12. Students’ Academic Progress and Academic Standing

Academic Standing

12.1 Academic standing provides an indicator of the student’s academic progress and identifies students in academic difficulty needing academic advising and extra help. The four levels of academic standing are defined as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Standing</th>
<th>Definitions</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Good Standing</td>
<td>Students are making satisfactory academic progress.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Academic Warning</td>
<td>Students’ most recent academic performance has been unsatisfactory, or their overall academic average is below minimum requirements. Students on warning are asked to seek academic advice from their academic advisor.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
Probation

Students’ most recent academic performance has been extremely unsatisfactory, or their overall academic average has continued to be below the minimum requirements for graduation. Students on Probation will be assigned an academic advisor by their home department, and will not be permitted to register in courses in the following semester without the approval of the academic advisor. The home department may also require students on Probation to take a reduced credit unit load in the semester.

Academic Suspension

Students who cannot benefit from course registration in the next semester may be suspended for an approved period of not less than one semester. Academic Suspension is designed to provide students with an opportunity to resolve the problems that are preventing them making academic progress. On return from their suspension, students may be given the opportunity for one additional course repeat in each failed course to recover failure(s).

Operational Standing

Review

A temporary status indicating that a student’s performance may require a change of academic standing and has been referred to the student’s home department.

12.2 An academic standing decision is made for all students at the end of each semester, in accordance with rules adopted by Senate and published by the University.

Repeating Courses to Improve Grades

12.3 Except for courses covered by AR12.4, students may repeat a course, or equivalent course, to recover a failure or to improve a course grade of C or below. After the first attempt, only two repeat attempts are permitted. Course grades for all attempts will appear on the student’s transcript, but only the final grade earned will be included in the calculation of the student’s CGPA.

12.4 Courses may be designated ‘dissertation-type’ courses in the course catalogue. For dissertation-type courses, the catalogue will specify the normal duration for course registration and the maximum duration for course registration. Students are not permitted to repeat a dissertation-type course.

13. Conferment and Classification of Awards

Requirements for University Awards

13.1 To be granted an award of the University, students must successfully complete a programme of the University, including specific requirements of the named award for which they are registered, general University requirements, and college/school requirements, if any. The requirements for awards are set out in the University website for each programme.
13.2 Credit units earned for courses at a level below postgraduate programme level are not normally counted toward requirements for an award.

13.3 Where two or more courses are defined as exclusive for a programme by the home department, the credit units earned for only one of the courses will count toward the requirements for the award.

13.4 Where the normal course requirements of a programme cannot be completed, a “substitute” course may be approved by the home department for a student, replacing the required course.

13.5 The University may allow credit units earned by students registered for a particular programme of the University to be counted toward the requirements of another programme for which they register.

13.6 The University may allow exemption from courses required for an award of the University. Credit units toward the award are not given when an exemption is granted.

13.7 Students may be granted a taught postgraduate award only if they have achieved a CGPA of 2.00 or above.

13.8 Where a programme is designed to enable students to gain an intermediate award, students who meet the requirements for the intermediate award and who do not intend to complete the full programme may apply in writing to the University for conferment of the award. Such applications must be received within one calendar year of the student’s withdrawal from the programme.

13.9 Students completing the requirements for an award graduate on the next following graduation date.

Classification of Awards

13.10 The University grants Master’s Degree/Postgraduate Diploma/Postgraduate Certificate awards with classifications as follows:

(i) Distinction
(ii) Credit
(iii) Pass

13.11 University awards are classified by the relevant College/School Examination Board, that makes a recommendation to Senate for the conferment of awards.

13.12 College/School Examination Boards classify awards with regard to, but not necessarily in strict conformity with, a student’s CGPA.

14. Termination of Studies

14.1 The University has the right to terminate a student’s study for failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress as determined by the Examination Board or to comply with the policies and procedures of the University.
14.2 For termination of studies due to academic reasons, students may not continue their studies at the University without readmission, with readmission to any programme no earlier than one academic year after the student’s termination.

15. Review of Examination Board Decisions

15.1 Requests for review of an Examination Board’s decision on academic standing or final award are governed by AR15. The academic judgement of the Board shall not be subject to review.

Informal Resolution

15.2 For review of an Examination Board’s decision via informal means, the University will only consider requests on grounds of administrative error in recording, transcribing or reporting of the result.

15.3 A student should attempt to resolve the matter informally by contacting the Programme Leader within 5 working days of the publication of the academic standing or final award by the University through the University administrative information system. However, informal review is not a prerequisite for the formal procedure.

15.4 If an amendment to the decision on academic standing or award classification is considered necessary, the Programme Leader should make a recommendation via the Head of Department to this effect and seek the endorsement of the Chair of the Examination Board. Any Examination Board decision thus amended will be reported to the Examination Board at its next meeting.

15.5 The decision on the informal review will be communicated to the student by the Programme Leader no later than 8 working days following receipt of the formal request for review.

Formal Procedures for Review

15.6 For formal review of an Examination Board’s decision, only requests with the following grounds will be considered:

(i) there has been a procedural irregularity affecting the Board’s decision;

(ii) there exist circumstances that impact the Board’s decision that the student was unable to bring them to the attention of the Board prior to its deliberations for valid reasons.

15.7 Students may submit a formal request in writing to the Dean of Graduate Studies within 22 working days of the publication of the Examination Board’s decision by the University. The application must:

(i) state the grounds on which the request for review is made;

(ii) include a description of the relevant facts; and

(iii) provide supporting evidence.

15.8 The Dean of Graduate Studies will determine whether or not a prima facie case for review has been established. If, in the view of the Dean of Graduate Studies, there is no prima facie
Facie case, then the request will be dismissed and the decision conveyed to the student no later than 10 working days following receipt of the request. The decision of the Dean of Graduate Studies to dismiss the request for review is final.

15.9 If, in the view of the Dean of Graduate Studies, there is a prima facie case, he/she will refer the matter to a Postgraduate Academic Review Committee for consideration. The Committee may interview the student and staff members concerned. If the student does not show up for the interview, the Committee will consider the student’s request for formal review of Examination Board’s decision on the basis of the information and documents provided by the student and other information available to the Committee. The Committee will record its proceedings and resolutions.

15.10 If the Postgraduate Academic Review Committee determines that the case is substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Examination Board. The Examination Board will review the case and decide whether changes to the student’s academic standing or award classification are required. The Examination Board will report back to the Postgraduate Academic Review Committee any decisions taken on cases referred via this procedure.

15.11 The decision on the formal review will be conveyed to the student in writing no later than 22 working days following receipt of the formal request for review.

Appeal Procedures

15.12 Formal requests for review of the Examination Board’s decisions should normally be resolved by the Postgraduate Academic Review Committee. A student may only appeal against the decision of the Committee on the basis of procedural irregularity in the review process. Students may submit an appeal in writing to the Provost within 10 working days following receipt of the decision regarding the formal review. Appellants should clearly indicate the grounds for appeal, and provide evidence in support of the appeal.

15.13 If the Provost determines that the case is substantiated, the decision will be conveyed to the Examination Board. The Examination Board will review the case and decide whether changes to the student’s academic standing or award classification are required. The Examination Board will report back to the Provost any decisions taken on cases referred via this procedure.

15.14 The Office of the Provost should record its proceedings and resolutions. The decision on the appeal will be conveyed to the student in writing within 22 working days following receipt of the appeal and is final.

15.15 The Postgraduate Academic Review Committee will submit a report of formal requests for review of Examination Board decisions and of appeals cases received to the Senate via the Quality Assurance Committee annually. The Provost will submit an annual report to the Senate via the Quality Assurance Committee on all appeal cases received by him/her.
Regulations for the Research Degrees of Master of Philosophy and Doctor of Philosophy

RD1 General
1.1 The definitions in the University’s Academic Regulations shall apply to these Regulations unless stated otherwise.

1.2 These Regulations are approved by the Senate upon the recommendation of the Board of Graduate Studies. The administration of the Regulations is handled by the Chow Yei Ching School of Graduate Studies (SGS).

RD2 Nature of the Degrees
2.1 The degree of Master of Philosophy (MPhil) shall be awarded to a candidate who has:
2.1.1 successfully completed prescribed coursework requirements, if any;
2.1.2 presented the results of research in a thesis which gives evidence of a sound understanding of the area of study, its context and applicability and makes a contribution to knowledge; and
2.1.3 satisfied the examiners in an oral examination in the subject area of the thesis, and in such other examinations as may be prescribed.

2.2 The degree of Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) shall be awarded to a candidate who has:
2.2.1 successfully completed prescribed coursework requirements, if any;
2.2.2 presented the results of research in a thesis which gives evidence of a sound understanding of the area of study, its context and applicability and makes a substantial original contribution to knowledge in the subject area concerned; and
2.2.3 satisfied the examiners in an oral examination in the subject area of the thesis, and in such other examinations as may be prescribed.

RD3 Admission to Candidature
3.1 For admission to MPhil candidature, an applicant shall:
3.1.1 hold a relevant Bachelor’s degree with first or second class honours (or equivalent qualification) from a recognised university.

3.2 For admission to PhD candidature, an applicant shall:
3.2.1 be a current MPhil student in the University who seeks transfer to PhD candidature; or 3.2.2 hold a higher degree by research (or equivalent qualification) from a recognised university; or 3.2.3 hold a taught Master’s degree (or equivalent qualification) from a recognised university; or
3.2.4 hold a Bachelor’s degree with first class honours (or equivalent qualification) from a recognised university.
3.3 Equivalent qualifications mentioned above shall include relevant professional qualifications or other scholarly achievements recognised by the University.
3.4 In addition to the above, an applicant may be required to demonstrate a sufficient command of the English language in which the programme of study and research shall be pursued, or of the Chinese language, if permission is given to present the thesis in that language.
3.5 The University may prescribe other additional entry qualifications, as deemed appropriate.

RD4 Registration

4.1 A candidate shall register within a period specified by the University.
4.2 A candidate may, as a condition of registration, be required to take a preliminary course of study or an examination, written or oral, either before the date of commencement, or during the period of candidature.
4.3 A candidate is not allowed to register simultaneously in another programme of study in the University or in any other institution without the prior permission of SGS.

RD5 Full-time and Part-time Modes of Study

5.1 An applicant may be admitted, either as a full-time or a part-time candidate.
5.2 A candidate may apply for a change in mode of study. If approved, the candidate’s period of study will be adjusted accordingly.

RD6 Duration of Study

6.1 The study periods for research degree studies are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Programme of Study and Study Period</th>
<th>Full-time</th>
<th>Part-time</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>MPhil</td>
<td>2 years</td>
<td>4 years</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PhD (students with a research master’s degree or a master’s degree with a thesis/project/dissertation before admission)</td>
<td>3 years</td>
<td>6 years</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PhD (students without a research master’s degree nor a master’s degree with a thesis/project/dissertation before admission)</td>
<td>4 years</td>
<td>8 years</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

6.2 The duration of candidature, where permission has been given to transfer from MPhil to PhD candidature, is inclusive of the period of MPhil candidature, but should not be less than nine months after the transfer.
6.3 Requests for extension of candidature beyond the stipulated study period shall not normally be entertained except in exceptional circumstances.

RD7 Leave of Absence and Residence Requirements

7.1 Candidates who wish to take a leave of absence for the reasons stated below shall apply in writing, if possible, one month before the intended commencement date of leave.

7.2 A leave for interruption of studies for non-academic reasons requires the recommendation of the Head of Department and the College/School. Approval of such requests rests with SGS. The leave period, which will not be counted towards the candidate’s period of study, should not normally accumulate to more than 12 months.

7.3 Study leave for academic purposes outside Hong Kong requires the recommendation of the Head of Department and the College/School. Approval of such requests rests with SGS. The leave period, which will be counted towards the candidate’s period of study, should not accumulate to exceed half of the stipulated study period.

7.4 A candidate who is receiving regular supervision in Hong Kong or in a designated location approved by the Board of Graduate Studies is classified as being in residence. The required residence period for research degree studies is equivalent to half of the relevant period of study.

RD8 Structure of the Degrees

8.1 The degrees of MPhil and PhD shall consist of coursework and independent research studies culminating in the submission of a thesis.

8.2 Candidates are required to fulfill the following minimum coursework requirements during their period of candidature:

8.2.1 MPhil: 7 credit units
PhD: 14 credit units

8.2.2 for research students who commence their studies on or after 1 June 2008:
A compulsory course on teaching and learning (1 credit unit)

8.2.3 Pursuant to RD8.2.1, research students who commence their studies on or after 1 June 2009 should fulfill the stipulated coursework structure as determined by their College, School and Department, with the following minimum core course requirement:

MPhil: at least 2 credit units of core course(s) which shall be research methodology or foundation course(s) at postgraduate level;

PhD: at least 4 credit units of research methodology or foundation course(s) at postgraduate level.

8.3 Exemption from coursework requirements may be granted only in exceptional circumstances. Such requests require the approval of the College/School upon the recommendation of the Head of Department.
8.4 Credit transfer may be allowed for candidates who possess postgraduate or other qualifications of relevance to their research studies. Such requests require the approval of the College/School upon the recommendation of the Head of Department.

8.5 The “Academic Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Degrees” stipulated by the University with respect to grading of courses, illness or other circumstances related to assessment, review of course grades and repeating course to improve grade shall apply to the coursework assessment of research degree students.

8.6 Except for the thesis component, the “University Assessment Policy and Principles for Taught Programmes” with respect to assessment policy, principles and procedures shall apply to the research degree programmes.

RD9 Qualifying Period

9.1 Candidates are required to submit a qualifying report within the specified qualifying periods as follows:

Full-time: Within 6-12 months from commencement of study
Part-time: Within 9-18 months from commencement of study

9.2 A qualifying report shall include a survey of the relevant literature, an identification of a specific research topic, the research methodology and a discussion on the possible outcome.

9.3 The qualifying report shall be assessed by the respective qualifying panels. Candidates who have been confirmed as qualified for their studies are required to submit a progress report on an annual basis until they complete their theses and other academic requirements.

RD10 Qualifying Panel and Supervision

10.1 The College/School shall appoint a qualifying panel for each candidate, upon the recommendation of the Department.

10.2 The Panel shall consist of at least three members including the proposed supervisor of the candidate who shall be its chairperson. The supervisor, and at least one of the other members, shall be from the Department concerned.

10.3 The Panel shall:

10.3.1 identify and prescribe coursework for the candidate;
10.3.2 assess the qualifying report and monitor the candidate’s performance in coursework;
10.3.3 assess the candidate’s performance by conducting an interview, oral examination or presentation, as deemed appropriate, for the purpose of confirmation of candidature;
10.3.4 recommend to SGS, after the assessment mentioned above, on the candidate’s suitability to continue the study, or to transfer from MPhil to PhD candidature or vice versa;
10.3.5 recommend termination of candidature if the candidate’s academic performance is unsatisfactory;
10.3.6 monitor the progress of the candidate through the supervisor for the entire duration of the candidature and report to SGS annually;

10.3.7 certify, before a thesis is submitted for examination, that the candidate has satisfied all coursework requirements.

RD11 Termination of Study

11.1 A candidate’s failure to observe the University’s regulations and guidelines may result in termination of candidature.

RD12 Submission of Theses

12.1 A candidate shall give three months’ notice of intention to submit the thesis. Such notice shall be given together with the proposed title of the thesis, an abstract of the thesis, and the examination fee.

12.2 The candidate shall, by the intended submission date, submit a thesis embodying the results of the research undertaken, together with:

12.2.1 a short abstract of some 200-300 words summarising the content of the thesis;

12.2.2 a certificate signed by the candidate to the effect that the candidate is the author of the thesis and that it has not been submitted for a higher degree or any other award of this or any other institution;

12.2.3 a statement on the extent of the collaboration, if any part of the work has been carried out in collaboration with another person, identifying the parts of the thesis which are not the result of the candidate’s own work.

12.3 The thesis submitted shall be in the form prescribed in the “Regulations for the Form of Theses”.

12.4 Normally, a thesis is expected to be submitted not earlier than three months for MPhil candidates and six months for PhD candidates before the expiry of the period of study. Early submission of theses before the said date requires special approval of SGS.

RD13 Content of Theses

13.1 A candidate may not submit, as the main content of the thesis, work previously accepted for a degree or other awards of the University or any other institution, but may incorporate such work in the thesis if the work or material which has been so incorporated is specified.

13.2 The thesis shall include a detailed statement of the sources of information used in the preparation of the thesis.

RD14 Thesis Examination

14.1 The thesis examination will include thesis assessment, an oral examination and such other examinations as may be required by the Panel of Examiners. If the thesis is confirmed to be of the required academic standard by the Panel of Examiners, an oral examination will be arranged. The oral examination is compulsory.
14.2 The Panel of Examiners for the thesis shall be appointed by SGS upon the recommendation of the College/School and the Head of Department. It shall consist of:

14.2.1 For MPhil -
Panel Chair (who is an Internal Examiner)
One External Examiner
The supervisor of the candidate

For PhD -
Panel Chair (who is an Internal Examiner)
One additional Internal Examiner
One External Examiner
The supervisor of the candidate

RD15 Examination Results

15.1 The recommendation of the Panel of Examiners shall be submitted to SGS.

15.2 A candidate who has satisfied all the requirements for the degree shall be recommended by the Panel of Examiners for award of the degree.

15.3 A candidate who is required to make minor revisions to the thesis, but has satisfied all other requirements, may be recommended for the award of the relevant degree, subject to resubmission of the thesis after making minor revisions, as indicated by the examiners.

15.4 A candidate who is not recommended for the award of the relevant degree may be allowed to submit a revised thesis for a second examination.

15.5 A PhD candidate may be recommended for the award of an MPhil degree if the thesis is assessed to be below the standard expected of a PhD thesis but is considered to have fulfilled the standard required for an MPhil degree.

15.6 A candidate may be deemed to have failed in the examination and shall not be permitted to resubmit the thesis for a second examination.

RD16 Appeal

16.1 Candidates may make an appeal in writing to SGS on matters relating to their research degree studies.

16.2 An appeal against the thesis examination results should be made in writing to the Dean of Graduate Studies through SGS within one month of notification of the results. The appeal shall be considered only if there has been a material administrative error, or some other material irregularity. The decision of the Dean of Graduate Studies shall be final.
Regulations Governing Professional Doctorate Programmes

1. General

1.1 The Glossary in the University’s Academic Regulations shall apply to these Regulations unless stated otherwise.

1.2 These Regulations are approved by the Senate upon the recommendation of the Board of Graduate Studies. The administration of the Regulations is handled by the Chow Yei Ching School of Graduate Studies (SGS).

2. Language of Instruction and Assessment

Unless otherwise determined by the Senate for a specific course or programme, the medium of instruction and assessment at the University is English.

3. Admission

3.1 Admission to the University is based on academic criteria. The University does not discriminate on the basis of age, sex, colour, race, creed, nationality, social or ethnic origin, or physical disability. The University may have to consider whether its facilities are adequate, before admitting a disabled applicant.

3.2 To be eligible for admission to a professional doctorate programme, applicants must meet the University’s general entrance requirements as set out below, and the entrance requirements specific to individual programmes:

3.1.1 hold a master’s degree in a related discipline/profession (or equivalent qualification) from a recognized university; in exceptional circumstances, applicants with a relevant bachelor’s degree with first or second class honours or equivalent from a recognized university may be considered.

3.1.2 In addition to the above, applicants must have at least five years of work experience; and fulfilled the English proficiency requirement as stipulated by the University for the Master of Philosophy and Doctor of Philosophy programmes.

3.3 The University may prescribe other additional entry qualifications, as deemed appropriate.

3.4 Possession of the entrance requirements does not, in itself, entitle applicants to admission to the University.

4. Enrolment

4.1 On entry to the University, students are enrolled in a specific programme of the University, and in either the full-time or part-time or combined mode of study.

4.2 Students may, as a condition of enrolment, be required to take a preliminary course of study or an examination, written or oral, either before or after the student registration procedures with the University.
4.3 Students are not allowed to enrol simultaneously in another programme of study in the University or in any other institution without the prior approval of SGS.

4.4 To maintain their enrolment, students must conform to the University’s Code of Student Conduct, and must pay all fees and charges owed to the University by the due date.

5. Programme Structure

5.1 Professional doctorate programmes should require at least 54 credit units with at least 21 units earned through attendance in taught courses and at least 21 units earned through assessed Independent Work.

5.2 Independent Work must display a high level of intellectual accomplishment and innovation and must exhibit the following characteristics:

- It makes a substantial intellectual contribution to the candidate’s business (or organization) or to the candidate’s professional discipline; and
- it could be published in a mainstream professional or research journal.

5.3 The following formats are permitted for the presentation of Independent Work in a thesis:

- A single piece of work
- A portfolio of published papers, case studies, or work with a coherent theme

5.4 The maximum period of study for an individual professional doctorate programme will be 2 times of its normal study period. Any periods of leave of absence and academic suspension will be counted towards the maximum period of study. (For instance, if a professional doctorate programme has set its normal study period as 3 years for full-time students and 4 years for part-time students, the programme’s maximum study period will be 6 years and 8 years for full-time and part-time students respectively.)

5.5 Individual programmes may stipulate their own maximum period of study which should not exceed 2 times of its normal study period.

5.6 A student is required to fulfil all the requirements for graduation within the maximum period of study for his/her enrolled programme. The University may consider termination of a student’s studies if he/she fails to meet the graduation requirements within the maximum period of study.

5.7 Full-time students are normally expected to undertake professional doctorate programmes under regular supervision in Hong Kong. Special supervision arrangements for students pursuing part of their studies outside Hong Kong will be subject to approval by SGS.

6. Changes in Status

6.1 Students may take a leave of absence from their studies for an approved period. Periods of approved absence shall be on a full semester/term basis, and may not accumulate to more than four semesters. Applications for leave of absence must be made in writing to SGS for approval by the University.

6.2 Students may change their mode of study. Applications to change mode of study must be made in writing to SGS for approval by the University. Changes in mode of study can become effective only at the beginning of a semester.
7. Credit Transfer

7.1 Credit transfer is permitted only from relevant, formal studies at postgraduate level, may count only against taught course requirement, and is limited to 50% of taught course requirement in terms of credit units.

7.2 Credit units earned outside the University and counted toward a University award do not count in the calculation of a student’s GPA, except where special arrangements have been made.

7.3 Applications for credit transfer should be made in writing to SGS for approval by the University. Applications for credit transfer for work completed prior to entry to the University must be made in the first semester following the student’s admission, before the deadline set by the University. Applications for credit transfer for outside work completed after admission to the University must be made immediately in the semester following attainment of the additional qualification.

8. Course Registration

8.1 Students registering for courses must follow the instructions issued by SGS/Academic Regulations and Records Office.

8.2 Registration for some courses is restricted to students holding the necessary prerequisites.

8.3 The University reserves the right to restrict registration in courses, or permit registration only on a priority basis.

8.4 If students remain registered for a course after the last date for dropping the course, as determined by the Academic Regulations and Records Office, they will be assigned a course grade.

8.5 Students who have met all the requirements to graduate from a programme may not register in further courses.

9. Maximum and Minimum Credit-Unit Load

9.1 In each semester, except the Summer Term, full-time students must register for courses to a total of at least twelve credit units, and for not more than eighteen credit units; part-time students may register for courses to a total of no more than eleven credit units; combined-mode students may register for courses to a total of no more than eighteen credit units.

9.2 In the Summer Term, students may not register for courses to a total of more than seven credit units.

9.3 Except where special arrangements are made for their programme, students seeking an exception to Clauses 9.1 and 9.2 should apply in writing to SGS for approval by the University.

10. Grading of Courses

10.1 Courses are graded according to the section on “Grading of Courses” of the “Academic Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Degrees” of the University.
10.2 Except for the Independent Work and “dissertation-type” courses as specified in the course catalogue, students in professional doctorate programmes may repeat a course, or equivalent course, to recover a failure or to improve a course grade of C or below. After the first attempt, only two repeat attempts are permitted. Course grades for all attempts will appear on the student’s transcript, but only the final grade earned will be included in the calculation of the student’s CGPA.

11. Illness or other Circumstances Related to Assessment

Except for the Independent Work, the “Academic Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Degrees” stipulated by the University with respect to illness or other circumstances related to assessment, shall apply to professional doctorate degrees.

12. Review of Course Grades

Review of course grades, except for the Independent Work examination result, should be handled in accordance with the section on “Review of Course Grades” of the “Academic Regulations for Taught Postgraduate Degrees” of the University.

13. Assessment Policies

Except for the Independent Work, the “University Assessment Policy and Principles for Taught Programmes” with respect to assessment policy, principles and procedures shall apply to the professional doctorate programmes.

14. Fees

14.1 The “Regulations on Tuition Fees” stipulated by the University shall normally be applicable to professional doctorate programmes, with the exception that the administrative office for handling professional doctorate students’ matters is SGS.

14.2 Individual programmes may charge other fees, as approved by the University. Such fees are normally non-refundable, unless otherwise specified.

14.3 For any special circumstances which are not covered in the “Regulations on Tuition Fees” or in guidelines published by individual programmes, the University may consider them on a case-by-case basis. Such cases must be submitted to SGS in writing with supporting documentary evidence, and a recommendation from the Head of the programme department where appropriate. The Associate Dean of SGS will consider such cases in consultation with the Director of Finance.

15. Supervision — Qualifying Panel

15.1 The programme department should establish a Qualifying Panel for each student on commencement of Independent Work. The composition of the Panel is subject to approval by the College/School Graduate Studies Committee. Any subsequent changes to the Panel membership should be reported to SGS.

15.2 The Panel should consist of at least three members, including the supervisor of the student who should be the Chair of the Panel. The supervisor and at least one of the other members should be from the programme department concerned.
15.3 The Panel should normally

- prescribe courses for students, as appropriate;
- approve proposals for Independent Work;
- monitor student performance, providing a report on each student’s progress to SGS at least once per year;
- make recommendations to SGS on students’ ability to continue studies and to undertake Independent Work; and
- recommend termination of candidature if the student’s academic performance is unsatisfactory.

16. Submission of Reports

16.1 Annual Progress Report

16.1.1 On commencement of Independent Work, students are required to submit progress reports (typed and in English) on an annual basis until they have submitted the final version of their Independent Work for oral examination and completed any other academic requirements.

16.1.2 A student should submit sufficient copies of the annual progress report to SGS for forwarding to the respective Qualifying Panel for assessment. On the basis of the annual progress report, the Qualifying Panel should make a recommendation regarding the student’s suitability to continue his or her studies for approval by the programme department and the College/School Graduate Studies Committee.

16.2 Late Submission of Annual Progress Report

For students who fail to submit an annual progress report by the stipulated date without the prior approval of the University, their study may be suspended or terminated.

17. Ownership of Intellectual Property Rights

The ownership of intellectual property rights for all original work produced by students in the course of or for the purposes of their studies, scholarship or research with or at the University shall be determined based on the Policy on Intellectual Property of the University. The University will, however, have a royalty-free and non-exclusive perpetual licence to use such work for normal University educational and operational purposes.

18. Medium of Instruction/Assessment of Independent Work

18.1 Students should write and present their Independent Work in English, unless they give very strong justifications for using another language.

18.2 Students with valid reasons to support using a language other than English in Independent Work writing may apply to SGS in writing within the first six months of their studies.

18.3 Students who have been approved to use a language other than English in Independent Work writing are required to include an additional abstract written in English in their Independent Work when it is ready for examination.
19. Panel of Examiners

19.1 A Panel of Examiners should be formed to assess a student’s Independent Work and conduct an oral examination. The Panel should at least consist of:

- Panel Chair (who is an Internal Examiner)
- One additional Internal Examiner
- One External Examiner
- The supervisor of the student

19.2 The internal and external examiners should normally be at the grade of Associate Professor or above, and have appropriate expertise related to the subject area of the student’s Individual Work. Individuals studying for a higher degree should not be appointed as examiners.

19.3 If an appointed overseas external examiner is not available to participate in the oral examination either in person or via telephone conferencing, the programme department and College should appoint an additional examiner who can attend the examination. The additional examiner may be either internal or external, depending on the recommendation of the programme department. The additional member will be treated as a full examiner and be invited to raise questions on behalf of the absent overseas external examiner.

19.4 The supervisor, with the consent of the student concerned, may invite other qualifying panel members to join the oral examination as observers.

20. Independent Work Assessment and Oral Examination

20.1 Submission of Independent Work

20.1.1 Students who wish to submit Independent Work for examination should notify SGS three months before their expected date of submission. Applications should be sent to SGS, together with an abstract of the Independent Work and the original payment receipt of the examination fee.

20.1.2 Normally, students are expected to submit their Independent Work not earlier than the minimum study period/six months before the end of the (normal) study period of the relevant programme. Early submission of Independent Work requires special approval from SGS.

20.1.3 Students must submit Independent Work for examination by the end of their maximum study period or the stipulated study period.

20.1.4 Students should submit sufficient copies of their Independent Work, presented in the prescribed form as given in the “Regulations for the Form of Theses”, together with a Certifying Form and a Statement on the Extent of Research Collaboration to SGS by the submission deadline.

20.1.5 Students should not submit, as the main content of their Independent Work, work previously accepted for a degree or any other award of the University or of any other institution, but may incorporate such work in the Independent Work if the incorporated material is specified.
20.2 Examination of Independent Work

20.2.1 The examination of Independent Work should include an oral examination, and any other assessment arrangements that may be required by the Panel of Examiners.

20.2.2 The oral examination is compulsory. It should normally take place in Hong Kong, unless special permission has been given. The oral examination should be conducted in English, unless approval has been obtained under Regulation 17.1 to use another language to write and present their Independent Work.

20.2.3 Students who have not fulfilled the taught course requirement or any other academic requirements stipulated by the University will not be allowed to undertake the oral examination.

20.3 Examination Results

20.3.1 Students who have satisfied all the requirements for the degree will be recommended for the award by the Panel of Examiners.

20.3.2 Students who are required to make minor revisions to their Independent Work, but have satisfied all other academic requirements, may be recommended for the award, subject to re-submission of the Independent Work after making minor revisions by the deadline set by the examiners.

20.3.3 Students who are not recommended for the award of the relevant degree may be required to submit a revised Independent Work for re-examination. The Panel of Examiners should set a deadline for re-submission normally not exceeding 12 months from the date of the oral examination. The Panel may recommend that a second oral examination be waived. After re-examining the revised Independent Work, the examiners should make a recommendation to SGS.

20.3.4 A student who is deemed to have failed in the oral examination shall not be permitted to re-submit the Independent Work for a second examination.

20.3.5 If there is disagreement among the examiners concerning the performance of the student, the examiners should submit individual reports to SGS. An additional external examiner may then be appointed and be required to make a report and recommendation to SGS. The reports from the examiners and additional examiner will be forwarded to the programme department and College for consideration, and the Committee on Research Degrees Candidature will make a final decision based on the advice of the programme department and College.

20.4 Re-examination

20.4.1 A student must pay a re-examination fee to sit for a second oral examination, pursuant to the examination result stipulated under Regulation 19.3.3.

20.4.2 The Panel of Examiners for the re-examination should be the same as for the first examination, unless otherwise recommended by the College.

20.4.3 A student who has failed to satisfy the Panel of Examiners in a re-examination is not permitted to present himself or herself for re-examination on a further occasion.
20.5 Bound Theses on Independent Work

Students should submit both printed (three properly bound copies) and electronic copies of their thesis documenting the Independent Work to SGS within one month after approval by the Panel of Examiners of the Independent Work and of any revisions required.

21. Appeal Relating to Independent Work

21.1 Students may make an appeal in writing to SGS on matters relating to their Independent Work.

21.2 An appeal against the examination results should be made in writing to the SGS within one month of the notification of the results. The appeal will be considered only if there has been a material administrative error, or some other material irregularity.

21.3 Appeals against the examination results should normally be handled at the College level. The College may form a College Review Committee to investigate the case. Membership of a College Review Committee shall normally include the student’s Department Head (or nominee) as the Chair and two other academic staff who are not involved in the supervision of the student concerned. The College Review Committee may interview the student, and the Chair and members of the Panel of Examiners concerned. If the Committee decides that the student’s appeal is substantiated, it may recommend the student to sit a second oral examination, to extend the revision period, etc. The Committee should record its proceedings and resolutions. The recommendation should be approved by the Chair of the College Graduate Studies Committee. The decision will be communicated in writing to the student by the College with a brief statement of the reasons for the decision.

21.4 If a student is not satisfied that his/her case has been dealt with appropriately at the College Level, the student can convey his/her concern directly in writing to the Dean of Graduate Studies. The decision of the Dean of Graduate Studies will be final.

22. Award of Professional Doctorate Degree

22.1 Awards of professional doctorate are classified Pass-Fail.

22.2 Students completing the requirements for an award will graduate on the next following graduation date.

23. Withdrawal

Students who wish to withdraw from their studies should notify SGS by submitting a withdrawal notice. They should also notify relevant parties (e.g. the supervisor, the programme department, etc.) of their withdrawal. The withdrawal will take immediate effect.

24. Suspension of Study

24.1 Students’ study status may be suspended by SGS due to the following:

- Failure to submit annual progress reports by the set deadline without prior approval;
- Failure to settle tuition or other required fees by the set deadline;
- Failure to seek prior approval for matters related to study.
24.2 If students under suspension still cannot fulfil the University’s requirements by an extended deadline, their study will be terminated.

24.3 For suspended students whose status is subsequently reinstated:
   • Fees, once paid, will not be refunded;
   • The study period will be extended accordingly.

25. Termination of Study
25.1 Students’ study may be terminated under the following circumstances:
   • Unsatisfactory academic progress;
   • Prolonged delay in settling tuition or continuation fees by the specified deadline without prior approval from SGS;
   • Failure to resume studies or return to study by the set date after leave of absence;
   • Failure to submit annual progress reports by the extended deadline without prior approval;
   • Failure to complete studies by the end of the maximum study period or the (extended) study period;
   • Failure in the oral examination for the Independent Work;
   • Simultaneous registration in another programme of study in any other institutions without the prior permission of SGS;
   • Failure to observe the University’s regulations and guidelines.

25.2 For study termination on academic grounds, students may not continue their studies at the University without re-admission, with re-admission to any programme no earlier than one academic year after the student’s termination.
Regulations for the Form of Theses

1. Applicability
   1.1 Research degree and professional doctorate students who have successfully completed their thesis examination are required to submit both printed and electronic copies of their thesis to the Chow Yei Ching School of Graduate Studies. An electronic copy will be uploaded onto online databases for both internal and public access.

   1.2 The submission of the printed and electronic copies of the thesis forms part of the graduation requirement. The required formats for the printed and electronic copies are given below:

2. Format of the Printed Copy

   2.1 The thesis should be presented in a permanent and legible form either in original typescript, plain paper photocopy or a comparably permanent process.

   2.2 The lower-case x-height of characters should not be significantly larger or smaller than 2mm. Double or one-and-a-half spacing should be used, except for indented quotations or footnotes where single spacing may be used.

   2.3 International A4 size paper of good and opaque quality should be used for the thesis which should be typed on one side of the paper only. Exceptionally, paper other than international A4 size may be used when the nature of the thesis requires it.

   2.4 Margins at the binding edge should not be less than 40mm and other margins should not be less than 20mm. Exceptionally, margins of a different size may be used when the nature of the thesis requires it.

   2.5 Pages should be numbered through the thesis in Arabic numerals on the upper right hand corner, including appendices but excluding the table of contents and other material preceding the beginning of the general text which may be numbered with lower case Roman numerals.

   2.6 The thesis should contain the following parts in the order shown:

   (a) Title page, containing the following information in both Chinese and English:
      - the thesis title
      - the full name of the candidate
      - the degree for which the thesis is submitted
      - the name of the University
      - the month and year of the College’s/School’s endorsement in recommending the award

   (b) The abstract of contents

   (c) Acknowledgment, if any
(d) The table of contents and, where appropriate, a list of plates, tables, figures, symbols or other abbreviations

(e) The general text

(f) Bibliography

(g) Appendices and other addenda, if any.

2.7 Whenever practicable, diagrams, maps, illustrations, computer printouts, published papers and tables should be included in the thesis adjacent to the corresponding text.

2.8 Folded diagrams or charts included in the text should be arranged so as to open out to the top and left.

2.9 Photographic prints should be on single weight paper or permanently mounted on cartridge paper for binding and should be securely fixed in the thesis.

2.10 Illustrative material which cannot be conveniently bound in the text (such as maps and slides) should be packaged in such a way that it can be bound with the thesis. If the amount of such material is substantial, it should be gathered into a supplementary volume and packaged in a rigid container similar in format to the bound thesis. All loose material should be marked with the candidate’s name and degree for which the work is submitted so that it can be readily linked with the thesis.

2.11 The thesis should be bound in boards covered in dark blue cloth or other suitable material. The binding should be of a fixed kind with leaves permanently secured by sewing.

2.12 The outside front cover should bear in gold lettering the title of the thesis, the full name of the candidate, the degree for which the thesis is submitted, the name of the University and the month and year of the College’s/School’s endorsement in recommending the award.

2.13 The spine should bear in gold lettering:

- 20 mm from the bottom and across — CityU
- 70 mm from the bottom and across — the degree and year of the College’s/School’s endorsement in recommending the award — e.g., MPhil 2003
- Evenly spaced between the statement of the degree and year of endorsement and the top of the spine and across or down — the name of the author and the title (or, if necessary, an abbreviated title) of the thesis.

2.14 Where lettering runs down the spine it should be printed in such a direction that it is upright when the thesis is lying flat with the front cover uppermost.

2.15 Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 2.11 of these Regulations, a candidate should present a thesis in an unbound form prior to examination in such a way that could be forwarded to the examiners without the risk of disarrangement. It should be the responsibility of the candidate to ensure that the thesis is properly bound after the examination, and prior to lodgment. No award shall be made until these arrangements have been completed.
3. Format of the Electronic Copy

3.1 Students are required to submit their theses in an electronic format in accordance with the specifications given in the Library’s Webpage.

3.2 It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that an acceptable copy of his/her thesis in an electronic format is submitted to the Chow Yei Ching School of Graduate Studies.

3.3 Students who wish to use newer technologies for their theses, such as digital multimedia, hyper linking, etc. should check early in their thesis production, on the viability of software involved vis-à-vis, library preservation, and incorporation of such theses in the Library’s online database.

4. Waivers

Where a candidate would meet with serious difficulty in complying with the provisions of these Regulations, he or she may apply to the Chow Yei Ching School of Graduate Studies for a particular Regulation(s) to be waived.

5. Further Advice

Candidates requiring further advice on the interpretation of these regulations should consult the Chow Yei Ching School of Graduate Studies.
Principles, Policies, and Practices for Quality Education
Principles, Policies, and Practices for Quality Education

I. Principles for Quality Education

1. City University of Hong Kong is committed to the provision of a high-quality education and learning experience for all its students.

2. The University believes that education quality and quality assurance are an institutional and collective responsibility. This responsibility is implemented through the University’s system of governance, and through maintaining a culture of quality among staff and students.

3. The University is committed to the continual development, recognition and reward of quality in all aspects of staffs’ activity in the provision of high-quality education at the University.

4. The University ensures that the awards granted by the University Senate are equivalent in standard to similar awards granted by other internationally recognized universities.

5. The University recognizes an obligation to be accountable to stakeholders, including the community that funds the University.

II. Policies for Quality Education

Section A — Roles and Responsibilities

Governance

1. Under the City University of Hong Kong Ordinance, the Senate of the University is required to “plan, develop, and maintain the academic programmes offered by the University”, “direct and regulate the teaching …… at the University”, and “decide on the award of degrees and other academic awards of the University”.

2. In undertaking these functions, Senate relies on the Quality Assurance Committee, the Academic Policy Committee and the Board of Graduate Studies to provide advice on policies and plans relating to the academic life of the University.

3. The day-to-day task of assuring the quality of education and maintaining academic standards at CityU falls to the “Colleges and equivalent bodies” and “Departments and equivalent bodies”, established by Council, on Senate’s recommendation. Under their statutes, the academic boards of colleges/equivalent bodies have the duty to advise Senate, the Dean (or equivalent) and Heads of Departments (or equivalent) “on all matters pertaining to the planning, development, implementation and monitoring of the academic work of the College”, and “reporting thereon annually” to Senate (in the case of postgraduate programmes through the Board of Graduate Studies).
4. Under their statutes, the work of colleges’ and departments should be undertaken “within the policies, procedures and priorities established by Senate”. Notwithstanding its delegation of authority, Senate is available to all members and is the final authority for the resolution of disagreements.

A Quality Culture

5. The University has charged the Quality Assurance Committee with the responsibility to promote quality assurance, and to foster a culture of quality teaching and learning at the University.

6. The University has established Teaching Excellence Awards to promote good teaching and reward our best teachers.

7. The University expects all staff and students to participate in, and feel ownership of, policies and processes for the assurance of quality and academic standards.

8. The University supports a self critical and reflective approach to its work, and welcomes and responds appropriately to criticism, including criticism from students and other stakeholders.

9. The University’s framework of governance provides for academic staff a wide range of opportunities to participate in the academic management of the University. Moreover, in their areas of expertise, the University expects academic staff to exercise the maximum discretion and professional autonomy to further educational goals.

10. Students are also included as members of key University committees, and are encouraged to participate in the work of departments and colleges. The University calls on students to make an active contribution to the improvement of education quality on their own behalf and on behalf of the University.

Section B — Arrangements for Quality Assurance and Maintaining Academic Standards

1. Arrangements and activities to maintain and improve education quality and academic standards should be characterized by:

   (a) A forward-looking view, oriented to the task of improving education quality.

   (b) Coverage of all aspects of students’ educational experience.

   (c) Clear definition of policies and procedures.

   (d) Regular monitoring and evaluation of teaching and learning quality within formal systems capable of operating independently of particular individuals.

   (e) Recognition of the importance of feedback from ‘stakeholders’ (e.g. students, employers, professional bodies).

* “colleges” include the schools
(f) Recognition of the importance of external benchmarks in establishing the quality of teaching and learning and of academic standards.

(g) Establishment of mechanisms to identify and disseminate examples of good professional practice.

(h) Provision of the facilities and resources necessary to support activities to enhance and improve the quality of teaching and learning.

2. Arrangements to maintain and enhance education quality should be subject to regular review and periodic audit to ensure their continued effectiveness.

Section C — Academic Planning, and Curriculum Development

Senate’s Responsibility

1. Senate exercises its responsibilities for academic planning and the development of the curriculum by reserving key decisions for Senate policies, consideration and delegating authority to colleges and departments. The decisions reserved for Senate consideration are:

   (a) Approval of the titles in English and Chinese of all degrees and awards of the University.

   (b) Approval of general regulations for the conferment of academic awards.

   (c) Approval of academic plans on the basis of recommendations from the Academic Policy Committee (APC), including plans for the introduction or discontinuation of programmes of study, and student intakes and enrolment in academic programmes.

2. In relation to these decisions, Senate seeks the advice of the Board of Graduate Studies, with respect to postgraduate academic programmes.

3. College boards/equivalent bodies have the authority to manage the curriculum of academic programmes, within the framework of Senate policies, regulations, guidelines, and approved academic plans, making further delegation of this authority to departments/equivalent bodies, as appropriate.

Approval of Academic Plans

4. In making recommendations to Senate for the academic development of the University and the management of student numbers, Academic Policy Committee receives proposals for academic developments and student numbers from colleges and equivalent bodies, and acts on the advice of the Board of Graduate Studies. APC considers these proposals in the light of the broad criteria agreed by Senate. (Refer to Section A – Criteria for Academic Planning, Good Practices and Guidelines for Quality Education)

Process for Curriculum Development

5. The details of arrangements for curriculum design, development and approval are matters for the relevant college to decide. However college boards exercising the delegated authority of Senate should establish arrangements for curriculum development that have the following features:
(a) Where changes or new developments under consideration go beyond the authority of individual academic staff delivering courses, proposals should be subject to scrutiny by colleagues, and students should be consulted.

(b) Where changes may have a significant impact on learning outcomes or academic standards, these changes should be subject to review by members of the University not directly involved with the academic programme, and the views of external experts, professional bodies, former students, and employers should be actively sought and taken into account.

(c) With regard to taught post-graduate programmes, approval should be sought from the Board of Graduate Studies.

(d) Proposals for changes, and approved changes, should be documented clearly, so that stakeholders are informed of proposals that affect them, and the University catalogue of courses and programmes can be maintained accurately.

(e) To ensure that the quality and standards of educational programmes offered through the self-financing mode are the same as those receiving funding support through the University Grants Committee, the process for curriculum development, approval and management should be the same for both types of programmes.

Approval of Changes to the Curriculum

6. The delegation of Senate authority over the curriculum of academic programmes is made on the understanding that colleges and equivalent bodies will ensure that:

(a) The structure of programmes is consistent with the academic regulations.

(b) The assignment of credit units to student work is consistent with University standards.

(c) The academic standard of programmes is appropriate, given the level of the award, and is comparable with the academic standard of similar programmes elsewhere.

(d) The curriculum of courses and programmes is consistent with the University’s overall objectives for students’ education.

(e) Teaching, learning and assessment strategies have been given appropriate attention, and are aligned to the intended learning outcomes of courses and programmes.

(f) Resources to deliver programmes and courses are adequate.

(g) Where necessary, arrangements for the transition of students to new curriculum requirements have been made.

Section D — Assuring and Improving the Quality of Education

1. In discharging its responsibility for the University’s academic programmes, Senate relies on departments to maintain and improve the quality of the educational provision for which they are responsible. Senate has adopted general guidelines for departmental quality assurance, under which departments are asked to operate. (Refer to Section B – Departmental Activities to Assure and Improve the Quality of Education, Good Practices and Guidelines for Quality Education)
2. Departments should ensure that new, full-time academic staff, and any teaching or research support staff, e.g. teaching assistants, research assistants, who are assigned significant teaching duties, have received an adequate orientation to their teaching role at City University.

3. Departments are asked to pay particular attention to the work of part-time teachers to ensure that the quality of instruction delivered by part-time staff is comparable to that of full-time staff in the University. In this regard, Departments should make reference to the Code of Good Practice for part-time teaching approved by the Senate. (Refer to Section C — Code of Good Practice for Part-time Teaching, Good Practices and Guidelines for Quality Education)

4. Departments are required to report annually to the relevant College board (or equivalent body) on the courses and programmes for which they are responsible.

Section E — The Evaluation of Teaching
1. Colleges and equivalent bodies are required to evaluate the teaching of their staff on an individual basis. The primary purpose of any teaching evaluation scheme should be to improve teaching.

2. Colleges are responsible for devising, implementing and maintaining their own teaching evaluation schemes, including determining who should initiate evaluations, who should receive the results, how often evaluations should occur, how they should be administered, and what follow-up procedures will result from the evaluation outcomes.

3. Evaluation schemes should provide the most valid (accurate), reliable (consistent), comprehensive and credible information on the quality of an individual’s teaching performance consistent with the costs of the scheme, where costs include the time and effort of both students and teachers.

4. Where evaluation of teaching is undertaken as part of a summative assessment of performance, in addition to student feedback, evidence must be included from other appropriate sources such as peer review, individual reflection, and expert observation.

5. College schemes for teaching evaluation should be consistent with the guidelines adopted by Senate. (Refer to Section D — Guidelines for the Evaluation of Teaching, Good Practices and Guidelines for Quality Education)

Section F — Student Assessment and Academic Standards (Please refer to the ‘University Assessment Policy and Principles for Taught Programmes’.)

III. Good Practices and Guidelines for Quality Education

Section A — Criteria for Academic Planning
Academic Policy Committee considers proposals for academic developments and student numbers in the light of the following criteria:

1. Community Needs — As expressed by government through the University Grants Committee, by employers, professional associations, and through the University’s own contacts with the wider community.

2. University’s Strategic Considerations — As set out in academic development proposals and in the University’s strategic plans.
3. Student Demand — The demand by new applicants as measured by the band-adjusted applicant-to-place ratio, the quality of applicants and intakes, and internal demand for courses, where students are able to exercise choice.

4. Academic Merit — Consistency with the professional and research priorities of staff and contribution to the University’s ability to enter emerging academic areas.

5. Quality of Outcomes — Ability of units to facilitate sound learning outcomes and to encourage the whole person development of students.

6. Adjustment Problems — Contribution to maintaining minimum effective size and full use of the existing staff establishment.

Section B — Departmental Activities to Assure and Improve the Quality of Education

1. Departments are asked to assure and improve the quality of education across the following areas of responsibility:

   (a) Design and implementation of the academic curriculum for discipline areas and professional specialisms under the management of the department, including the approach to teaching and learning, the assessment of students, and maintenance of academic standards.

   (b) Design and implementation of an out-of-class educational experience for the department’s students, including: orientation; mentoring; developmental and skill-building activities; and placement.

2. Departments are asked to establish for these areas of responsibility a mechanism for maintaining and assuring quality that has the following features:

   (a) Forums for academic staff to engage in discussion about the design and implementation of educational programmes in the department, encouraging a sense of collective responsibility for quality, innovation and out-of-the-box thinking, and the use of the department’s own professional resources to support the development of staff in their teaching role.

   (b) Peer review of the design and implementation of academic programmes by academics and practitioners, to assist in the calibration of students’ grades and academic standards against international norms, the transmission of good practice, and benchmarking.

   (c) Consultation with stakeholders, including other academic units, students, employers, alumni and professional bodies.

   (d) Assessment of learning outcomes as a means to evaluate and improve the department’s performance.

   (e) An orientation to improvement by the development of concrete action plans, with a well-identified assignment of responsibility and timelines, and a commitment to the evaluation of the impact of actions taken.

   (f) Encouraging research and publications on teaching and learning.
3. Departments should report annually to their college board/equivalent body on the courses and programmes under their responsibility, and on their implementation of systems to assure and improve quality and academic standards.

Section C — Code of Good Practice for Part-time Teaching

To ensure that the quality of instruction delivered by part-time staff is comparable to that of full-time staff in the University, Senate has adopted the following Code of Good Practice for Part-time Teaching to provide a standard for reference, and a basis for action to enhance the performance and quality of part-time teaching:

1. The recruitment standards in terms of qualifications and experience required for a part-time teaching position should as far as possible be identical to that required for a full-time position.

2. The employment of part-time teachers should be confirmed as soon as possible after a decision to hire a person has been made to enable that person to use University facilities, e.g. Library and Computing Services Centre, for the preparation of materials before starting teaching. Furthermore, honoraria payable for part-time teaching must be handled expeditiously.

3. A senior staff member should be appointed by each department to oversee all part-time teaching matters and to ensure that part-time teaching is of a high quality. Formal recognition for this job should be reflected in the workload of the staff member.

4. Handbooks or other material containing practical information at both University and departmental levels should be made available by departments to part-time teachers.

5. Briefing(s) should be conducted for part-time teachers about their role and duties, course aims and learning outcomes, assessment policy and guidelines, teaching evaluation, background of students, etc.

6. Part-time teachers should be invited as far as possible to curriculum development activities, Programme Committee meetings, and in social departmental/University functions, etc. to enhance their sense of commitment to part-time teaching.

7. Part-time teachers should be invited to participate in staff development workshops organised in the University, whenever necessary. These workshops should be held at a convenient time for part-time teachers who should be paid an additional honorarium for their attendance.

8. Adequate space (working space and lockers) and other facilities including clerical support, stationery, photocopy service, etc. should be provided for part-time teachers.

9. Teaching evaluation should be conducted for part-time teachers in accordance with Senate policy, as for full-time teachers, through student evaluation of teaching, peer review or other means. Departmental reports to the college board should contain a section reporting specifically on part-time teaching and on any deviations from this Code of Good Practice.

Section D — Guidelines for the Evaluation of Teaching

General

1. Teaching evaluation schemes should include student feedback as a substantial, primary element in the process.
2. An individual’s teaching should be judged in context – the type and purpose of the teaching, the background of the students, the resources available, the nature of the courses, etc.

3. Teaching evaluation data should cover a representative sample of an individual’s teaching activities, for example to include a variety of student groups and types of activity – lecture, tutorial, project supervision, etc.

4. Evaluation schemes should clearly separate questions relating to an individual’s performance from questions relating to the contributions of others involved in the course. For example, the teacher to be evaluated might not be responsible for the syllabus, the assessment design, etc.

Evaluation Instruments

5. Evaluation instruments should be based on recognized good practice, teaching-learning theory and accepted research findings.

6. Evaluation by students for the purpose of judging and assessing teaching must include a customized version of the Teaching Feedback Questionnaire.

7. Evaluation instruments to be used with students should have accompanying Chinese translation where this will increase the validity of the data collected.

8. Each evaluation instrument should be designed for a specific audience and should only include items for which this audience is capable of giving informed responses.

9. Evaluation instruments should include sufficient data to allow the teaching context to be readily identified e.g. FT/PT students, core/service courses, etc.

Summative Evaluation and Personnel Decisions

10. Where the results of teaching evaluations are to be incorporated into decision-making related to career progression, the differences between information collected from formative and summative evaluations must be taken into account, since information obtained for the sole purpose of improving teaching, and often collected before that teaching is complete, may be inappropriate to consider when making judgments.

11. Those entrusted with using the information from teaching evaluations for decision-making related to career progression should be skilled in interpreting and drawing together the different sources of information.

Administration

12. The administration of teaching evaluation should follow adequate, standardized procedures in order to protect the validity of the information obtained.

13. Evaluation schemes should include clear guidelines as to who may initiate an evaluation and for what purposes. In all cases the staff member being evaluated must be fully consulted.

14. Evaluation schemes must include clear rules governing the confidentiality of evaluation information and reports. This is particularly the case, where the emphasis is on development and improvement (Formative Evaluation Tools for example).
15. Colleges must provide feedback on the outcomes of evaluations to those involved in providing evaluation data.

16. Teaching evaluation schemes must be documented and provided to the Quality Assurance Committee for information.

17. Provisions should exist for regular review of College/School evaluation schemes and of the institution’s evaluation procedures.

Section E — Guidelines for Student Assessment (Please refer to the ‘University Assessment Policy and Principles for Taught Programmes’.)

Section F — Guidelines for Assigning Course Grades (Please refer to the ‘University Assessment Policy and Principles for Taught Programmes’.)

Section G — Guidelines for External Academic Advisors

These guidelines are drawn from the University’s experience with the External Examiner system. Departments that wish to benchmark the academic standard of their courses and programmes and student work by employing External Academic Advisors may find them of value.

1. Departments should ensure that their External Advisors have the essential experience relating to the assessment of candidates for similar awards in other universities of international standing, and that they have the qualifications necessary to lend credibility to the advice they offer to the department.

Role of External Academic Advisors

2. While the principal role of External Academic Advisors is to assist the University to maintain the international standard of its awards, departments are encouraged to seek their advice on broader academic issues.

3. External Advisors may be asked to advise on assessment tasks and strategics related to a course, moderate examination papers, scripts and other written work of students, and tender advice before decisions are made by an Assessment Panel. This is particularly the case where hands-on involvement as members of an assessment team is a requirement imposed by professional bodies. However, External Advisors are normally invited to comment on assessment decisions after Assessment Panels have completed their work, on the understanding that the decisions of properly constituted Assessment Panels are final.

Work of External Academic Advisors

4. Departments should establish a plan of work for the Advisors to cover: the courses to be reviewed over their period of appointment; arrangements for the review of the relevant materials, teaching and learning activities, and assessment tasks, and the timing and objectives of visits to the University.

5. External Advisors should sample an appropriate range of students’ work which may include examination scripts for any course under review, selected from the range of student grades. Where coursework is a major component of assessment, a similar sample of coursework should be reviewed by prior co-ordination between the Advisor and the Department.
6. For any courses selected for review, the External Academic Advisors should consider whether:
   (a) Assessment arrangements validly address intended learning outcomes and allow for a reasonable judgment to be made about the performance of students;
   (b) Students are required to achieve an appropriate academic level in the assessed coursework and examinations for the course;
   (c) Assessed work requires students to marshal the range of information and its application, and display the technical and other skills identified as learning outcomes for a course;
   (d) Assessed work relates to the course outcomes; and
   (e) Student work has been carefully and competently graded.

7. In their calibration of student work, Advisors are asked to pay special attention to the boundary between pass and fail grades, and to the calibration of the distinction between grades at the upper end, B and A, and the lower end, F and D. If the University is able to set these basic boundaries in line with external standards, it can rely on internal moderation to maintain finer grades.

8. While the programme approval process and mechanisms for programme review ensure that the syllabus of any course is pitched at the right academic level, where External Advisors feel that this is not the case, they are encouraged to include this finding in their reports.

Briefing of External Academic Advisors

9. External Academic Advisors should be adequately briefed. Department concerned should make available:
   (a) Senate policy and guidelines relating to the assessment of students;
   (b) The Academic Regulations;
   (c) A full description of the curriculum, including an explanation of the assessment strategies being followed; and
   (d) Reports of previous External Academic Advisors, with any response to these reports.

Report

10. The report of the Advisors should have two sections. Section 1 provides a signed assurance that the academic standard of assessment in the area of the Advisor’s responsibility is being maintained. This assurance may be unqualified, or qualified. When a qualified assurance is provided, Advisors are asked to note these qualifications. Section 2 is a free format report. The basis for this section is a checklist of issues. This checklist is provided to the Advisors when they are appointed.

11. Departments should arrange for the reports of Advisors to be forwarded to the relevant Dean, at the end of each academic year.
12. Reports from the Advisors are essential inputs for staff seeking to maintain the quality and level of assessment of courses. Reports should therefore be made widely available to staff, and action should be taken as appropriate on the advice of the Advisors to bring the academic standard of awards into line with international standards.

* The ‘University Assessment Policy and Principles for Taught Programmes’ was approved by the Senate on 1 June 2010. It has been partially launched in 2010/11 and will be fully implemented in 2011/12, to allow sufficient time for Colleges / Schools / Departments to prepare for their local procedures in respective areas specified in the document. The partial implementation in 2010/11 covers policy statements and principles in Chapters 3 and 15, while all other chapters will be implemented starting from 2011/12.
Glossary

Academic Regulations (AR)  Regulations made by the City University Senate to govern student progress through taught programmes leading to awards approved by the City University Senate.

Academic Regulations and Records Office ("ARRO")  ARRO handles student record matters relating to Bachelor’s Degree and Associate Degree students.

Academic Staff  All persons, whether full-time or part-time, of whatever rank, designation, title or description involved in the delivery and assessment of student learning whether graduate or postgraduate. For the purpose of this policy it includes postgraduate teaching assistants.

Assessment Tasks  Tests, coursework, examination and other activities undertaken to assess students’ progress through courses and to assign final grades.

Assessment Panels  University bodies responsible for assigning grades to students for their courses.

Chow Yei Ching School of Graduate Studies ("SGS")  SGS handles student record matters relating to taught Postgraduate, Professional Doctorate and Research Degrees.

Course  The basic units of instruction into which students are registered and for which grades may be assigned.

Course Leader  Academic staff appointed by Heads of Department with responsibility for the delivery and assessment of a particular course.

Course Outline  A description of the course and what it will cover; the intended learning outcomes and a description and weighting of each assessment task, along with the formula for determining the final course grade.

Cumulative Grade Point Average ("CGPA")

CGPA = \frac{\sum_{i=1}^{n} G_i U_i}{\sum_{i=1}^{n} U_i}

For the calculation of Grade Point Average (GPA), G is the grade point awarded, U is the credit units earned for the ith course. CGPA is calculated for courses taken during enrolment for a specific programme, i=1-n where n represents all courses completed at the time of the calculation, unless excluded under AR8.3, or AR11.3.

Dean  Dean refers to Deans and other equivalent posts.
Chapter 1  Introduction

1.1 The purpose of the City University Assessment Policy and Principles for Taught Programmes (the Policy) is to clearly set out our philosophy and approach to assessment. Institutional standards are defined in relation to assessment procedures and mechanisms are established to monitor assessment policy and practice at City University of Hong Kong.

1.2 As a general guide, policy defines the actions and responsibilities of staff and requires compliance. Principles on the other hand inform staff of procedures which may be used to ensure appropriate outcomes. Therefore principles provide a basis for the development of good practice in assessment, which may be creatively and flexibly used by all staff.

1.3 The word ‘Department(s)’ in this Policy refers to all learning and teaching units at City University.
1.4 Appendix A identifies the sources which have been referenced and drawn upon in drafting this Policy.

Chapter 2 General Assessment Policy and Principles

Policy Statements

1. Assessment is the crucial link between effective delivery of courses, student learning and development and the assurance of educational standards.

2. Assessment tasks must:
   - be fit for purpose, fair, consistent and constructively aligned to course or programme intended learning outcomes;
   - not discriminate according to gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, religion or belief, age, social origin or disability;
   - enable students to develop and demonstrate their learning and potential;
   - enable students to progress to or receive professional accreditation where appropriate;
   - assist student learning and development by providing appropriate and timely feedback on performance;
   - be of sufficient scope and range to enable accurate assessment of the extent to which students have attained the course or programme intended learning outcomes;
   - provide a reliable and consistent basis for converting the results into a final grade for the course;
   - assist academic staff to evaluate the effectiveness of their teaching;
   - be aligned with City University expectations as set out in its mission statement, regulations, policies and procedures.

3. Assessment procedures must be an integral part of a process which encourages the development of creative and critical abilities.

4. Assessment requirements, procedures and intended outcomes must be stated clearly so that the duties, obligations and responsibilities of course leaders, academic staff and students are clearly identified and addressed.

5. Heads of Department must ensure that assessment requirements and procedures are communicated to academic staff, students, external academic advisors and, where appropriate, professional accreditation bodies.

6. Heads of Department must ensure that assessment tasks and assessment procedures are fit for purpose, fair, consistent and constructively aligned to intended learning outcomes.

7. Assessment procedures must be transparent to all those involved in the process.

8. All those involved in the process must ensure they are fully informed about City University and Departmental assessment procedures.
Principles

2.1 Each programme should include a variety of assessment tasks which together make up the assessment scheme for that programme. These can include in-class activities, presentations, group activities, quizzes, assignments to be completed in students’ own time, examinations, reports and projects, or be based upon pieces of work of a substantial nature such as a thesis or a research project. Variety promotes effective learning, allows for the assessment of a range of intended learning outcomes and supports a range of approaches to learning. An appropriate mix of formative and summative assessments should be used. Formative and summative assessment may, in practice, be combined.

2.2 Distribution and completion of assessment tasks should be co-ordinated to minimise stress and pressure for both students and for academic staff.

2.3 Wherever possible more than one form of summative assessment should be used in a course, e.g. essay, oral presentation, written examination, multiple choice examination, journal article, laboratory report, literature review, practical performance.

2.4 All assessment tasks, whether graded or not, should primarily be considered formative. Students are entitled to timely and meaningful feedback on assessment tasks. Timely and meaningful feedback is good practice and substantially contributes to both student learning and the development of students’ potential.

2.5 Students should be advised not later than the end of the second week of the semester or, where a course does not run in accordance with scheduled semesters within two weeks of the commencement of the course, of the nature and timing of all assessment tasks for the entire course and the nature and timing of the feedback they will receive on assessment tasks due for completion before the end of the semester.

2.6 Assessment tasks and procedures should be regularly reviewed in conjunction with external academic advisors and, where a course is required for or leads to professional accreditation, in conjunction with the relevant professional body or bodies.

Chapter 3 Roles and Responsibilities

Policy Statements

1. Heads of Department are responsible for ensuring that the City University assessment policy and procedures are observed and implemented.

2. Heads of Department must appoint a programme leader for each programme of study within the Department.

3. Heads of Department must appoint a course leader for each course.

4. Heads of Department must establish an Assessment Panel for courses offered by the Department. The composition and duties and responsibilities of Assessment Panels are as set out in Appendix C to this Policy.

5. No course may be considered by more than one Assessment Panel.

6. Deans must establish an Examination Board to consider award classifications. The composition and duties and responsibilities of Examination Boards are as set out in Appendix D to this Policy.
7. All academic staff have a professional responsibility to ensure that assessment tasks and assessment procedures:
   • enhance the quality of learning;
   • accurately measure the extent to which students have achieved the intended learning outcomes for the course and the programme; and
   • provide a reliable basis for converting results into a final grade for the course.

8. All academic staff are collectively responsible for ensuring that assessment tasks are constructively aligned with intended learning and teaching outcomes.

Principles

3.1 Heads of Department, Chairs of Assessment Panels and Chairs of Examination Boards are primarily responsible for ensuring the integrity and security of assessment practices and procedures and for maintaining standards on courses and on programmes of study.

Course Leaders

3.2 Ideally course leaders should be full-time academic staff but part-time academic staff may be appointed where there are sound pedagogical reasons for doing so in the particular case.

3.3 Where part-time academic staff are appointed as course leader, Heads of Department should ideally appoint a full-time academic staff to provide all necessary support and assistance, particularly in relation to the preparation, moderation and marking of examination papers, and to attend all necessary meetings of Assessment Panels and Examination Boards on the course leader’s behalf.

3.4 Heads of Department are encouraged to appoint associate course leaders. Associate course leaders should also be full-time academic staff but part-time academic staff may be appointed where there are sound pedagogical reasons for doing so in the particular case. Appointing associate course leaders is good practice to ensure continuity of delivery in the course leader’s absence.

3.5 Where Heads of Department consider the appointment of an associate course leader is not necessary, e.g. because of the number of students taking the course, it is good practice to designate a full-time member of the academic staff to liaise with the course leader, to take up the course leader’s duties and responsibilities in the absence of the course leader and to attend all necessary meetings of Assessment Panels and Examination Boards on the course leader’s behalf.

The duties and responsibilities of course leaders include:

Generic duties

- Ensures the timely and accurate completion of course management and administration and provides regular reports to the responsible programme leader.
- Ensures the course reflects the coverage and depth required, as well as being up-to-date and relevant to student needs.
• Develops and provides guidance on effective standards relating to academic principles, assessment, content and the support of student needs.
• Provides support to instructors, students, and colleagues associated with the course.
• Evaluates the subject quality and outcomes and ensures feedback is reflected in revisions to the course.

Duties specific to assessment

• Ensures that assessment tasks are consistent with the Policy Statements and the Principles of Assessment in Chapter 2.
• Prepares the assessment tasks.
• Ensures that assessment and examination questions are not re-used.
• Ensures that assessment tasks are properly moderated.
• Ensures that assessment tasks are constructively aligned with course intended learning outcomes.
• Ensures that assessment tasks are assessed accurately and in a timely manner.
• Develops detailed grade descriptors for the course (see Chapter 6).
• Reports to the Assessment Panel on any changes (including corrections of typos) or errors on the examination questions made/identified during examination.
• Liaises with the associate course leader or the designated full-time academic staff member as the case may be.

3.6 The duty and responsibility of the associate course leader is to shadow the course leader, moderate assessment tasks and take up the course leader’s duties and responsibilities in the absence of the course leader.

3.7 The duty and responsibility of designated full-time academic staff members is to liaise with and provide support for the course leader and to take up the course leader’s duties and responsibilities in the absence of the course leader.

3.8 Course leaders, associate course leaders and designated full-time academic staff members should be appointed sufficiently in advance of the start of teaching to ensure that the course is ready for effective delivery at the start of the semester.

Assessment Panels

3.9 Attendance at Assessment Panels is an important duty. A course leader whose course is being considered by the Assessment Panel should only be excused attendance for good cause on prior written application to the Head of Department setting out the reasons for absence and the measures that have been taken to ensure that matters relating to the course will be adequately addressed at the Assessment Panel.

Examination Boards

3.10 Attendance at Examination Boards is an important duty. Members will only be excused attendance for good cause on prior written application to the Dean setting out the reasons for absence.
Academic Staff

3.11 All academic staff are responsible for creating and maintaining an environment in which students are encouraged to develop their full potential. This requires the establishment and maintenance of high educational standards based upon academic honesty and appropriate and effective management of student learning and assessment by:

- ensuring that assessment tasks are consistent with the Policy Statements and the Principles of Assessment in Chapter 2;
- ensuring that assessment tasks are constructively aligned with intended learning outcomes;
- developing assessment tasks and procedures that are fair and effective and that contribute to student learning;
- administering assessment tasks fairly and efficiently;
- providing timely and constructive feedback to students;
- designing assessment tasks that minimise the potential for breaches of academic honesty;
- ensuring that students are aware of common conventions of academic honesty as well as the specific requirements of their discipline;
- communicating to students the expectations relating to academic honesty;
- providing students with appropriate guidance, learning activities and feedback on academic honesty;
- communicating to students the acceptable level of working together and how their work will be individually or jointly assessed;
- reporting instances of plagiarism or other academic dishonesty;
- encouraging students to think independently and exchange ideas freely;
- continually improving the effectiveness of their teaching; and
- developing and maintaining expertise in their areas.

Programme Leaders

3.12 Ideally academic staff appointed as programme leader will have administrative, management and leadership skills and be familiar with the Academic Regulations and the practices and procedures of City University as well as possessing academic credibility and experience.

3.13 Programme leaders should not normally be appointed from academic staff new to teaching or new to City University.

3.14 The programme leader is the coordinator of the programme of study and reports directly to the Head of Department.

3.15 The duties of programme leaders are as follows.

Generic duties
- Ensures the timely and accurate completion of programme management and administration and provides regular reports to the responsible Head of Department.
• Monitors and evidences the quality of student outcomes and benchmarks with other competitors, identifying new areas of content to be incorporated.
• Assesses and regularly monitors the quality, coverage and currency of intended learning outcomes, learning and teaching activities and assessment tasks in the overall programme(s).
• Involves course leaders, lecturers, instructors and students in regular, ongoing review and development of the programme, and provides appropriate guidance.
• Ensures City University policies are reflected in the programme.

Duties specific to assessment

• Coordinates assessment tasks to avoid overloading students, academic staff and administrative staff.

3.16 In addition to appointing a programme leader for each programme of study, Heads of Department should ideally appoint an associate programme leader for each programme of study to support and, if necessary, assume the programme leader’s responsibilities in the absence of the programme leader.

Students

3.17 Students should take responsibility for their own learning. Students are expected to:
• read, appreciate and observe the general regulations for assessment on the ARRO/SGS web site; assessment requirements contained in course outlines of courses upon which they are enrolled and any supplementary requirements imposed by the course leader or the Department responsible for delivering the course or courses upon which they are enrolled;
• comply with deadlines set for the completion of assessment tasks;
• submit work for assessment which satisfies the requirements of academic honesty;
• inform themselves about the expectations of the university and relevant Colleges, Schools and Departments;
• attend examinations at the time scheduled; and
• use feedback on assessment tasks constructively to enhance their learning.

Chapter 4 Benchmarking against International Standards

Policy statements
1. In the exercise of their responsibility to maintain academic standards in courses for which they are responsible, Heads of Department must have reference to the norms for similar courses at comparable internationally recognised universities.

2. Collaboration and active engagement with comparable internationally recognised universities is a requirement as it assists City University to draw upon international best practice in the continual review and improvement of learning and teaching.

3. Procedures for review and continued improvement of assessment should be documented and reported to College/School Boards.
Principles

4.1 Benchmarking enables City University to make comparison with the standards and performance of comparable internationally recognised universities to improve outcomes, processes and practices.

4.2 Measures adopted to ensure that City University standards are being maintained at an equivalent standard to comparable internationally recognised universities should reflect the following principles:

- assessment tasks should be reviewed alongside a range of comparable courses at comparable universities; and
- reviews of assessment should extend to courses at all levels.

4.3 Heads of Department should take the following steps to ensure that appropriate standards are being maintained:

- reviewing assessment tasks against course information such as grading rubrics, assessment procedures and practices and achievement of intended learning outcomes;
- reviewing assessment tasks, procedures and practices with the input of peers with experience of working in universities with an international reputation and from External Academic Advisors (EAAs);
- reviewing the continued validity and relevance of courses and assessment in the context of global knowledge developments;
- benchmarking against the requirements of relevant professional bodies; and
- drawing upon the international experience of academic staff and international visitors to provide different perspectives on the development of assessment practices and procedures.

Chapter 5 Assessment Criteria and Grade Descriptors

Policy Statements

1. Assessment criteria and grade descriptors must be clearly defined and communicated in writing to students at the start of the course. Academic staff and Assessment Panels must adhere to these when assigning student grades.

2. Heads of Department must ensure consistency of grade descriptors across the Department and their compatibility with City University grade descriptors as defined in the Academic Regulations.

Principles

Assessment Criteria

5.1 Appropriate and meaningful assessment criteria are essential. Assessment criteria should establish clear and unambiguous standards of intended outcomes and achievement and effective methods for accurately assessing student learning and achievement.
5.2 Assessment criteria should be consistent with intended learning outcomes. The criteria should describe the knowledge, understanding and skills that students are expected to display in the assessment task.

5.3 Assessment criteria are of critical importance in criterion-referenced assessment, which is a feature of OBTL. Assessment criteria should be developed for each assessment task, including group work and peer assessment, and distributed to students before an assessment activity.

5.4 Assessment criteria should be designed to:
   • bring transparency and accountability to assessment processes and procedures;
   • achieve consistency of marking on courses forming part of a particular programme of study and across Colleges and Schools;
   • enable markers to award grades which accurately and fairly reflect the attainment of the intended learning outcomes of the work being assessed;
   • enable students to understand how their work has been assessed and the grade awarded;
   • promote understanding of assessment procedures and processes amongst students and academic staff;
   • provide meaningful feedback to students; and
   • enable Departments to assess the quality and effectiveness of learning and teaching procedures and processes.

5.5 Further guidance and support on the design of effective assessment criteria is provided by regular seminars and workshops organised through the Office of Education Development and General Education. Academic staff should regard it as an important professional duty to attend those seminars and workshops both for their personal development and the development of accurate and effective assessment procedures and processes across City University.

Grade Descriptors

5.6 Grade descriptors describe various levels of achievement.

5.7 For individual assessment tasks grade descriptors indicate how well the assessment criteria have been met by the work carried out. For award classification they indicate the level of achievement across a programme of study as a whole.

5.8 The City University Academic Regulations address the grading of courses as follows:
Grading of Courses

Courses are graded according to the following schedule:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Letter Grade</th>
<th>Grade Point</th>
<th>Grade Definitions</th>

5.9 Assessment Panels may deviate from the grade descriptors only under exceptional circumstances.

5.10 Situations in which deviation may be justified include:

- professional accreditation requirements;
- when applying compensation for mitigating circumstances;
- when adjustments are deemed necessary to compensate for error on the part of the university;
- in borderline cases (e.g. between classifications), where there is sound evidence that a student is deserving of a higher grade; and
- in cases of academic dishonesty.
Chapter 6 Assessment Tasks

Policy Statements

1. Assessment tasks must be defined in the course outline for each course so that academic staff and students understand their rights and responsibilities at the beginning of the course.

2. Information in the course outline must include a description and weighting of each assessment task, along with the formula for determining the final course grade.

3. Assessment tasks must be manageable and sufficient to provide an accurate view of students’ learning and achievement of the course intended learning outcomes without overburdening either students or academic staff and is scheduled accordingly.

4. Changes to the scheduled date for completion of assessment tasks during the semester must be approved by programme leaders.

5. Assessment shall be completed in the semester in which the course is completed.

6. Assessment tasks must reflect the topics and relative importance of the intended learning outcomes of the course.

7. Decisions on the form the end of course examination will take and the material students can bring into the examination must be consistent with the course intended learning outcomes and take account of the conditions under which the examination is written.

8. No changes (except for corrections of typos) should be made on the examination questions during examination. Course Leader is required to report to the Assessment Panel if there are any changes made unavoidably.

Principles

6.1 Formative and summative assessment tasks must be included in each course.

6.2 Assessments used for summative purposes must be accompanied by clear assessment criteria.

6.3 Assessment tasks are designed to align with the course intended learning outcomes to provide evidence on how well each student has achieved the intended learning outcomes. Such evidence could be provided by groupwork, case studies, assignments examinations laboratory work, peer assessment and reports, practicals, practicum etc. The choice of assessment tasks should relate directly to the course intended learning outcomes.

6.4 End loading of semesters with assessment tasks for completion before the end of the semester is not in the best interests of students or academic staff.

6.5 The overall assessment load and the dates for submission of assessment tasks should be as evenly spread as possible and be monitored by programme leaders. Assessment tasks should be scheduled so that there is sufficient time for students to receive feedback before the end of the semester.

6.6 Information about assessment tasks, their timing, weighting, marking criteria, penalties for late submission, exceeding word limits, incorrect citing of authorities and incorrect use of English should be clearly stated in course outlines provided to students and the start of the course and accompany the assessment task when it is distributed. This information could also usefully be included in student handbooks.

6.7 Care should be taken to ensure that assessment tasks and procedures do not disadvantage any group or individual.

6.8 Assessments, particularly take-home assessments and examination questions should not be re-used in their original form as this unfairly advantages successive students.

6.9 Course leaders have the responsibility to ensure that assessment and examination questions are not re-used in their original form, and no changes (except for corrections of typos) to the examination question should be made during examination.

Groupwork

6.10 Groupwork assessments must be carefully planned and take account of the timing and balance of groupwork across the programme upon which the students are engaged.

6.11 Groupwork assessments used for summative purposes must clearly define the expected achievement and the marking criteria for students within the group.

6.12 Students undertaking groupwork should receive adequate instruction, guidance and support before the start of the groupwork to enable them to understand how to approach the groupwork and how it will be assessed.

6.13 Groupwork tasks should not normally be used for summative assessment purposes unless this type of activity is essential to the intended learning outcomes of the course.

6.14 Assessment of courses should not normally be based entirely upon groupwork unless this pattern of assessment is essential to the intended learning outcomes of the course.

Peer Assessment

6.15 Peer assessment may be used to develop students’ ability to work cooperatively, to be constructively critical of others’ work and receive constructively critical appraisals of their own work.

6.16 Assessment criteria and intended learning outcomes shall be published to students at the start of the course so that students can identify whether, and to what extent, the work of their peers has met the intended learning outcomes and award a reasoned grade for that work.

6.17 Measures should be in place for peer assessments to be moderated by the member of the academic staff responsible for the course. Moderators must be particularly alert to subjective peer assessment.

6.18 Assessment of courses should not be based entirely on peer assessment.

Examination

6.19 Examinations may be closed book or open book. The form of the examination should be included in the course outline. Students should be told not later than the end of the second week of the semester or, where a student subsequently joins a course within two weeks of their joining, whether the examination will be open book; with limited material; with defined material or closed book.

6.20 Formal written examinations should have duration of 1, 1.5, 2, 2.5 or 3 hours.

Chapter 7 Late Submission of Assessment Tasks

Policy Statements
1. Penalties for failure to submit assessment tasks on time should be consistent across Departments and be applied consistently by all academic staff.

2. Students must be provided with a schedule showing the assessment tasks they will be required to undertake, the date they will receive the assessment tasks and the date for submission of the assessment tasks not later than the end of the second week of the semester or, where a student joins a course subsequently, within two weeks of joining.

3. The policy on the response to late submission of assessment tasks must be stated in course documents and in course outlines.

4. The assessment schedule to be provided to students not later than the end of the second week of the course, or within second week of students subsequently joining the course, must include information on penalties that will be incurred for failure to submit assessment tasks on time.

Principles
7.1 Students are responsible for managing their time to meet the published deadlines for submission of assessment tasks.

7.2 Deadlines for submission of assessment tasks will not be extended except in the specific circumstances defined in the university’s Academic Regulations.

7.3 Failure to submit any summative assessment task will result in no marks being awarded for that assessment component.

Chapter 8 Preparation, Printing, Storage, Delivery and Security of Examination Papers

Policy Statements
1. Security and confidentiality of all examination materials is essential to the integrity and credibility of the examination process.

2. Heads of Departments have the responsibility to ensure the security and confidentiality of all examination materials, including examination answer books.

3. Preparation, handling, storage, printing and transportation of examination materials must be conducted with due regard to security and confidentiality.

4. All academic staff involved in the preparation of examination materials must comply with deadlines set by ARRO/SGS for the delivery of examination materials to ARRO/SGS.
Principles

8.1 Heads of Department should nominate two full-time members of the academic staff as the Departmental Examinations Officers (“DEO”) to take control of the preparation and security of examination materials for undergraduate and postgraduate programmes respectively and provide them with the necessary support from administrative staff.

8.2 DEOs should ensure that examination materials are prepared in a timely manner to facilitate internal and external moderation and the delivery of examination papers to ARRO/SGS. Examination papers for printing should be delivered to ARRO/SGS by hand and under confidential cover. The DEOs should keep a written record of compliance with time limits.

8.3 Where examination papers are printed within Departments, DEOs are responsible for the security of those papers and for ensuring the papers reach the correct examination room in good time for the scheduled start of the examination.

8.4 DEOs should make a written report to the Head of Department where examination materials are not prepared by the specified dates. The Head of Department should then take appropriate action.

8.5 Emailing examination materials to External Academic Advisors is permitted only where the email is encrypted or password protected. Emailing of examination materials within Departments is similarly permissible only where the email is encrypted or password protected.

8.6 Hard copies of examination materials kept within the Department should be kept in a safe or in a locked metal cabinet. Measures should be in place to guard against theft, accidental loss, damage or destruction of examination materials. Where hard copies of examination materials are sent to External Academic Advisors or external examiners, care should be taken to maintain security and to avoid misdirection of the materials.

8.7 Where examination answer books are removed from the Department for marking elsewhere, the academic staff member concerned should notify the relevant DEO of the removal and location of the books. That DEO should be notified of the return of examination answer books to the Department.

Chapter 9 Marking/Grading

Policy Statements

1. All assessment tasks must be marked objectively and impartially applying published assessment criteria, marking schemes and grade descriptors.

2. Markers must comply with City University’s policy on breaches of academic honesty.

3. Marking must not discriminate on grounds of gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, religion or belief, age, social origin or disability.

4. Wherever possible, assessed work must be marked anonymously.

5. Marks will only be awarded to legible assessment tasks. Students will not be permitted to re-write illegible work.
Principles

9.1 Methods utilised in marking students’ work should enable all those involved in the process to be confident that the marks awarded fairly reflect the level of achievement of intended learning outcomes demonstrated by the work submitted.

9.2 Students should ensure that their assessment tasks are legible. Where an assessment task is wholly or partially illegible to the extent that the ability of the marker to assess its quality is impaired, it will be assessed on the basis of the legible part or parts and a mark awarded accordingly.

Promotion of Good Marking Practices

9.3 Marking should normally be undertaken by the course leader responsible for the delivery of the course. Other academic staff engaged in the delivery of the course may also be involved in marking. Where other academic staff are involved in marking, the course leader has the responsibility for ensuring that good marking practices are deployed and that there is a consistent approach to marking.

9.4 Marking carried out by staff who are not full time academic staff should be supervised by a full time member of the academic staff.

9.5 Students should not gain marks simply by attending lectures, seminars and/or tutorials.

Chapter 10 Moderation

Policy Statements

1. Moderation of all assessment tasks is an essential component of acquired best practice.

2. Information on departmental policies on the moderation of assessment tasks, marks and grades must be published to students and academic staff.

3. Heads of Department are responsible for setting departmental policy on moderation, making arrangements for internal and external moderation of assessment tasks, marks and grades, and for ensuring that the policy is adhered to by all academic staff.

Principles

10.1 Moderation involves a range of activities which provide confirmation that assessment has been conducted accurately, consistently and fairly. Moderation addresses the quality of the assessment process, measures the outcomes and helps assess the overall fitness for purpose of the course and the programme of study.

10.2 Moderation provides valuable feedback and contributes to the constructive alignment of marking standards across the Department.

10.3 Incorporating a moderation element into the design of a course directs attention to how standards and attainment of course intended learning outcomes will be verified, the consistency of the course and the way in which it is assessed.

Moderation of Assessment Tasks

10.4 The purpose of moderating assessment tasks is to provide assurance that the design of a specific assessment task is a valid and reliable measure of the intended learning outcomes.
Moderation of assessment tasks should ensure that:

- each task is a valid and reliable means of providing students with an opportunity to demonstrate achievement of the intended learning outcomes for the course;
- the questions or instructions are clearly worded, written in student-friendly language, and are unambiguous;
- the assessment workload is appropriate to the course being assessed, particularly where there are multiple components to the assessment;
- the time-scale allowed for completion of the assessment task is reasonable;
- all students can reasonably be expected to have access to the resources required for completion of the assessment task; and
- there are clear assessment criteria, a marking scheme and grade descriptors.

Moderation of Marks/Grades

Moderation of marks/grades aims to reinforce assessment reliability by ensuring consistency and standards between markers. There are a number of moderation mechanisms available:

- double marking, i.e. two academic staff marking the same piece of work (not splitting the total marking task between two or more academic staff);
- audio/video recording of assessments with no tangible output, e.g. presentations, music or drama performances, practical demonstrations, which are used by a second marker, who was not present at the original assessment;
- simultaneous moderation of assessments with no tangible output by the presence of a second assessor or by a panel of assessors at the time of the assessment, either in person or using teleconferencing or similar technology; and
- analysing marks across a cohort of students and against those of previous cohorts of students.

Double marking is considered as a good practice in borderline cases and cases in dispute. In double marking, the mark of the first marker usually stands unless there are significant discrepancies between the marks of the two markers. Departments should determine their own policies in this area, including a clear definition of what would constitute a significant discrepancy, as appropriate to the marking practices in the Department.

The nature and intensity of the scrutiny will depend on the perceived risk associated with each assessment task. In particular:

- how well defined the assessment task is;
- whether different people mark the same assessment task, e.g. whether team teaching is involved;
- the experience and employment status of the marker, e.g. academic staff not familiar with marking processes, inexperienced part-time academic staff;
- whether mark distributions for the same cohort of students differ noticeably for different assessments; whether different students perform different tasks; and
• the importance of the mark, in terms of both its weighting and its academic level.

10.9 In many cases it is sufficient for a sample of the assessed work to be moderated. Sample size should be determined by taking account of the risk factors described above and should be representative of the size of the cohort.

10.10 Heads of Department should establish a departmental policy on arrangements for appropriate moderation of marks/grades and are responsible for ensuring that the policy is known and adhered to by all academic staff involved in assessment. An evaluation of moderation arrangements should be included in the annual programme report.

External moderation

10.11 External moderation plays a key role in maintaining academic standards. This is usually undertaken by the External Academic Advisor. (See document XXX for guidance on the role of the EAA)

Chapter 11 Feedback and Retention of Students’ Work

Feedback

1. Timely feedback must be provided on all assessment tasks.

2. Feedback on assessment tasks must normally be provided within 20 working days after the date for submission of the assessment task.

3. Feedback may be written or oral, and given either on an individual or collective basis.

Retention of Students’ Work

4. Heads of Department must implement appropriate procedures for the return, retention and disposal of completed assessment tasks.

5. Students must have access to all marked work.

6. Completed work should not be retained indefinitely.

7. Completed work not returned to students and copies of any returned work kept by Departments must not be destroyed earlier than one year after the meeting of the Assessment Panel for the course to which the work relates.

Principles

Feedback

11.1 To facilitate the development of learning, students should receive prompt, adequate and meaningful feedback on all assessment tasks.

11.2 Feedback on assessment tasks should enable students to:
• understand the reasons for the grade awarded;
• identify the strengths and weaknesses in the work submitted; and
• improve their future performance.

11.3 The format and manner of the feedback is a matter for course leaders. It is good practice for Departments to develop a standard format and a standard procedure in the interests of accuracy and certainty of feedback and of record keeping.

11.4 Whilst oral feedback is valuable, students will benefit more from written feedback. A record should be kept of the feedback and when it was provided.

Retention of Students’ Work

11.5 To safeguard the integrity and objectivity of the assessment process, departmental procedures should ensure that students’ work is available for:

• internal and external moderation;
• procedures relating to allegations of academic dishonesty; and
• review procedures.

11.6 Students should be permitted to access their marked examination scripts. Students who would like to receive a copy of their marked examination script are encouraged to follow the data access procedure prescribed in the City University’s Code of Practice on Personal Data (Privacy) Issues.

11.7 Students should not be permitted to remove original examination scripts from the Department.

11.8 It is recommended that a record is kept of student access to examination scripts.

11.9 Heads of Department should ensure that retained work and any copies of returned work kept by the Department are disposed of securely and confidentially after the expiration of the retention period.

11.10 Retained work and any copies kept by the Department may be retained for more than one year after the meeting of the Assessment Panel for the course to which the work relates where the Head of Department considers retention is necessary and/or appropriate, for example in relation to professional accreditation. City University’s Code of Practice on Personal Data (Privacy) Issues should be adhered to where students’ work, or copies of that work, is retained.

Detailed information on the retention of student work and copies of returned work and requests for personal data related to assessed work is contained in City University’s Code of Practice on Personal Data (Privacy) Issues – (version, October 2010).

Chapter 12  Assessment: Students with Disabilities

Policy Statements

1. Disabled students must not be disadvantaged.

2. Departments must ensure, in conjunction with the Student Development Services, that justifiable procedures and mechanisms are in place to adequately support the needs of disabled students.
3. Students must have the opportunity to disclose a disability throughout their programme of study.

4. Disabled students’ assessment tasks must be marked in the same way as the assessment tasks of other students.

Principles

12.1 Section 24(2) of the Disability Discrimination Ordinance Cap. 487, (“DDO”) subject to certain exceptions, makes it unlawful for an educational establishment to discriminate against a student with a disability by:
   • denying that student’s access, or limiting that student’s access, to any benefit, service or facility provided by the educational establishment;
   • expelling that student;
   • subjecting that student to any other detriment.

12.2 Under Section 2 of the DDO “disability” means:
   • total or partial loss of the person’s bodily or mental functions;
   • total or partial loss of a part of the person’s body;
   • the presence in the body of organisms causing disease or illness;
   • the presence in the body of organisms capable of causing disease or illness;
   • the malfunction, malformation or disfigurement of a part of the person’s body;
   • a disorder or malfunction that results in the person learning differently from a person without the disorder or malfunction;
   • a disorder, illness or disease that affects a person’s thought processes, perception of reality, emotions or judgment or that results in disturbed behaviour.

12.3 Students should be advised that Departments need not consider the effect of a disability upon the performance in an assessment if that disability has not been disclosed and supported by medical evidence prior to the assessment.

12.4 A student disabled within the DDO who requires additional support or adjustments to assessment should notify ARRO/SGS by completing the respective Questionnaire for Students with Disabilities (Appendix B). Medical confirmation of the disability and consequent needs must be provided. A time limit can be placed upon providing this information. If the medical confirmation and information of required special needs is not provided within that time the Department, in conjunction with the Student Development Services, should adopt appropriate and justifiable procedures to address the student’s needs.

12.5 Departments, in consultation with the Student Development Services, should make justifiable adjustments to assessment procedures to ensure that disabled persons have an equality of opportunity when undergoing assessments.

12.6 Without limiting the modification in the particular case, adjustments to assessment may involve:
• taking the assessment in a separate room;
• allowing extra time;
• providing additional or special equipment; and
• allowing rest breaks, amanuensis or the presence of a carer, particularly where regular medication is required.

Chapter 13 Academic Honesty and Penalties for Breach

Policy Statements
1. Academic honesty is central to the conduct of academic work.
2. All students of City University are expected to appreciate and respect the requirements and obligations of academic honesty.
3. Work presented by students of City University must be their own work, give proper acknowledgment of the work of others and honestly report findings obtained.
4. Students will be bound by the City University of Hong Kong Rules on Academic Honesty.

Principles
13.1 The City University of Hong Kong Rules on Academic Honesty are clearly set out on http://go.cityu.edu.hk/arroah/ and should be adhered to.
13.2 Heads of Department are responsible for ensuring that procedures are in place in accordance with the City University of Hong Kong Rules on Academic Honesty to address, detect and respond to academic honesty issues and that such procedures are consistently applied.
13.3 All academic staff have the professional responsibility to provide guidance and feedback on academic honesty to students and to lead by example by ensuring that the work of others is acknowledged in their teaching and research.
13.4 When setting assessment tasks, in whatever form, course leaders should:
• design the task to avoid or at least reduce opportunities for academic dishonesty;
• design the task and the accompanying instructions in the way most likely to lead to prompt identification of academic dishonesty;
• avoid re-using the same, or very similar assessment topics, and/or examination questions used in previous semesters;
• provide clear instructions on how the work should be presented to comply with the requirements and obligations of academic honesty, for example as to attribution and citing of authorities and sources;
• provide clear instructions, particularly where the assessment task is to be completed in students’ own time, on the extent to which, if at all, students can make use of third party assistance; and
• provide clear guidance where the task involves joint or group activities on the acceptable level of joint work, how that joint work should be acknowledged, what amounts to acceptable co-operation and collaboration, what amounts to unacceptable collusion and how individual contributions to joint or group work will be assessed.
13.5 When marking assessment tasks, in whatever form, markers should:

- be alert for academic dishonesty in work presented;
- investigate suspected academic dishonesty; and
- respond to instances of academic dishonesty in accordance with procedures laid down in the City University of Hong Kong Rules on Academic Honesty.

13.6 Students should ensure that they comply with the City University of Hong Kong Rules on Academic Honesty.

Chapter 14 Mitigation and Review

Policy Statements

1. Students who have been unable to attend or complete an assessment task, or who believe their performance has been impaired by medical or other circumstances beyond their control, must have the opportunity to apply for mitigation in accordance with the Academic Regulations of City University.

2. Students must be provided with an opportunity to request a review of any grade awarded or any decision made by an Assessment Panel in accordance with the Academic Regulations of City University.

3. Students dissatisfied with a decision of an Examination Board must be given the opportunity to request a review on the basis of the limited grounds defined in the Academic Regulations of City University.

4. Deans and Heads of Department are responsible for implementing appropriate procedures for mitigation and review requests and ensuring those procedures are adhered to by all academic staff. Procedures must comply with the Academic Regulations of City University on mitigation and academic reviews.

Chapter 15 Classification of Award

Principles

15.1 Academic awards should accurately reflect the student’s achievement of the intended learning outcomes of the programme. Decisions on award classifications should comply with the Academic Regulations.

15.2 Upon completion of all appropriate graduation requirements, students will be awarded an appropriate degree with one of the following classifications:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Bachelor’s Degree</th>
<th>PGC/PGD/Master’s Degree / Associate Degree</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>First Class Honours</td>
<td>Distinction</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Upper Second Class Honours</td>
<td>Credit</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lower Second Class Honours</td>
<td>Pass</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Third Class Honours</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pass</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
15.3 The various classifications are based on CGPA. The general guidelines are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Bachelor’s Degree</th>
<th>CGPA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>First Class Honours</td>
<td>3.5 or above</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Upper Second Class Honours</td>
<td>3.0 – 3.49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Lower Second Class Honours</td>
<td>2.5 – 2.99</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Third Class Honours</td>
<td>2.0 – 2.49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pass</td>
<td>1.7 – 1.99</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PGC/PGD/ Master’s Degree</th>
<th>CGPA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Distinction</td>
<td>3.5 or above</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Credit</td>
<td>3.2 – 3.49</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pass</td>
<td>2.0 – 3.19</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Associate Degree</th>
<th>CGPA</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Distinction</td>
<td>3.4 or above</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Credit</td>
<td>3.0 – 3.39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pass</td>
<td>1.7 – 2.99</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

15.4 Heads of Department should recommend award classifications to the Examination Board for review and endorsement. The Examination Board reserves the right, upon the recommendation of the Department, to make exceptions in the application of these indicative grade point averages.

Questionnaire for Students with Disabilities

If you have a disability, this form is an opportunity to let the University have a better understanding of what help you may need so that we can provide appropriate assistance to facilitate your learning here.

The information collected in this form will be used by different facility centres and departments of the University for offering of assistance to disabled students and for statistical purpose. The Academic Regulations and Records Office will coordinate the collection of such information and make appropriate referrals to the teaching department, and other service providers such as the Library and Student Development Services. All information collected will be kept confidential and used on a need-to-know basis. Whilst there are limits to the level and amount of services which can be provided, individual departments may contact you further to discuss the services and assistance they can offer.

After completing the form, please return it to the Academic Regulations and Records Office Service Centre. Thank you for your co-operation.

Appendix C — Terms of Reference and Constitution of Assessment Panel

Terms of Reference
1. To maintain the academic standards of assessment in courses for which they are responsible.

2. To determine the final grades for students in courses and report them to ARRO and SGS.

3. To decide what action to take as a result of a substantiated claim for mitigation notified to them, any changes made by the Course Leader on the examination questions during an examination and/or errors found on the examination questions.

4. To ensure the grading of each course is fair and transparent and does not discriminate according to gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, religion or belief, age, social origin or disability.

5. To ensure grade descriptors are applied consistently.

6. To consider the implications of any variation of grades in the courses under consideration and the implications of variations between the grades on courses currently under consideration and grades on those courses in previous years.

7. To award ‘I’ or ‘X’ grade to students or adjust the grade awarded, where mitigation circumstances have been established.

8. To ensure the discussions at the Assessment Panel are confidential.

9. To ensure meetings be held prior to the release of grades to students in accordance with schedule announced by ARRO or SGS.

Constitution

Chair
   Head of Department or nominee (in the absence of the Head)

Members
   Programme Leader for the course being considered
   Course Leader for the course being considered#

Optional members
   External Academic Advisor of the programme or the course
   Authorised representatives of relevant professional bodies where a programme is required for, or leads to, professional accreditation

Secretary
   Head’s nominee

Where a course leader is excused attendance at the Assessment Panel, the associate course leader or the designated members of the academic staff as the case may be should attend the Assessment Panel.
Appendix D – Terms of Reference and Constitution of Examination Board

Terms of Reference

1. To classify awards with regard to students’ Cumulative Grade Point Average (“CGPA”) by taking account of the guidelines for decisions on academic awards contained in the University Assessment Policy and Principles for Taught Programmes.

2. To ensure that academic awards accurately reflect students’ achievement of the intended learning outcomes.

3. To report to the College/School Board in the event of any anomaly or inconsistency in the award classification decisions.

Programmes

Types of Programmes
The University’s programmes range from associate degree to doctoral level studies in a wide variety of disciplines leading to the following awards: Associate Degree, Bachelor’s Degree, Postgraduate Certificate, Postgraduate Diploma, Juris Doctor, Master’s Degree, Master of Philosophy, Professional Doctorates and Doctor of Philosophy.

The College of Business, College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, College of Science and Engineering, School of Creative Media and School of Law, offer bachelor’s degree and postgraduate studies while the School of Energy and Environment currently only offers postgraduate degree studies. The School of Creative Media, Division of Building Science and Technology and the Community College of City University offer associate degree programmes.

Information of programme requirements and details are available at the Programmes and Courses website.

Programmes under the Credit Unit Structure
Under the credit unit system, students must earn the minimum number of credit units for the award being sought and must take designated courses to meet the core requirements of their programme. In addition, all undergraduate students must meet certain University requirements to earn their award, including: a language requirement; a requirement to take General Education courses; and a Chinese Civilisation requirement. The academic regulations for University awards are set out in more detail in the section “Regulations” of the University Calendar.
The Structure of University Academic Programmes

1. The academic curriculum of the University is organized into Programmes. Each Programme leads to a named award of the University. Students are admitted to a Programme and remain enrolled on this Programme unless they are permitted to change their enrolment. The programme structure presented in this document refers to the 3-year bachelor’s degree curriculum, associate degree and taught postgraduate programmes.

Credit Units

2. Programmes are organized on the basis of credit units defined in terms of student work, with one credit unit being earned for about forty-to-fifty hours of student work. In most cases, this notional student work input can be related to contact hours. The “rules of thumb” approved by Senate are that one lecture hour, or one tutorial hour per week for a Semester requires student work sufficient to earn one credit unit; and one laboratory hour per week for a Semester requires student work sufficient to earn one-half a credit unit. It is understood that Programme Committees may wish to deviate from these rules of thumb, where they do not reflect the actual circumstances of the Programme.

Number of Credit Units for University Awards

3. Senate has established a minimum number of credit units that students are required to earn for each award. These minimums are as follows:

- Bachelor’s Degree: 90 credit units
- Associate Degree: 66 credit units
- Master’s Degree: 30 credit units
- Postgraduate Diploma: 24 credit units
- Postgraduate Certificate: 12 credit units

4. No maximum for credit units required has been set, but Programme designers should be aware that full-time students are expected to carry no more than a maximum credit unit load per Semester of eighteen units.

Courses

5. The units of instruction at the University and the component parts of Programmes are “courses”. Courses must be designed to earn whole credit units. To facilitate scheduling and therefore flexibility for students, departments are urged as far as possible to offer courses that earn multiples of three credit units.

6. Each course must be assigned a “level” to indicate the degree of academic difficulty associated with the course. Unless explicit approval is given, students may not meet programme requirements by studying courses at a level different than their programme level (i.e. P, B, or A). The levels approved by Senate are as follows:
7. Equivalent courses may be defined for programmes where there is sufficient overlap in content that students may use any equivalent course to meet programme requirements, recover a failure, or improve a course grade. Where necessary, substitute courses may be assigned to enable students to complete programme requirements.

8. Not all courses are designed for specific Programmes and may be suitable for students irrespective of the Programmes on which they are registered.

9. Courses should be designed so that assessment can be completed in the Semester in which the course is completed. Formal written examinations should have a duration of 1, 1.5, 2, 2.5, or 3 hours.

Structure of Programmes

10. The basic building blocks of Programme design are:

- Required Courses: Courses that students must pass to earn the award.
- Programme Electives: Courses “elected” by students from defined sets of courses prescribed for the Programme.
- Free Electives: Courses chosen by students from any available course, not specifically excluded by the Programme and for which they have the prerequisites.

11. Vertical structure can be introduced into a Programme by the use of prerequisites, or precursors. Prerequisites are requirements that must be fulfilled before a student is able to register in a particular course. Note that this might include educational or other achievements gained before entry to the University, e.g. a particular A level, or relevant work experience. Precursors to courses are not requirements, but students are advised to complete precursors before taking such courses.

12. While setting prerequisites will be necessary in some cases, once established they make it more difficult for students to progress through their studies. Prerequisites should therefore be used with discretion.

Programmes Leading to Bachelor’s Degrees and Associate Degrees

13. Programmes leading to Bachelor’s Degrees and Associate Degrees must include:

13.1 A structured, integrated core — The structured core for Bachelor’s Degrees must comprise at least sixty credit units, and for Associate Degree(s) at least forty-eight credit units. The core element of the Programme is normally based on a discipline, or professional area of specialization. The core provides for a planned, objective-oriented educational experience that requires students to progress from introductory to advanced material and to gain an in-depth appreciation of their specialist area, or areas.

13.2 Opportunities for studies “out-of-discipline” — Undergraduate Programmes must be designed to permit students to study courses outside their area of specialism. Programmes leading to Bachelor’s Degrees must include at least nine credit units earned “out-of-discipline”. Programmes leading to Associate Degrees must include at least six credit units earned out-of-discipline. With the discontinuation of all out-of-discipline courses from Semester A 2011/12, students are required to take General Education courses from the 3 distributional areas, namely, ‘Arts and Humanities’, ‘Study of Societies, Social and Business Organisations’ and ‘Science and Technology’ to fulfil the out-of-discipline requirement leading to the award of the degree.

13.3 University Language Requirements — Senate requires that all Undergraduate Programmes include six credit units earned in fulfillment of the University language requirement. The language requirements must be met either through studies to meet the University English attainment requirement, or through study of language courses approved by Senate to meet the requirement.

13.4 Chinese Civilization Requirement — All Bachelor’s Degree Programmes must include six credit units earned in courses in Chinese Civilization. [New students admitted from 2011/12 to the 3-year degree curriculum are required to take only a 3-credit-unit course GE1501 Chinese Civilization — History and Philosophy to fulfil the Chinese Civilization Requirement.]

14. Exemption from the University Course Requirements — College/School Boards may at their discretion exempt students in part-time, evening programmes from the University’s language, Chinese Civilization and out-of-discipline requirements.

15. College/School Requirement — Requirements may be established by College/School Boards for the awards offered under the Board. Programme designers must incorporate these requirements in Programmes.

16. Free Electives — Senate encourages Programme designers to allow students sufficient room in their studies for courses freely chosen from those on offer in the University. Opportunities to develop one’s own interests and talents should be an integral part of any education.

17. Minors — Programmes may allow students to select minors as part of their programme of study. Minors comprise a structured group of courses totalling at least 15 credit units, allowing for significant exposure to a subject area or topic of professional interest. Minors will be noted on student transcripts.

College of Business

Dean: Chair Professor Wei, Kwok-kee
BSc Nan., PhD York, FAIS, SMIEEE

The College of Business aims to be a globally-oriented business school at the forefront of business ideas and knowledge: a key business education hub — in China for the world. Our mission is to consolidate our position as a centre of academic and professional excellence. We aim to:

• Advance the frontiers of business knowledge.
• Educate our future business leaders with a global orientation.
• Produce innovative and relevant research that enriches the understanding and practice of business.
• Develop business leaders with a broad understanding of the China marketplaces.
• Contribute to the welfare of our faculty members and staff, students, alumni, university, business partners, nation, and the world at large

The College is committed to providing quality business education for students, producing quality applied research with impact, promoting quality academic culture to help staff members excel, and pursuing pro-actively strategic linkages with academic and business organisations in Hong Kong, the mainland and overseas. The College consists of the Departments of Accountancy, Economics and Finance, Information Systems, Management, Management Sciences and Marketing, each contributing to the teaching of the Bachelor of Business Administration (Honours) programmes (BBA), as well as the Master of Business Administration (MBA), Executive Master of Business Administration (EMBA), Executive Master of Business Administration (International) (IEMBA), the Doctor of Business Administration (DBA), and the Doctor of Business Administration (International) (IDBA) programmes offered at the College level. The College has more than 200 academic staff and eminent scholars recruited from around the world. This diversity ensures students have a global vision of the business environment. Our graduates are well received by employers in the business community and have become a valuable pool of human resources in Hong Kong.

The College of Business has achieved triple accreditations by the premier accrediting agencies for business schools globally, including: AACSB International (The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business), EQUIS (European Quality Improvement System from European Foundation for Management Development), and AMBA (The Association of MBAs). These achievements place us on a par with the leading business schools in different parts of the world that meet quality standards pertinent to business education.
The BBA programme admits students from a variety of backgrounds. It is designed to present an overall view of management while at the same time provide students with the necessary skills in a specialisation so that they can acquire and succeed in a responsible position upon graduation.

At the postgraduate level, the College offers 16 master’s degree and one postgraduate certificate programmes tailor-made to suit the specific needs of different professions. In addition to the more traditional research degrees leading to the awards of MPhil and PhD, the College also offers a Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) programme. This professional doctorate programme aims at nurturing a new generation of top-level business scholar-practitioners who can apply advanced research techniques in a scholarly manner to address strategic business problems.

The College excels in selected areas of applied research which are of high international standard. Some of our work has made significant and timely impact on Hong Kong businesses. The research strengths of the College are well aligned with our teaching programmes.

The College emphasises the development of professional competencies and skills in the context of globalisation and whole personal development. We offer high value-added educational programmes, providing ample opportunities for students to participate in international exchange with renowned business schools around the world.
Department of Accountancy

Head: Chair Professor Kim, Jeong Bon
BBA MBA Seoul, PhD Temple

Since its establishment in 1984, the Department has been the leading provider of accounting education to Hong Kong, mainland China and the Asia-Pacific region. The Department offers both undergraduate and graduate students with a broad education as well as an intensive study within the subject areas such as financial reporting, cost and managerial accounting, international accounting, auditing, taxation, accounting information system, China accounting, and corporate governance. Various degree programs offered by the Department aim to respond to the market demand by incorporating new developments in the real world into accounting curriculum in a timely manner. The Department maintains close links with the accounting profession in HK and mainland China. Special attention is given to the international/global dimension of accounting, auditing, and taxation, including the relevant issues regarding accounting practices in China, the recent developments related to International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), and the accounting implications of corporate governance and other regulatory reforms in emerging markets, including mainland China. Many graduates from our accounting programs play a leading role in “Big Four” public accounting firms, financial institutions, international and local firms, and others.
Department of Economics and Finance

Acting Head: Professor Cheung, Yin-wong
BScSc HKU, MA Essex, PhD Penn.

The Department of Economics and Finance provides solid training in both the theory and application of economics and finance. The Department aims to train graduates with cutting-edge knowledge in modern economics and finance and to provide Hong Kong with the young financial executives, economists, and business analysts it needs. The mission of the Department is to be a centre of excellence in research and teaching, using economics and finance for business as well as public sector decision-making in Hong Kong, the mainland, and other Asia-Pacific economies.

The Department offers three undergraduate programmes in Business Economics, Finance, and Quantitative Finance and Risk Management; and four postgraduate programmes in Applied Economics, Finance, Financial Services, and Financial Engineering. In addition, the Department offers two research degree programmes: MPhil and PhD in Economics and Finance.
Department of Information Systems

Head: Chair Professor Zhao, J Leon
    MSc UC Davis, MSc PhD UC Berkeley

The Department of Information Systems provides quality education and conducts innovative applied research to meet market needs. It offers a comprehensive range of degree programmes from Bachelor’s level to PhD level in the areas of information systems, global business systems management, e-Commerce / e-Business, and knowledge management. A quality mechanism is embedded in the Department to encourage close collaboration with local industry and to ensure the programmes and courses continue to meet the dynamic requirements of local business, industry and society. The Department is a pioneer in teaching innovations and is well-resourced with state-of-the-art information systems laboratories. Its staff members have won 11 teaching excellence awards from the University since 1995.

Being recognised globally as one of the best information systems departments in the world, its staff members have diversified research interests in the areas of e-Logistics, wireless and mobile commerce, e-Business and e-Government, knowledge and innovation management, and information systems security and auditing. The Department also has expertise in the development, application and management of information systems with particular emphasis on finance, tourism, retailing / trading and research management.
Department of Management

Head: Chair Professor Leung, Kwok
BSc CUHK, MA PhD Ill.

The Department of Management seeks to offer innovative applied research and management education programmes that develop graduates with professional knowledge and skills as well as an international perspective to help them become successful managers and responsible citizens.

The Department of Management takes quality applied research, teaching and community services seriously, and strives for the design and delivery of excellent programmes and services, as well as their continuous improvement. The Department is proactive and innovative in building a community atmosphere, and in responding to the changing needs of students, businesses and other stakeholders.
Department of Management Sciences

Head: Professor Yan Houmin
BSc MSc Tsinghua, PhD Tor.

We are in an era where organizations across the world are functioning in an environment filled with dynamism and constant advancements in products, services and technologies. Such an atmosphere demands organizations to make adjustments, and carry out continuous development of innovative skills and information technology skills. In order to compete successfully, there is a growing need for the new generation of managers to possess strong analytical skills to solve complex business problems.

As a Management Science Department, our strength lies in application of scientific methods to management practices. To meet the demand of modern quantitative analysis, we are putting a lot of emphasis on teaching proven solutions to our students and also collaborating with industry to carry out applied innovative strategic research.

The City University’s Department of Management Sciences not only trains students to be competent in technology and analytical problem solving but also educates them to be competent professionals with good work ethics, and be responsible citizens of the society. Today, our department is one of the largest and strongest departments in this discipline in the Asia-Pacific region.
Department of Marketing

Head: Professor Su, Chenting
BS Jiangxi Normal, MA Research Inst. of Bus., PhD Alberta, PhD Virginia Poly. Inst. & Sate U.

The Department offers Marketing and China Business majors under the BBA programme. The goal of these majors is to develop young men and women to be marketing and China business professionals to help firms excel in the dynamic Asia-Pacific region in a global context. Students proceed through core courses, minor courses and electives sequentially till they acquire the necessary concepts and skills for their career. The majors emphasise both breath (regional and global knowledge, language proficiency, communication skills, and creative thinking) and depth (problem-solving capability, subject area knowledge, and effective decision tools).

Students are provided with an all-round education through seminars, indigenous cases, contemporary projects, and professional talks.

College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences

Acting Dean: Chair Professor Bolton, Kingsley

BA Kent, MSc Edin, PhD R’dg

Hong Kong, China, and the Region are facing challenging and exciting changes, and at the same time new global responsibilities. The liberal arts and social sciences will be crucial to the development of the local community’s and indeed the nation’s ability to tackle these twenty-first century problems. The College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences (CLASS) of City University of Hong Kong is in the vanguard of the intellectual response to these challenges.

The mission of CLASS is to ensure the provision of quality courses for students across a range of subject areas in the liberal arts and social sciences. Equally important within the framework of the new Hong Kong four-year undergraduate curriculum is the College’s ability to offer a range of stimulating and mind-broadening courses to the entire university’s student body. The College’s ambition to excel in teaching is matched by its commitment to outstanding research output at the PhD, post-doctoral and senior scholar levels. In the QS World University Rankings, the College ranked in the top 100 in Linguistics, English, Politics and International Studies, and Sociology.

CLASS has six departments: Applied Social Studies; Asian and International Studies; Chinese, Translation and Linguistics; English; Media and Communication; and Public and Social Administration. The six departments together offer a wide range of programmes at undergraduate and postgraduate levels. The undergraduate and post-graduate education and training in the liberal arts and social sciences provided by the College fosters well-rounded, flexible individuals equipped with the capabilities necessary to their future lives and careers. The College is developing a suite of professional masters degrees in collaboration with overseas institutions. In addition, the College also offers minors in various subject areas as well as Gateway Education courses which augment and round out the specialized training students receive in their majors. The main skill to impart to the students is critical thinking, which is essential to their own future and to that of the community as a whole. Critical thought similarly drives the research culture that permeates the College. Indeed, the top-quality research produced by CLASS faculty members underlies the College’s commitment to innovative and internationally recognized teaching.

CLASS gives students an international experience through exposure to the world’s major languages and cultures, through study-abroad programmes, and via the global character of its students and staff. The College provides opportunities for rich out-of-classroom learning experiences aimed at nurturing all-round development and lifelong learning skills. These include Study Tours, Immersion Schemes, Overseas Summer Schools and Student Exchange, in which students may explore different cultures, develop communication skills, and broaden their horizons.

The College coordinated the inauguration of the Hong Kong Advanced Institute for Cross-Disciplinary Studies, the first trans-disciplinary research institute in Hong Kong, to promote cross-disciplinary research based on society’s problems. The College is now working closely with the Advanced Institute to promote inter-departmental, inter-disciplinary and international research and teaching.
Department of Applied Social Studies

Head: Professor Kwan, Alex Yui-huen
   MA N. Dakota, MSW Br. Col., PhD Louisiana State
   Cert(Environmental Ed.) Wash., Cert(Gerontology) Flor. State
   Cert(SWK Faculty Dev.) UCLA, RSW (HK)

The strength of the Department lies in the diversity of its staff, who are criminologists, sociologists, psychologists, counsellors, social work educators and practitioners. The Department offers a broad range of social science programmes in professional and applied fields at both the undergraduate and postgraduate levels.

The Department offers four full-time BSocSc (Hons) programmes in Applied Sociology, Criminology, Psychology, and Social Work. It also offers a part-time BA (Hons) programme in Social Work with Minor in Counselling. The BSocSc (Hons) Criminology and the BA (Hons) programme are designed for associate degree/diploma holders.

Five part-time postgraduate programmes are provided by the Department. They are MSocSc in Applied Psychology, MSocSc in Applied Sociology, MSocSc in Counselling, MSocSc in Psychology of Education, and MSocSc in Social Work.

The MSocSc in Applied Psychology provides graduate students with a comprehensive and in-depth education in Psychology. Graduates of this programme are eligible to apply for graduate membership of the British Psychological Society and the Hong Kong Psychological Society. The other four MSocSc programmes address community needs for enhancing knowledge and skills in the workplace and strong demand for professional training.

The Department is also entrusted with teaching a variety of minor programmes, such as applied sociology, counselling and psychology. It also offers a number of courses in General Education and social sciences to students throughout the University with the objective of broadening the curriculum of students under the credit-unit system.
Department of Asian and International Studies

 Acting Head: Professor CASE, William PhD Texas

The Department of Asian and International Studies (AIS) offers four degree programmes — the Bachelors degree in Asian Studies and a Bachelors degree in International Studies as well as a Masters degree in Development Studies and a Masters degree in Asian and International Studies. The Department also offers research degree of Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) on leading social, cultural, and political issues in Hong Kong, China, the Asian regions and around the world.

Teaching and research in the Department include studies of globalization, social and political trends, and the impacts of various types of economic development. Scholars in the Department study problems of democratization, political development, poverty, gender, environment, religion, ethnicity, culture, and international relations. The core disciplines of the Department are political science, sociology, and anthropology.

AIS scholars also manage the University’s Southeast Asia Research Centre (SEARC), which has established an international reputation for research on contemporary Southeast Asia.

Departmental scholars regularly publish their research in leading journals and with major commercial and academic presses. The Department combines a deep commitment to research with a dedication to high-quality teaching.
Department of Chinese, Translation and Linguistics

Acting Head: Dr Sin King-kui
   BA MA CUHK, PhD S. Ill.

The Department of Chinese, Translation & Linguistics offers programmes of study at both the undergraduate and postgraduate levels designed to address the growing needs of Hong Kong and other Chinese communities for language professionals well versed in areas such as Chinese, translation and interpretation, comparative cultural studies, linguistics and language technology, cultural and heritage management.

At the undergraduate level, our programmes include B.A. (Hons) in Chinese, B.A. (Hons) in Linguistics and Language Technology, B.A. (Hons) in Translation and Interpretation, B.A. (Hons) in Cultural and Heritage Management, and a non-Government funded B.A. Honours programme in Language Studies (with specialization in Chinese, Linguistics and Language Technology, Translation and Interpretation, Japanese or Korean). In addition, the Department also offers minors in Chinese for Professional Purposes, Japanese Studies, Korean Studies, Language Technology, Linguistics, Modern and Contemporary Chinese Literature, and Translation.

At the postgraduate level, the Department offers two non-Government funded M.A. programmes: M.A. in Language Studies (with specialization in Language and Law, Linguistics, Translation and Interpretation, or Translation with Language Information Technology) and M.A. in Chinese (with specialization in Chinese Language and Literature, Chinese for Professional Purposes, or Chinese for Educational Purposes). To motivate and support our students’ enthusiasm for learning, scholarships are offered to those achieving excellent academic performance.

Apart from the taught programmes mentioned above, the Department also offers research degree studies toward M.Phil. and Ph.D. degrees in the core areas of the Department.

The Department encourages and promotes research in such areas as linguistics and language technology, the study of Chinese language and literature, and translation and cross-cultural studies. Research emphases in the Department include translation (machine and human), cultural and heritage management, corpus linguistics, language and law, computer assisted language learning, phonetics, comparative literature, terminology and scholarship in Chinese and other Asian languages. The Department also maintains links with The Halliday Centre for Intelligent Applications of Language Studies (HCLS).

The Research Laboratory for Phonetics and Cognitive Studies is one of the best equipped phonetics laboratories in the region, certainly the best in Hong Kong. It has all the basic research tools for conducting speech analysis and for carrying out research in various aspects of phonetics: acoustical, articulatory, perceptual, and physiological. The lab is committed to carrying out high quality research in the area of general phonetics, including basic research into the acoustical, articulatory, perceptual, physiological, and linguistic aspects of major Chinese dialects, including Cantonese and Beijing Mandarin. The lab provides phonetic data essential to the work of speech engineers, speech therapists, and psychologists.
The Research Laboratory for Phonetics and Cognitive Studies is also equipped with state-of-art research facilities (e.g., SR Research EyeLink 1000 system for recording eye-movement data and an EGI 128 Channel Geodesic System 300 for recording brainwave data) for carrying out cognitive/neurocognitive research in various aspects of language-related human cognitive capabilities (i.e., language acquisition, adult language learning, neurolinguistics, language comprehension and language production, etc.).
Department of English

Head: Chair Professor Bolton, Kingsley
   BA Kent, MSc Edin., PhD R’dg

The Department of English of City University of Hong Kong offers a wide range of programmes and courses in English studies, including English literature and linguistics, English for the business and corporate world, English for the creative professions, English language education, and English for specific purposes.

The Department has an international faculty with teachers from Asia, Britain, Europe, Hong Kong, New Zealand, mainland China, and the US. It has an outstanding research and publications record and is a leading centre for English studies in Asia. Courses in our Department are designed to be challenging and intellectually stimulating, and English studies at City University connects to numerous other academic fields. Undergraduate courses in English studies may be combined with a range of other subjects, including business studies, European languages, linguistics, media studies, and many other programmes across the University.

At the undergraduate level, the Department offers a BA (Hons) in English Studies with two streams: English for Professional Communication, and English for the Creative Professions, as well as a BA (Hons) in English for the Professions. At the postgraduate level, the Department currently offers two MA degree programmes. The first is the MA in English Studies, with one stream in Teaching English as a Second Language, a second in English for Specific Purposes, and a third stream in Literary and Cultural Studies. The second programme is a Master of Fine Arts (MFA) in Creative Writing, which has attracted a large number of international students. The Department has an active research agenda and offers a PhD programme with particular strengths in the areas of applied linguistics, discourse studies, professional communication studies, world Englishes, Asian literature in English, and world Anglophone literature.
Department of Media and Communication

Head: Chair Professor Lee, Chin-Chuan
       BA Nat’l Chengchi, MA Hawaii, PhD Mich.

Housed in the landmark Shaw Creative Media Centre, the Department offers innovative academic programs that emphasize media convergence. Unlike traditional curricula that segregate different modes of mass communication, we aim to train professional communicators capable of working in an environment of media convergence and information integration—an environment that spans across journalism, broadcasting and TV, advertising and public relations, as well as new media. To that end, we emphasize the integral infusion of new technologies, media skills, communication theories, and creativity in our education.

The Department supports its teaching and research activities are supported with a state-of-the-art integrated and inter-compatible digital multimedia platform. It has invested more than $30 million into infrastructural facilities that range from digital TV shooting/editing studios, 3-D Virtual TV / audio recording/ advertising shooting/designing studios, to new media and eye tracking labs.

We ranked No.1 in the field of communication/media research in the last Research Assessment Exercise conducted by the Research Grants Committee of Hong Kong. The Centre for Communication Research galvanizes faculty research across disciplines. Most faculty members have extensive industry experience, and some are continuously active in professional activities.

We offer the following programs:
• BA (Hons) in Media and Communication
• BA (Hons) in Integrated Strategic Communication
• MA in Communication and New Media
• MA in Integrated Marketing Communication
• MPhil
• PhD

In addition, the Department offers BA (Hons) in Digital Media Broadcasting with the School of Creative Media.
Department of Public and Social Administration

Acting Head: Professor Wong, Linda Yeuk-lin
BSocSc HKU, MA Brun., PhD Lond., MHKSWA, MHKPA

The Department is responding to a growing demand for administrators who combine generalist skills with knowledge about specialist areas, and who can work competently across a wide range of middle management positions in public, private and non-profit sector organisations. In addition, the Department provides opportunities for middle and senior managers to develop professionally in order to better meet the demands of the twenty-first century’s rapidly evolving political, economic and social environment. The Department’s programmes emphasise personal capacity building for professional management, with particular attention to developing skills in critical analysis.

The Department’s applied research focus includes comparative studies in government, analysis of public policy and public management, and collaborative projects with community organisations. The Department has considerable expertise in Hong Kong, the Mainland and the Asia-Pacific region. An increasing thrust is the independent and collaborative research work focused on Greater China.
College of Science and Engineering

Dean: Professor Lu, Jian
PhD UTC, Habilitation Paris VI, FSEM

Established in 1990, the College of Science and Engineering (CSE) has become renowned for setting a strong pace for excellence in research and teaching, while simultaneously maintaining important and mutually beneficial links with various sectors throughout Asia-Pacific. The College strives to not only provide excellent higher education opportunities, but also aspires to nurture and develop individual talent using an appropriate and applicable knowledge base that is always in touch with and fully supports ongoing social changes and economic advances.

The College benefits from an exceptional combination of integrated science and engineering facilities that enables it to bring innovative skills to teaching, learning and research. Through the cooperation of the various science and engineering units, the CSE achieves and maintains an interdisciplinary world that facilitates a high-standard learning environment.

The College continues to play an important role in helping the University maintain its prominent position in world standings by keeping research at the forefront of its approach to teaching and learning. This approach has already brought about some quite remarkable achievements: made evident by the establishment of two State Key Laboratories — specialising in the fields of millimeter waves and marine pollution, two joint laboratories with the Chinese Academy of Sciences and ten research centres. The College is proud of the quality of its faculty, featuring local and overseas professors from all parts of the world. These professors are dedicated to moulding a bright future for their students.

On the teaching front, the College strives to instill in its students the 4 Is: an International outlook; an Interdisciplinary background; an Innovative approach, and Interpersonal skills. Our endeavours to realize the 4 Is are exemplified in the following:

• highly active collaboration among the nine science and engineering academic units;
• meaningful research opportunities for undergraduate students;
• well-established placement schemes carefully aligned with students’ major studies; and
• worldwide academic partnerships and student exchange programmes.

Drawing on these pillars of strength, the College will continue to nurture research excellence, and to provide students with a solid foundation for their future success by cultivating their talents to the full.
Department of Biology and Chemistry

Head: Chair Professor Horváth, István Tamás
    DSc Hung Acad Sci, PhD U Pannonia

The Department offers studies and research in fundamental and applied aspects of life, molecular and environmental sciences. The study programmes are designed to understand important scientific issues, current technologies, and future challenges in light of local, regional, and global needs by using outcome based teaching and learning frameworks. An interdisciplinary approach is adopted and emphasis is placed on the integration of theory with practical classes via hands-on-experience. The teaching and research laboratories provide a stimulating environment to do experimental work utilizing state of the art equipments and instruments. Relevant industrial experience in local and international companies and research institutions is included as appropriate. Overseas field trips and exchange studies complement the core programmes. Students are also encouraged to attend departmental seminars by well known visiting scholars.

Judged by the latest Research Assessment Exercise conducted by the University Grants Committee of Hong Kong, the Department is top of the leagues in biological and chemical research in Hong Kong. Several core groups of research have attained international recognition. The Green Chemistry group has attracted Central Allocation funding and private donations. The environmental biology and chemistry group has been leading other sister institutions in establishing the Centre for Marine Environmental Research and Innovative Technology (MERIT), and one of the eight “Areas of Excellence” in Hong Kong (2004–2012). The Department supports wholeheartedly the newly established State Key Laboratory in Marine Pollution.

Staff members of the Department actively contribute to the community through consultancy work for a variety of professional services or serving as members on government and non-profit organizations locally and regionally.

The Department strives to further excel in research and teaching through the unique integration of biology, chemistry and environmental science.
Department of Civil and Architectural Engineering

Head: Chair Professor Liew, Kim-meow
BSc (Civil Eng) Mich Tech, MEng PhD N.U. S’pore, CEng, FIMechE, FIES, FASME

The Department of Civil and Architectural Engineering is one of the founding departments of the City University of Hong Kong. In due recognition of the missions of the University, our programmes are designed with the aims to quest for academic vigor as well as uphold of professional competencies. Adopting an inter-disciplinary approach, our programmes are delivered by a staff team consisting of building services engineers, construction engineers, structural engineers, material technologist, environmental scientist, building and quantity surveyors, our graduates are uniquely placed to serve the construction industry and the society at large.

The last few years have evidenced significant expansion of our activities, notably the launching of Engineering Doctorate programme and Structural and Geotechnical Engineering. These efforts aim to keep abreast with the demand of the industry. Furthermore, the imminent introduction of 4-year programmes makes ways for new concepts and opportunities. Directed towards an outcome-based teaching and learning paradigm, together with the unwavering efforts in applied research, the Department pledges to keep up with its mission of `Meeting the Challenges of the Real World’ in the years ahead.
Department of Computer Science

Acting Head: Professor Wang, Lusheng
BSc MEng Shandong, MSc Regina, PhD McM.

The Department offers a wide range of taught and research degree programmes aimed to equip graduates with technical skills and professional knowledge to play leading roles in the digital revolution that is currently in progress, much of which is fueled by the advent of the Internet, web computing, and interactive multimedia technologies.

The Department is also committed to continuing education, particularly, in the application of information technology (IT) in industry and commerce. This is reflected in the postgraduate study programmes offered by the Department.

The programmes, while giving graduates a solid theoretical foundation in software design and engineering, also emphasise practical system implementation skills. This strong combination of theory and practice is clearly demonstrated in the Department’s research outputs in international journals, its software development and consultancy assignments for the local industries and the inclusion of an industrial placement year in the undergraduate programme in Computer Science.
Department of Electronic Engineering

Head: Chair Professor Man, Kim-fung
MSc PhD Cran. I.T., FIEEE

The Department offers programmes of study at both the undergraduate level and postgraduate level to address the workplace demand for professional engineers of high caliber.

At undergraduate level, programmes include Computer Engineering, Electronic and Communication Engineering and Information Engineering. At the postgraduate level, the Department offers taught master programmes in Electronic and Information Engineering, and Multimedia Information Technology, as well as research degree studies. Students may choose to take the Business Management option after enrolling in the parent taught master programmes to acquire the business managerial know-how on top of their technical fronts to take up managerial positions in their career.

The Department places great emphasis on quality and innovative teaching. A new initiative, namely Course Tutoring Scheme, has been implemented since 2010/11. Through the guidance of senior students at tutorials, students’ understanding of course contents has been enhanced and a learning ambience among peers has also been created. To nurture well-rounded graduates with real work experience and international insights, a number of co-curricular activities such as Industrial Placement Scheme, Student Exchange Programme and Student Ambassador Scheme are operated in parallel to the academic programmes.

The Department possesses a team of 60 academics with strong teaching background and diversified research interests in the areas of Applied Electromagnetics, Computer Engineering, Control Systems, Networking, Optoelectronics and Solid State Devices, Power Electronics, and Wireless Communications, leading to a proven track record in knowledge transfer, research outputs, consultancy and contract research projects. Five Research Centres, namely Centre for Chaos and Complex Networks, Center for Electronic Packaging and Assemblies, Failure Analysis and Reliability Engineering, Center for Power Electronics, Information and Communication Technologies Centre, and Centre for Prognostics and System Health Management have been set up. In addition, with the support and approval from the Ministry of Science and Technology, State Key Laboratory of Millimeter Waves has been established in March 2008 which is the only Engineering State Key Laboratory in Hong Kong.

With the concerted efforts of staff and students at all levels, the Department shall continue to strive for excellence in professional education and research.
Department of Mathematics

Head: Chair Professor Zhou, Dingxuan
BSc PhD Zhejiang

The Department specialises in applied and computational mathematics. Undergraduate teaching is backed up by extensive research in a wide range of topics. This places us in close contact with many modern uses of mathematics. Our programmes are both relevant and up-to-date.

The Department is conscious of rapid developments in Hong Kong’s high technology industries and is keen to introduce programmes producing high-quality graduates in Mathematics capable of making a contribution to such industries.
Department of Mechanical and Biomedical Engineering

Head: Professor Xi Ning
MEng U. of Sci & Tech (BJ), MSc Northeastern, MSc DSc Wash. (St Louis)

We aim to provide world-class education and conduct research in the emerging fields of engineering requiring interdisciplinary approach covering subject areas that will meet the current and future needs of Hong Kong.

Manufacturing Systems Engineering (MSE) is a challenging and dynamic discipline and the MSE programme is established to fulfill the needs of engineers for knowledge-intensive and globalized manufacturing and engineering enterprises. This programme emphasizes the learning of knowledge-based manufacturing technologies, information technologies, management and systems.

Mechatronic engineering (MTE) integrates the diverse disciplines of mechanical, electronic and computer engineering with a view to design and develop high value-added consumer products with microprocessor control, and design, implement and manage industrial automation machines, systems and facilities.

Total Quality Engineering (TQE) co-hosted with SEEM Department combines chemistry, engineering, quality management and international standards into one single package that to safeguard product safety and ensure smooth export to various markets. They will meet the need for highly trained specialist to assure total assurance and control of quality, reliability, healthy, safe, and environmentally friendly products.

Bioengineering (BE) is the use of engineering’s analytical and synthetic methodologies to solve problems in life sciences. Through the fusion of engineering and life sciences, bioengineering is expected to address one of the two most emerging challenges facing us, which is human health.

Nuclear and Risk Engineering (NRE) major is a timely development to educate and train a new breed of engineers and potential managers to face the new challenges and capitalize on the opportunities in nuclear engineering, risk engineering and related areas.

To ensure that we teach from strength, we are establishing world-class research facilities with technical expertise in key research areas. We shall continue to increase the department’s intellectual capitals and academic credentials through recruiting worldwide for the best minds to join the department.
Department of Physics and Materials Science

Acting Head:  Professor Li, Robert kwok-yiu
             BA (Eng) MA PhD Dub.

The world of science and technology in the new millennium is facing scientific challenges in the areas of information technology, biotechnology, nanotechnology, energy and environmental science. In all these endeavors, materials issues are ubiquitous and the understanding of the underpinning physics is essential. In 1993, the City University of Hong Kong, recognising the importance of these frontier challenges as well as the need for a synergism between education and research encompassing both physics and materials, formed the Department of Physics and Materials Science — the first of its kind in Hong Kong. The Department’s objectives are threefold: to educate students with advanced knowledge and skills, to conduct innovative, especially applied, research and development leading to the advancement of science and technology, and to render professional services for the professional community in Hong Kong and the Pan Pearl River Delta region.

The academic staff of the Department have all earned doctoral degrees from the world’s leading academic institutions. Many acquired international reputation and substantial working experience in North America, Europe, Australia or China before joining the Department, bringing with them invaluable knowledge and skills for transfer to their students. Apart from education, the Department excels in research and collaborates with international scientific communities. Our current research areas include: applied optics, environmental physics, computational materials science, surface science and engineering, functional materials and coatings, electroceramics, metals and alloys, polymer composites, electronic materials, magnetism and spintronics, superconductivity, plasma engineering, biomaterials, optoelectronics, photonics, smart materials, instrumentation and measurements, medical radiation physics, nanoscience and technology, nanoscale devices, molecular and bio-electronics, organic light emitting devices, shape memory alloys.

The Department has well-equipped laboratories and a multimedia education facility to serve students and all research staff. It has a group of devoted teachers and researchers who welcome new challenges and are ready to bring state-of-the-art education to all students entering the undergraduate and postgraduate programmes.
Department of Systems Engineering and Engineering Management

Head: Professor Tsui Kwok-leung
BSc MPhil CUHK, PhD Wis.

The renamed SEEM replaces “Manufacturing” with “Systems” in its name. The name change enables SEEM to focus on the softer side of systems and industrial engineering. Our vision continues to be “the best to educate the best”. We aim to provide high quality undergraduate and postgraduate programmes under the umbrella of industrial engineering (IE) and engineering management (EM) and to produce graduates with up to date technical knowledge, excellent problem solving skills and leadership qualities. To meet the demands of the changing society and industries, the old MEEM pioneered Hong Kong’s postgraduate engineering management education in 1989. Today, SEEM offers a full range of IE and EM programmes:

- BEng Industrial Engineering & Engineering Management
- BEng e-Logistics and Technology Management
- BEng Total Quality Engineering (Co-host with MBE Department)
- MSc Engineering Management
- EngD (Engineering Management) and
- PhD / MPhil research degrees
Division of Building Science and Technology

Head: Dr Ho, Paul Hok-keung
MBA E Asia, MSc CPHK, PhD HK, MHKIE, MCIArb, FHKIS

The Division of Building Science and Technology offers government funded Associate Degree programmes in Architectural Studies, Building Services Engineering, Construction Engineering and Management, and Surveying (Building Surveying/Estate Surveying/Quantity Surveying).

For meeting industrial needs and articulation purposes, these programmes provide a comprehensive and well-balanced education for students through quality professionally oriented curriculum integrated with broad-based knowledge and generic, transferable skills for life-long learning. The associate degrees awarded are recognised by the relevant professional institutions, and the graduates can also pursue articulation with local and overseas universities.

The Division is supported by a team of well-qualified, multi-disciplinary academic staff with expertise in all aspects of the construction industry. The Design Studios and Computer Studios within the Division, which are equipped with state-of-the-art hardware, software and other facilities, provide a stimulating environment for maximising students’ learning.
School of Creative Media

Dean: Chair Professor Shaw, Jeffrey

Creative media encompasses a wide variety of positions in the media-related fields, including animation, multimedia design, immersive visualization, advertising, television, film, publishing, arts administration and media production and in the business and manufacturing sectors where high-end technologies are increasingly used in the production processes.

The School’s programmes have been designed for students who are interested in such areas as computer animation, film and video production, multimedia design, art directing, production management, digital media broadcast, screenwriting, directing, digital art, or in becoming a critical media scholar.

The School’s mission is to train a new generation of multimedia specialists, professionals who are not only skilled in the technology of digital media but who are also versed in the art of storytelling and who can integrate a multiplicity of media forms.

The School’s students are encouraged to develop their potential in critical thinking, innovation and the capacity to integrate technology and creativity. They are also trained to understand the business environment in which media industries operate. In addition to the mastery over the technological skills, they will be well-equipped to fill the leading positions and face challenges from the ever-changing media landscape.

Artistic awareness and creativity require intellectual curiosity, critical thinking, imagination and an appreciation of an interdisciplinary approach to all fields of media production. These themes run through all of the courses taught at the School. In selecting students, the School looks for those who are open-minded, with broad interests and a willingness to explore new fields and develop new skills. The applicant is advised to present a portfolio of creative work — of whatever kind — which can demonstrate his/her talents.
School of Energy and Environment

Dean: Chair Professor Chan, Johnny Chung-leung
BSc MPhil HK, PhD Colorado State, FHKMetSoc, FAMS

The School of Energy and Environment is the first in Hong Kong and one of the few in the region. It aspires to be one of the leading schools in the region to provide excellent professional education and develop cutting-edge research in two of the most pressing issues of today: energy and environment.

On education, the School focuses on training high-calibre undergraduate as well as postgraduate students to satisfy the ever-increasing demand for professionals in the areas of energy and environment. The School currently offers two undergraduate minors (energy technology, and atmospheric and climate science), two Gateway Education courses related to energy and climate change, a Master of Science in Energy and Environment, as well as master and doctoral research degrees. Starting in September 2012, the School will offer a four-year engineering degree in Energy Science and Engineering and co-host with the Department of Biology and Chemistry a science degree in Environmental Science and Management.

The research focus of the School is in understanding the science and developing the technologies related to renewable energies (solar, wind, marine, and biomass), energy storage, energy efficiency and conservation, biowaste utilization, waste-water treatment, indoor and outdoor air pollution, and climate change, with a dual emphasis on international excellence and local/regional relevance.

The School also places a strong emphasis on collaboration with government, companies and industries working on energy and environment technology in their development of products and services.
School of Law

Dean: Chair Professor Wang, Guiguo
LLM Col., JSD Yale

The School of Law offers quality education to undergraduate and postgraduate students. High on our agenda are three goals: being a world renowned centre for research and learning; equipping students with global knowledge, skills and perspectives; and maintaining a trusted relationship with local and international legal establishments. These goals are reflected in the composition of our faculty, the wide range of our academic programmes and enrichment activities.

Our School is staffed by scholars and practitioners from a wide range of national and cultural backgrounds, bringing with them a diversity of quality. To meet the challenges of globalization, our School has an International Advisory Board, with renowned professors from Harvard, Yale and Oxford universities and leading practitioners.

Our School maintains close links with its counterparts on the Mainland, in Europe, North America and across the Asia-Pacific region. In 2011, our School and the School of Law University of Vienna agreed to establish a dual degree programme for the LLM students of both universities.

Students of our School have many opportunities to gain a global perspective in the study of law through various activities organized by the School, such as the Global Legal Education and Awareness Project (G-LEAP), legal placements, international mooting competitions, etc.

Under G-LEAP, students follow an intensive course of studies for one month at Monash University in Australia, University College, Oxford in the UK and Columbia Law School in the United States. The Mainland legal placement enables our students to study at the Renmin University of China and have the rare experience of working at the People’s court in various provinces of the country. We also provide specialist support for students taking part in international mooting competitions.

Our mooting teams again excelled in mooting competitions in 2011. They were honored with Championship in Susan J. Ferrell Intercultural Human Rights Moot Court Competition held in the United States; the Championship in Hong Kong Regional Round of Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition; the First Runner Up in Eighth Annual William C. Vis (East) International Commercial Arbitration Moot and Regional Championship in IASLA Space Law Moot Court Competition held in Australia. The teams earned 1st place out of 26 teams at General Round of Frankfurt Investment Arbitration Moot Court in Germany, 5th place in Manfred Space Law Moot Court Competition, and 7th out of 257 teams in Eighteenth Annual Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot in Austria.

Since 2008, distinguished professors from Yale Law School, Oxford Law Faculty, and Basel University Faculty of Law started teaching our students via video-link facilities. Students can learn from and interact with these eminent scholars without leaving the campus.

Our School has concluded a tripartite arrangement with the Supreme People’s Court of China and Columbia Law School for educating Chinese judges. Every year, 30 Chinese judges are admitted to our LLM programme. During their one year study at City University Law School, our Chinese... judge students spend one month studying at Columbia Law School. In 2010, Korea University College of Law became a co-partner by hosting and organizing seminars and visits for the Chinese judge students in Korea. The purpose is for them to learn about Korean law and legal system.

In addition, we also organize a one-month advanced programme for Chinese senior judges twice a year. The presence of these Mainland judges in our School offers an exceptional and unique opportunity to our students, staff members and practitioners to better understand the Chinese legal system and its development.

Starting from 2011, our School in collaboration with the Supreme People’s Court of China and its National Judges College offers a tailor-made Doctor of Juridical Science (JSD) Programme for Chinese senior judges. The Programme will enable Chinese judges to gain a deeper understanding of international law and be exposed to wider international perspectives.
Chow Yei Ching
School of Graduate Studies

Dean: Chair Professor Raupp, Gregory B
BSc MSc Purdue, PhD Wis.

Over the years, the University has successfully offered taught postgraduate and research degree programmes in the Colleges of Business, Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, and Science and Engineering, as well as in the Schools of Creative Media, Energy and Environment, and Law. Many postgraduate programmes have been developed to meet the professional needs of Hong Kong.

To provide focus and support to the expanding postgraduate student population, the University established the School of Graduate Studies in 1994. The principal role of the School is to facilitate the educational experience of students during their course of study in the University. The School is committed to consistency of standards and academic quality throughout the University. The School received generous donation from Dr Chow Yei Ching, and was named the “Chow Yei Ching School of Graduate Studies” in 2006.

The School is headed by the Dean of Graduate Studies who is also the Chair of the Board of Graduate Studies. The Board is responsible to the Senate for the oversight of all taught postgraduate, professional doctorate and research degree programmes. The School serves to: promote postgraduate study and research opportunities offered by the University; facilitate student admissions and student financial support; monitor study and research progress, examinations and graduation; organise student forums and workshops; coordinate research conferences and seminars; and compile student statistics as well as publications relating to graduate studies.

In general, the School advises and supports Colleges/Schools and academic departments in the dissemination of “best” practices as well as the promotion of new educational initiatives. It also serves to strengthen links with other institutions in order to encourage successful academic exchanges and facilitate the recruitment of non-local students. In addition, it helps to strengthen the research culture of the University through cementing links between the taught postgraduate and research degree programmes on one hand, and between student research degree projects and research and consultancy projects of staff on the other. The School works with the CityU Postgraduate Association (CUPA), an official postgraduate student body, to assure programmes which are sensitive to student concerns.
School of Continuing and Professional Education

Director: Dr Wong, Charles Kit-hung
BSc Lond., MA Br. Col., Hon DEd De Mont., Hon DEd Edinburgh Napier

School website: http://www.scope.edu

The School of Continuing and Professional Education (SCOPE) is the extension arm of CityU serving the community. The mission of SCOPE is to provide quality continuing education for professional practice, retraining and self-development which anticipates and responds to community needs and the effects of social and technological changes.

The School provides different types of course — non-local degree programmes, continuing education diploma/certificate programmes, government initiated programmes and general courses.

Postgraduate Degree Programmes (Part-time)
The postgraduate programmes leading to non-local awards at SCOPE are academically sound and career relevant, and will definitely improve participants’ performance and presentation in the workplace, and allow them to learn with people from different backgrounds while acquiring new areas of expertise. These new skills will facilitate their career changes and deepen their knowledge in specific disciplines.

Undergraduate Degree (Top-up) Programmes (Full-time/ Part-time)
With the launch of the first top-up degree programme in 1992, SCOPE has been one of the pioneers of non-local top-up degrees in Hong Kong. The programmes have enabled members of the community to pursue further studies and to advance their careers. Six such programmes have recently been validated by Hong Kong Council for Accreditation of Academic and Vocational Qualifications which means graduates of these programmes can apply for government posts.

Progression Diploma Programmes (Day-time/ Part-time)
These progression programmes provide a route for working adults to pursue higher education through articulation to a number of non-local top-up degree programmes. Participants with school-leaving qualifications and work experience may obtain a Bachelor’s Degree through 4 years of part-time study.

Continuing Education Programmes (Part-time)
These standalone programmes lead to Continuing Education awards (Diploma and Certificate level) by CityU SCOPE. The programmes aim to broaden the students’ knowledge and provide training for career advancement in specific professionals or industries.

Government Initiated programmes
Project Yi Jin, Applied Learning and programmes offered in conjunction with Education Retraining Board are all government initiated programmes which the School takes part.
General Courses (Part-time)
SCOPE offers a wide range of general courses two times a year: Spring and Autumn. Normally there are no entrance requirements and all applications will be dealt with on a first-come, first-served basis.

In addition, SCOPE undertakes institutional work on behalf of the University by offering optional language courses in Putonghua and English for regular CityU students.
The Community College of City University (CCCU) is well recognized as a premier College in Hong Kong in the provision of quality sub-degree education, with more than 6,000 students. CCCU offers a wide range of self-financing Associate Degree programmes (CityU awards), a Pre-Associate Degree and other educational courses. In addition to the specialized knowledge and skills of a core subject area, all Associate Degree programmes at the College incorporate general education and generic skills components essential for employment, further study and personal development.

With over 200 well qualified and experienced staff, we are highly regarded for our rigorous quality assurance systems and our belief in whole person development of students. Industry partners of CCCU support the College by advising on curriculum design and development, and providing internship opportunities and hosting student projects. Well-designed programmes with rich co-curricular activities such as overseas visits, exchange programmes, and student mentoring schemes ensure a holistic education for students. Other schemes such as the Student Ambassador Scheme, External Achievement Awards and the Structured Work Experience Programme enrich student life outside the classroom and prepare them for work.

The outstanding achievements of our graduates in both further studies and careers demonstrate the success of our philosophy. High articulation rates of CCCU’s associate degree graduates, together with positive feedback from employers, showed the concrete and tangible results of CCCU’s education. They amply justify our efforts to build excellent articulation pathways to offer graduates a wide choice in further studies, and the involvement of industry in our academic programmes.
Division of Commerce

Head: Dr Fu, Peter Chi-ming
       BA(Econ) W. Ont., MBA HK, DipEd CUHK, PhD R’dg., MAIB

The Division of Commerce offers eleven full-time self-financing programmes for first year intake at the Associate Degree Level: Associate of Business Administration (Accountancy), Associate of Business Administration (China Business Management), Associate of Business Administration (with Communication Studies in English/Chinese), Associate of Business Administration (Electronic Commerce & Web Technology), Associate of Business Administration (Financial Services), Associate of Business Administration (Global Business), Associate of Business Administration (General Management), Associate of Business Administration (Global Logistics & Trade Finance), Associate of Business Administration (Hospitality Management), Associate of Business Administration (Human Resources Management), and Associate of Business Administration (Marketing).

All the programmes provide high quality education, focusing on meeting manpower needs at the junior managerial level in the areas of Accounting, Business Administration, Finance, Economics, Banking, Marketing, Business Informatics, e-Commerce, Logistics, and Management Science, but sufficiently broad to facilitate further studies in a wide variety of commerce related fields.

The Division’s Associate Degrees are valuable qualification in its own right and the majority of its graduates readily find employment upon graduation or articulate to local or overseas Programmes for completion of a first Degree.

Entry to these programmes is extremely competitive and the programmes have high recognition from professional and chartered institutions. The Division of Commerce has a projected student population of about 2,500 full-time for the academic year 2007–2008.
Division of Computer Studies

Acting Head: Dr Tse, Cyril Ning
MPhil City HK, MEd HKPU, EdD UWA (Aust.)

The Division of Computer Studies (DCO) had its new beginning in 2004 when the Community College of City University was established to offer sub-degree programmes. Elements of the programmes being offered have stood the test of time, and could be distinguished in a number of aspects from others. These include a strong professional core, a commitment to the development of application skills with a variety of choices, and a willingness to accommodate the needs of students with diversified backgrounds in science, arts and commerce.

The Division has developed a number of programmes at associate degree level aiming to integrate and link together information technology, media technology, logistics, business statistics, environment and engineering with an emphasis on the application of proven methods and techniques to business operations.

To broaden the participation of students in and their communication with the global community, the Division promotes internship, joint student projects with organisations, technical visits, and overseas exchanges. Regular seminars, talks, competitions and social gatherings are also held to enhance peer learning among students and further study opportunities.
Division of Language Studies

Head: Mr Hunter, Duncan Burns
   BA Sus., MPhil HK, DipTrad La Sorbonne Nouvelle-ESIT, PGDipLingSc Wales, DipCredit Manc. Met.

As one of the four divisions of the Community College of City University, the Division contributes the personal and intellectual development of our students and to the needs of Hong Kong and the region in the areas of applied languages for professional communication and communication design.

The Division offers a wide range of self-financing associate degree programmes, in Applied
Communication, Communication and Public Relations, Translation and Interpretation, and Bilingual Communication Studies (options in English and Chinese, Chinese and Japanese, English and Japanese, French and English, Korean and English, Korean and Chinese, and Spanish and English). All associate degrees are City University of Hong Kong awards. Partner universities in the UK, Australia, France, Korea and Japan offer favourable entry conditions to the Division’s associate degree graduates. Degree programmes at CityU, HKU, CUHK and other local tertiary institutions also offer favourable entry conditions to qualified associate degree students. The Division runs internationally recognised language tests, open to the general public, in French, Korean, Putonghua, and Spanish through the College’s Centre for Lifelong Learning. Pre-associate degree students may normally gain entry to the Division’s associate degree programmes. In addition, the division organizes the voluntary English Enhancement Initiative Scheme for CCCU students motivated to improve their English in an informal small-group setting with a native speaker. Public talks on translation topics are also organized by the Translation and Interpretation Section and the Division plans to offer public talks in Putonghua from 2011. All students are given the opportunity to participate in a range of extra-curricular activities, including competitions and overseas study tours.
Division of Social Studies

Acting Head: Dr Cheung, Siu-kau
BSocSc MSocSc MAM MEBM PhD HK, RSWHK

The Division of Social Studies aspires to produce graduates who possess both broad-based and discipline-specific knowledge in social sciences, communication proficiency, analytical and problem-solving abilities, global vision, cultural sensitivity as well as learning skills and commitment to life-long learning. It places dual emphasis upon formal curriculum and out-of-classroom activities, and adopts a teaching and learning approach that is student-directed and integrates knowing, thinking, feeling and acting.

The Division offers the following social science programmes at associate degree level.

- The Associate of Social Science provides a broad-based social science education to develop students’ intellectual abilities to appreciate human and social phenomena from a holistic perspective and to carry out self-directed enquiries into areas of interest.
- The Associate of Social Science in Applied Psychology furnishes students with the knowledge of psychological concepts and principles which can be used in a wide variety of professional and interpersonal settings.
- The Associate of Social Science in Applied Social Studies provides broad-based foundation knowledge in a wide spectrum of social science subjects, and more focused and in-depth studies in areas of Urban Studies, International Studies, and Guidance and Counselling.
- The Associate of Social Science in Customer Service Management develops students’ competence to work at supervisory and junior managerial levels in customer service in a variety of settings.
- The Associate of Social Science in Leisure and Tourism Management provides students with knowledge and skills for taking up first-line management positions in the leisure and tourism industry.
- The Associate of Social Science in Public Administration and Management equips students with knowledge and competence to work as junior level administrators and managers for the public and social sectors.
- The Associate of Social Science in Public Relations and Advertising enables students to start a career in public relations, corporate communications, advertising, media and journalism.
- The Associate of Social Science in Social Work, comprising a UGC-funded Full-time mode, a non-UGC funded Full-time mode and a Non-UGC funded Part-time mode, produces graduates qualified to register as Registered Social Workers and to work as Social Work Assistants in both government and non-government sectors.
Research Institute / Centres and State Key Laboratories
Research Institute / Centres and State Key Laboratories

The University supports the establishment of Research Institute / Centres to provide the focus for interdisciplinary research in selected areas with the capacity and potential for international competitiveness.

University Research Institute

Hong Kong Advanced Institute for Cross-Disciplinary Studies

Director: Chair Professor Lee, Gregory B

The discipline-based mode of organization is no longer the optimal way to advance and enrich research on societal and global concerns. We are witnessing a fundamental shift from researcher-driven, discipline-bound knowledge production to research that is funder- or problem-driven and highly cross-disciplinary. The Hong Kong Advanced Institute for Cross-Disciplinary Studies aims to promote and articulate this major recent tendency in academic research towards a more meaningful and integrated approach to transdisciplinarity. Collaboration with other internationally renowned institutions will lead to the development of a jointly funded and staffed Advanced Institute in Hong Kong.

The Advanced Institute strives to represent the highest research and teaching ambitions of City University of Hong Kong, sponsoring and encouraging creative and innovative research projects that weave together diverse disciplinary approaches. The physical location of the Institute in City University of Hong Kong provides a hub where scholars will bring their ideas and projects to address the challenging issues of our time and where research work and knowledge will be exchanged and disseminated through seminars, workshops and conferences, as well as being transferred to the community. In addition, a co-laboratory is being established in the University’s Shenzhen research premises so as to foster collaborative work with mainland colleagues and agencies.

Research Focus

Priority is given to dynamic approaches to the following local and global research themes:

- Risk management and its representation and communication
- Sustainable development and human impact on the environment
- Health and well-being in transcultural and transhistorical contexts
- Innovation, creativity and entrepreneurship across cultures
- Coloniality and its epistemological and societal consequences

We encourage cross-disciplinary projects which combine different themes, such as risk in the context of both human-produced and “natural” disasters from conceptual and empirical perspectives; health based risk assessment and management; environmental impact on public health; discourse and representation of migration in the context of the 21st century.
University Research Centres

Centre of Super-Diamond and Advanced Films

Director: Chair Professor Lee, Shuit-tong

The Centre’s mission is to nurture and reinforce collaborative research in the areas of nanomaterials, diamond and nanocoatings, organic light-emitting diode (OLED) and organic electronics with the aim to become an internationally recognised centre of excellence; to assist Hong Kong industries in making use of the technologies based on nanoscience and nanotechnology, diamond and superhard coatings, organic electroluminescent materials and devices, and advanced thin films; to enhance the image and reputation of the University as a university which cultivates high-quality research and technology of wide industrial applications; to promote and support collaborative research with institutions in China in the area of nanoscience and nanotechnology.

Research Focus

• Synthesis of nanoscaled materials and exploration of their novel properties and applications
• Fabrication of nanoscale electronic, optoelectronic, and bio/chemical sensing devices
• Organic electroluminescent and charge-transport materials, organic photovoltaic, organic memory, organic field-effect transistor and organic light-emitting devices
• Single crystalline and nanocrystalline diamond, cubic boron nitride films and related electronic and sensing devices
• Superhard thin films, advanced coatings and tribology
• Computational materials physics on the above topics
• Surface and interface science

Liu Bie Ju Centre for Mathematical Sciences

Director: Chair Professor Wong, Roderick Sue-cheun

The primary mission of the Liu Bie Ju Centre for Mathematical Sciences is to conduct first-class research in applied mathematics and in computational mathematics. As a leading research centre in the Asia-Pacific region, its basic objective is to strive for excellence in applied mathematical sciences.

To this end, it consistently attracts eminent visiting scientists from all over the world. It regularly organizes international mathematics conferences and workshops, weekly colloquia, and actively seeks mathematical and computational problems arising in industry and financial sectors. It also supports the publication of journal articles, books, preprint series and lecture notes series, and plays a leading role in attracting outside funding and donations for the purpose of enhancing research in applied mathematical sciences.

Research Focus

• Applied Differential Geometry
• Approximation Theory
• Asymptotics and Perturbation Methods
• Boltzmann’s Equation
The Centre’s research output in these fields includes numerous important contributions, which have been regularly published in the top-tier international journals.

Centre for Prognostics & System Health Management

Director: Chair Professor Pecht, Michael Gerard

CityU PHM Centre with current headquarters at City University of Hong Kong, is expecting to start up the Shenzhen laboratory in December 2010. The PHM Centre has been established because of growing interest in Prognostics and Health Management (PHM) implementation on the part of a large number of Chinese industries, including avionics, aerospace, public transportation system, computer, automobile, computer, telecommunication, consumer electronic product, and power companies. Prognostics is the process of predicting the future “effective reliability” of a product by assessing the extent of deviation or degradation of a product from its expected normal operating conditions. Health monitoring is the process of measuring and recording the extent of deviation of degradation from a normal operating condition.

Research Focus

- Development of a prognostics and health management laboratory where soft and intermittent failures can be generated and methods tested. This will be a unique world-class laboratory.
- Development of fault identification and prognostics (prototype software), which use a fusion of advanced symbolic-time series analysis, coupled with optimal feature selection and physics-of-failure analysis to predict system degradation, malfunctions and remaining useful life of critical electronics-rich systems, and to assist in root-cause failure analysis.
- Implementation research to address business concerns, warranty issues, and return on investment.

State Key Laboratories

The University obtained approval from the Ministry of Science & Technology of China to establish two State Key Laboratories at CityU.
State Key Laboratory of Millimeter Waves
Director: Chair Professor Luk, Kwai-man

The establishment of the State Key Laboratory of Millimeter Waves at the City University of Hong Kong was approved by the Ministry of Science and Technology of China in March 2008. It is the first laboratory of its kind in the engineering discipline in Hong Kong. Research activities in the Laboratory focus on the advancements and applications of millimeter wave and terahertz technologies. Key mission areas include antenna design, RFIC design and fast computational technique. The Laboratory works closely with her strategic partner at the Southeast University for promoting collaboration between Hong Kong and the mainland. Our long-term goal is to carry out fundamental and applied research for the advancements of communication technologies in China.

Research Focus
- Antenna
- Passive Microwave Circuits
- Active Microwave Circuits Research
- High-Speed Laser Dynamics
- Microelectromechanical Systems (MEMS) for Frequency Control
- Multi-Antenna Communication Technology
- System Integration
- Terahertz (THz) Science and Technology

State Key Laboratory in Marine Pollution
Director: Chair Professor Lam, Paul Kwan-sing

The State Key Laboratory in Marine Pollution (SKLMP) is the second state key laboratory established at City University of Hong Kong. City University is the leading institution, and the SKLMP has five local partner institutions, including The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong Baptist University and Hong Kong Polytechnic University, with the State Key Laboratory of Marine Environmental Science at Xiamen University as its Mainland partner.

SKLMP’s objective is to protect the marine environment of Hong Kong and South China by identifying major threats such as algal toxins and contaminants of emerging environmental concern, and developing tools and technologies to address and solve these problems. The laboratory previously developed novel ways of detecting these threats using chemical and biological methods (e.g. using molecular techniques to produce a fish that emits green fluorescence when it is exposed to endocrine-disrupting chemicals; using chemical sensors for detecting contaminants). The laboratory has also worked on ways of monitoring the impacts and assessing the risks of marine pollutants to environmental and human health, as well as on the control and remediation of pollutants. SKLMP has previously received funding from the Area of Excellence programme, and further funding was obtained from a consultancy project to set marine environmental criteria for the Environmental Protection Department and a consultancy project on marine surveillance for the Agriculture, Fisheries and Conservation Department.
Research themes:
- Pollution Monitoring Technology
- Marine Ecosystem
- Risk Assessment
- Pollution Control and Bioremediation

College Research Centres

Ability R&D Energy Research Centre

Director: Dr Leung, Michael Kwok-hi

Ability R&D Energy Research Centre (AERC), established under the School of Energy and Environment, aims to develop advanced technologies and innovations that increase energy efficiency and offer a clean, safe, cost-effective and sustainable energy supply to help combat critical energy related problems. Our goals are: (1) to accelerate the development of state-of-the-art energy-efficient and energy-saving technologies to help reduce our fossil fuel consumption and (2) to develop clean and renewable energy technologies as cost-competitive alternatives in order to achieve a sustainable energy supply.

Specific research areas:
- Energy efficiency
- Clean energy
- Renewable energy
- Low carbon economy
- Sustainability

Centre for Advanced Structural Materials

Director: Prof Lu, Jian

The Primary mission of the Centre for Advanced Structural Materials is to develop a research center for materials scientists, mechanics of materials researchers and design/applications engineer to advance fundamentals and technologies in advanced structural materials which will create innovative solutions for different key industrial sectors, such as biomedical, automotive, aerospace, sustainable energy.

The Centre’s objectives are to build a common platform of research to attracts members in the field of mechanics of advanced structural and functional materials; become a research center of advanced structural materials with innovation; engineering and original scientific impacts; foster technology transfer by working with national and international leading companies; train top level multi-disciplinary researchers for the region; develop high value-added products to support economic developments of Hong Kong and Pearl Delta Region.

Major Research Areas
- Prestressed engineering materials and devices
- Advanced Bulk Metallic Glasses (BMGs) and Multicomponent Metallic Alloys
- New Advanced Composites
• Radiation Damage in Reactor Materials
• Integration of advanced structural materials in product design

Centre for Applied Computing and Interactive Media
Director: Chair Professor Shaw, Jeffrey

The mission of the Centre for Applied Computing and interactive Media (ACIM) is to promote the state-of-art high-performance computing in scientific research, media technology and creative arts to enhance the university’s academic and industrial competitiveness.

The Centre encourages research synergy among different groups in the University, multidisciplinary in nature, including:

• Physical and mathematical science;
• Electrical and electronic engineering;
• Environmental and biological science;
• Materials science and engineering;
• Building engineering and structural engineering;
• Digital media and multimedia technology;
• Geographic information database for location based applications;
• Intelligent environment and wireless sensor network.

ACIM engages in the development of core competencies in the areas of computational science and engineering, visualization, media technology and creative arts.

Centre for Chaos and Complex Networks
Director: Chair Professor Chen, Guanrong

The Centre aims to promote fundamental and applied research on the emerging and cutting-edge technology of chaos control and synchronization, as well as complex dynamical networks, targeting international academic leadership and regional commercial and industrial applications. It provides a visible base for inter-institutional and inter-disciplinary cooperation, reaching out to the financial market of Hong Kong and beyond. It also plays a significant role in technological advances and transfer, as well as quality postgraduate training. It is a place for studying nonlinear science and engineering.

Research Focuses

• Chaotic dynamical systems and their control and synchronization, with emphasis on fundamental theory studies, engineering design, and practical applications
• Chaos generation via control algorithms and circuit design
• Chaos-based encryption technology for Internet and communications
• Complex dynamical networks: analysis, stability, control and applications
• Networked control and coordinated control
• Optimization and complexity
• Data traffic control over networks
• Wireless communication networks
Centre for Functional Photonics

Director: Prof Rogach, Andrey

Fundamental research in photonics is essential for the successful development of innovative and practical solutions in many areas vital to mankind such as energy, health, environmental protection, communications and data processing, to name a few. Centre for Functional Photonics (CFP) focuses on fundamental studies of light-matter interactions, as well as on design and applications of functional optical materials, with an interdisciplinary team of scientists from four CityU’s Departments (Physics and Materials; Chemistry and Biology; Electronic Engineering; Manufacturing Engineering and Engineering Management). The mission of CFP is to promote, coordinate, and bundle interdisciplinary research in the field of functional photonics at CityU, and to become a leading centre in the Asia-Pacific region in this field.

Research Focus

The CFP’s multidisciplinary activities focus on the following main materials providing new optical functions and related applications in photonics:

- Semiconductor nanocrystals and luminescent organometallic complexes for light emission, photovoltaics and bioimaging
- Metal nanostructures for plasmonics and surface enhanced Raman scattering (SERS)
- Optical metamaterials
- Materials and devices for electro- and magneto-optics
- Opto-mechanical micro-structures

Centre for Chinese and Comparative Law

Director: Dr Lin, Feng

The Centre’s goal is to broaden the horizon of human knowledge and to contribute to the betterment of society through comparative legal research. The Centre contributes to the University’s goal of excellence in research. The Centre focuses upon research on Chinese and comparative law. The Centre disseminates research results and knowledge in the HKSAR, mainland China and overseas. The Centre provides a platform for discussion and exchange of knowledge amongst a diverse group of scholars and develops links for a co-operative research culture on Chinese and comparative law.

Research Focus

- Chinese and Comparative Commercial law
- WTO-related Law
- Chinese and Comparative Constitutional and administrative law
- Chinese and Comparative Intellectual property law
- Judicial reform in mainland China from comparative perspectives
Centre for Communication Research
Director: Chair Professor Lee, Chin-chuan

The Centre aspires to be a leading research centre in the Asia-Pacific region and internationally, focusing on studies that examine the interrelationships between the media, culture and discourse. The mission of the Centre is to conduct and galvanise high quality research of societal relevance, thus contributing to public understanding about the norms and practices of professional communication.

Research Focus
- Media, social transformation and globalisation
- Social implications of new media
- Cultural meanings of media and communication
- Social and media discourses

Centre for System Informatics Engineering
Director: Prof Tsui, Kwok-leung

The objective of the centre is to create a high quality and influential research hub for developing research methodologies and implementation tools in system informatics, knowledge mining, and quality engineering to serve the industries and societies in Hong Kong, Great China, and Asia Pacific. The missions are to (i) encourage international research collaboration in theory and applications in informatics, knowledge mining, and quality engineering in Asia Pacific; (ii) bring together statisticians, mathematicians, engineers, computer scientists, and physical scientists to work on a variety of interdisciplinary research topics; and (iii) provide an excellent collaborative research platform and environment for interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary researchers from the world.

Research Focus:
- Health Informatics
  - Modeling, Simulation, and Surveillance of Infectious Diseases
  - Healthcare Operation Optimization and Control
  - Integrated Decision Support System for Health Protection
- Energy and Environmental Informatics
  - Climate and Environmental Data Mining, Modeling, and Forecasting
  - Energy System and Efficiency Optimization
- Bio-X Informatics
  - Bioinformatics and Gene Sequencing
  - Bio- and Nano- Science and Engineering

Centre for Transport, Trade and Financial Studies
Director: Professor Liu, John Jianhua

Riding on Hong Kong’s glorious tradition, CTFS will not only carry on the unique strength of Hong Kong in maritime, trade and financial services, but also create an international education forefront of transport, trade and financial studies with a focus on shipping and trade services and supply chain management. CTFS is destined to be:

• an area of excellence of CityU in transport, trade and financial studies, with a focus on sustainability and efficiency of transport, energy and technology;
• an industry-embraced research and education center in maritime and aviation services, supply chain and transport logistics, trade and business, insurance and financial services, and ocean resource logistics management;
• an elite education home for students, faculty, and industry leaders to exchange, acquire and advance their knowledge and experiences.

The theme of CTFS is identified as to become an industry-embraced international forefront of science and technology advancement and higher education in the interactive disciplines of transport, Trade and financial studies.

Governance in Asia Research Centre

Director: Chair Professor Painter, Martin John

The Centre is committed to innovative, cutting-edge research and comparative analysis of issues and dilemmas of governance in Asia. It undertakes inter-disciplinary work on public institutions, public management and public policy within the broad domains of applied social sciences and applied philosophy. The Centre’s current projects are focused on Environmental Governance in Asia; Responsible Government in Asia; and Health Policy, including bio-ethics.

The objectives of the Centre

• To investigate the ethical and cultural aspects of governance and to contribute to new paradigms and ethics of governance in Asia;
• To research institutional design and management processes, and to promote innovation, reform and management of government agencies, corporatized public bodies, and civil organizations in Asia;
• To build capacities for policy planning and policy analysis, and to enhance policy-implementation and policy evaluation in Asia, in both the public and non-profit sectors.

On-going Research Projects

• Creating the Sustainable City
• Environmental Implications of Industrialization in China 1998-2005
• Climate Policies: A Guide for Local Governments
• Politics in transitional societies: “Mega-ministry” Administrative Reform in Shunde, Guangdong Province, China
• Capacity-Building for Hong Kong-Shenzhen Collaboration in Qianhai

Guy Carpenter Asia-Pacific Climate Impact Centre

Director: Chair Professor Chan, Johnny Chung-leung

The mission of the Centre is to become a leading centre in the Asia-Pacific region in research on climate-related perils, particularly those in the region. The research of the Centre focuses on enhancing the understanding of climate-related perils occurring in the Asia-Pacific region and of catastrophic risks throughout the region, as well as making predictions of the occurrence of such perils in the region.

Current/Planned Research Activities

The following research topics are either currently being carried out or planned by members of the Centre:

- Climate of tropical cyclones in the western North Pacific Ocean, North Indian Ocean, and the southern oceans (South Indian Ocean, Australian region and Southwest Pacific Ocean) — predictions of annual activity; physical processes responsible for the variations of such activities at time scales from intraseasonal, interannual to interdecadal; and possible changes of such activities under different global warming scenarios

- Climate of summer monsoon over South China — predictions of seasonal rainfall and possible changes of rainfall amount and intensity as a result of land-use changes (such as urbanisation over the Pearl River Delta, deforestation in the Indochina Peninsula, etc) and under different global warming scenarios; physical processes responsible for the variations of rainfall and rainfall intensity at time scales from intraseasonal, interannual to interdecadal

- Climate of the winter monsoon over China — predictions of temperatures and precipitation (rainfall and snowfall), and possible changes of these parameters under different global warming scenarios; physical processes responsible for the variations of these parameters at time scales from intraseasonal, interannual to interdecadal

- Regional climate modeling — modification of regional climate models for the simulation and prediction of different climate-related perils in the Asia-Pacific region, which include tropical cyclone activity (including landfall), summer precipitation, winter temperatures and precipitation

- Remote sensing applications in studying the climate of the Asia Pacific region — satellite data analyses and ground-based measurements of concentrations of various atmospheric pollutants (including dust storms) for studying the climate of the Asia-Pacific region; simulations of the transport of such pollutants using a chemical transport model

Southeast Asia Research Centre

Director: Professor Thompson, Mark

The mission of the Southeast Asia Research Centre is to maintain its international reputation as a centre of excellence in academic and applied studies of contemporary Southeast Asia. In keeping, however, with new priorities set by City University, greater attention is now given to theoretical and cross-disciplinary analysis, through which the intention of addressing real-world challenges in national political systems, workplace inequalities, gender relations, and disaster management. SEARC thus seeks to attract competitive external grant funding, to collaborate internationally with other institutions, to conduct disciplinary-based and cross-disciplinary research in compelling academic debates in the social sciences, to generate high-quality research publications, and to reach the public through open events and media engagement.

Research Concentrations

SEARC’s research themes, designed to provide broad research directions while reflecting changes in contemporary Southeast Asia and the expertise of its new researchers, have contributed to the Centre’s revitalization. Further, in keeping with CityU’s new Strategic Plan for 2010-2015, these have been increasingly developed in cross-disciplinary ways, using the tools of political science, sociology, and anthropology. These research concentrations are as follows:

- The comparative politics of Southeast Asia: new democracies and contemporary authoritarianism
- Southeast Asia in the region: political, economic, and security dynamics
- The ‘State-society interface’: contestations and convergences over gender, values, identities, rights and resources’
- Vietnam project: transition to ‘market Leninism’

The Halliday Centre for Intelligent Applications of Language Studies
Director: Professor Webster, Jonathan James Associate Director: Professor Pan, Haihua

The Halliday Centre for Intelligent Applications of Language Studies has the unique advantage of being the only centre worldwide bearing the name of this distinguished, globally recognized scholar in linguistics, M.A.K. Halliday. The Centre is committed to doing apply-able linguistic research, including corpus linguistics, discourse studies, visual analytics for texts, language learning, linguistic studies of Chinese and other minority languages, and translation.

The Halliday Centre has established strong links with research partners in China (School of Foreign Languages, Sun Yat-sen University; School of Foreign Studies, University of Science and Technology Beijing), Korea (Research Institute for Language and Information, Korea University) and Australia (Centre for Language in Social Life, Macquarie University; Department of Linguistics, University of Sydney), and is positioned well to promote further development of linguistics regionally and internationally.

The objectives of the Centre include

- To advance our knowledge of how language works to construe our experience and enact social relationships
- To apply linguistic insight in such areas as education, and computer processing of language, i.e. practicing appliable linguistics
Applied Strategic Development Centres and Applied R & D Centres Applied Strategic Development Centres and Applied R & D Centres

Applied Strategic Development Centres
To further strengthen collaboration with industry, government and commercial sectors, the University has established applied strategic development centres. These centres are designed to promote and stimulate applied R & D initiatives at the University with the aim of developing new products, processes and services that have potential commercial applications.

Centre for Electronic Packaging and Assemblies, Failure Analysis and Reliability Engineering
Director: Chair Professor Chan, Archie Yan-cheong

Funded by the then Industry Department (currently, the Innovation and Technology Commission), the EPA Centre was established in July 1998 and acquired the status of Applied Strategic Development Centre (ASDC) in February 2000.

Objectives:
• To establish infrastructural support facilities in advanced electronic packaging technology, failure analysis and reliability engineering for the Hong Kong electronics industry.
• To provide a focal point for the latest technology in the failure analysis and reliability engineering of advanced electronic packaging, and to facilitate technology transfer to the local industry in product development and quality enhancement.
• To strengthen university-industry partnership by participating in industry-sponsored projects, with a view to nurturing areas of applied work for commercial applications and to disseminating the results of applied R & D to industry and commerce.
• To provide an effective avenue to solicit inputs from industry on midstream R & D projects germane to solving practical problems or developing new products and services.

Highlights:
• Accreditation by the Hong Kong Accreditation Service (HKAS) as an Accredited Laboratory under the Hong Kong Laboratory Accreditation Scheme (HOKLAS)
• Research, Education and Industry Collaboration between 3D Systems Packaging Research Centre (PRC) at Georgia Institute of Technology.
• Comprehensive range of sophisticated equipment worth over $20 million

Research Focus:
• 3D and nano-scale packaging, PoF modeling/simulation and finite element analysis of electronic packages, reliability studies, atomic migration studies such as electro-migration and thermo-migration on electronic interconnects, green electronics lead-free soldering materials, nano-materials / polymer composites for RF antennas and piezo-resistive polymers.
Centre for Innovative Applications of Internet and Multimedia Technologies
Director: Chair Professor Ip, Horace Ho-shing

The Centre for Innovative Applications of Internet and Multimedia Technologies (AIMtech Centre) aims to establish itself as a centre of excellence for innovative applications of multimedia information and Internet related technologies. The AIMtech Centre responds directly to the University’s call for emphasis on professional practice and applied research and to promote practical exploitation and effective deployment of technology through co-operation with industries to meet local and regional needs.

AIMtech Centre draws on the existing strength of the Department of Computer Science in the area of multimedia information processing, and analysis, interactive media and Internet computing. The core members of the AIMtech Centre, possessing an excellent record in securing external funding from government agencies and industries are recognised as experts in multimedia, computer vision, education technologies and Internet applications.

AIMtech Centre’s work focuses on the following areas:

- The identification of challenging projects of multimedia and Internet systems which will create an impact on society.
- The commercialisation and/or technology transfer of applied R & D results in these strategic areas.
- The dissemination of knowledge between academia and industry in the area of multimedia and Internet application developments.

The Centre also hosted the SUN Centre of Excellence on Pervasive Computing and a sub-centre on Internet Security and PKI Applications.

Centre for Power Electronics
Director: Professor Chung, Henry Shu-hung

The Centre for Power Electronics focuses on fundamental and applied research in power electronics.

Research Focus

- Smart grid technologies
- Application of computer intelligence in power electronics
- High voltage power conversion technologies
- Energy saving and environmentally-friendly solutions for power supply, lighting and manufacturing industries

Hong Kong Centre for Maritime and Transportation Law
Director: Dr Nase, Vernon

The Centre responds to an urgent need for a maritime and transportation law centre in Hong Kong that can meet critical requirements of industry, the practicing Bar and the region while advancing the frontiers of maritime and transportation law practice and scholarship from a local and comparative perspective. While primarily focusing on maritime law the Centre is also concerned with the law relating to other forms of transportation, such as air, road, rail and multimodal. The Centre also maintains a health interest in the law of outer space and telecommunications law. It is hoped also to engage in long term studies of transportation needs in Hong Kong and to respond to industry needs. The development of the Centre continues to take place with strong industry involvement and support.

Research Focus
- Maritime, Shipping and Admiralty law;
- Aviation law;
- Road and rail law; and,
- The law of outer space and related telecommunications law.

Applied R & D Centres in Shenzhen
As the Hong Kong economy is set to achieve greater integration with that of the Pearl River Delta (PRD) region, the University has extended its research platform to the PRD through the establishment of applied R & D centres in Shenzhen. In so doing, the University aims to capitalise on the respective strengths of the PRD and Hong Kong, hoping to contribute to the economic development of both areas. The centres will tap into the talent, facilities and opportunities for commercialisation of research outputs available in the mainland and will help strengthen our collaboration with sister universities, research institutes and business enterprises there. Their overall objectives include development of advanced technologies, offering training to research staff and students, provision of consulting services and commercialisation of research results.

Biotechnology and Health Centre
Director: Chair Professor Yang, Mengsu

Biotech and Health Centre (BTC) aspires to become a leading research centre in selected areas of biotechnology in the Asia-Pacific region. BTC carries out top-class, multi-disciplinary research in the focused areas of biochip technology and nanobiotechnology in order to generate high-impact publications with international recognition, and to develop innovative technology and products for knowledge transfer in order to benefit the society and sustain long-term development and growth of the Centre.

Research Focus
- Fundamental research of intracellular and intercellular communications involving stem cells using microfluidic biochips;
- Development of microfluidic biochips for drug screening and analysis using on-chip cell-based assays;
- Functional genomics and proteomics study of the interactions between nanomaterials and biological systems particularly stem cells;
- Development of novel nanomaterials and bio-nano conjugates for signal enhancement and amplification in bioanalysis and cell imaging.
The Futian-CityU Mangrove R and D Centre (FCMC) was conceptualized in 2000 and opened in December 2003, aiming to establish a unique R&D platform within the Futian National Nature Reserve in Shenzhen for conducting applied research work related to mangrove and other coastal wetlands. FVMC has (i) a well-equipped laboratory of about 300 square meters to support pre-field preparation and post-field analytical work; (ii) a pilot-scale constructed mangrove wetland treatment system for improving the efficiency and understanding of the treatment mechanisms, as well as a demonstration site for commercialization and/or technology transfer and (iii) field experimental sites for conducting research related to ecology and physiology of mangrove wetlands, mangrove replanting technology and extraction of bioactive compounds from mangrove micro-organisms. The main focus of the Centre is to monitor and understand the environmental impact of pollution on the coastal wetlands of Hong Kong and Pearl River Delta (PRD) region, as well as research on coastal wetland restoration technology. The Centre also serves as a unique CityU facility for regional and international academics and government officials to conduct research and education work, providing scientific information for better management of the Nature Reserve and raising public awareness.

Research Focus

- Monitor organic and inorganic pollution using innovative biological and chemical technologies
- Examine fates of pollutants and tropho-dynamics along food chains
- Determine pollution impacts and toxicity on genetic, biochemical, organism and ecosystem levels
- Formulate pollution control measures and mitigation strategies for policy makers
- Develop technologies for restoration of coastal wetlands
- Provide undergraduate and postgraduate training

Future Networking Centre

Director: Professor Jia, Weijia

FNC will focus on the R&D of cross platform/networking, multimedia applications and social networking. FNC will provide a new breed of networking platform that have spawned from today’s Internet with inclusion of metropolitan 3G, WiFi, Sensing and WiMAX Internet networks to the next generation of cyber social and physical networks. To realize the goals of FNC, we are going to attain the following research focuses:

- R&D of next generation cross broadband mobile and wireless networking and systems for efficient multimedia communication, services and social network applications.
- Integration of the current networking technology for the heterogeneous modern wired and wireless networks in terms of network protocols, software and algorithms for mobile surveillance and sensor networking, both advancing hardware and software technology.
- R&D of secure VoIP and remote web-services over cross-platform networking system, including secure mobile gateway with the intrusion knowledge bases package.
- Investigation of social networking and security applications. A related challenging problem is the study of mobile market models with cooperating agents. We plan to explore several important issues, including the design issues for the network structures, the non-arbitrage property maintaining across independently run spot markets, coordination, communication complexity and incentive compatibility, as well as their effects in potentials of new market creations.

Information and Communication Technology Centre
Director: Professor Xue, Quan

The establishment of Information and Communication Technology Centre in Shenzhen was approved by the City University of Hong Kong in 2008. The Centre was awarded the project called Establishment of Shenzhen Municipality Key Laboratory of Millimeter Waves and Broadband Wireless Communication by the Science Industry Trade and Information Technology Commission of Shenzhen Municipality in 2009. Through undertaking basic researches, advance technologies can be transferred to the enterprises to implement the close relationship between research and production.

Research Focus
- Research and Design Microwave Antenna Design
- Research and Design of Microwave RF Circuits
- Research and Implementation of Wireless Communication System

Advanced Transportation Information Systems Research Centre
Director: Dr Liao, Stephen Shaoyi

The Advanced Transportation Information Systems Research Centre was established in 2011 with the vision to be one of the best Transportation Information Systems R&D centres in Asian Pacific region with a focus on Vehicle-Infrastructure Integration (“VII”) technologies. The Centre aims to research and develop the key VII technologies for Intelligent Transport Systems (“ITS”) to enable effective and efficient traffic information services, with the ultimate benefit of increasing the safety, efficiency, and convenience of the transportation systems in Hong Kong and mainland China.

The Centre is backed by CityU’s leading academic research capabilities, strong support from organizations such as Hong Kong Automotive Parts and Accessory Systems R&D Centre, Innovation and Technology Commission of Hong Kong (“ITC”) and Transport Department of Hong Kong, as well as excellent collaboration with industry partners, associations and other research centres in both Hong Kong and mainland China.

The R&D team has received six Innovation Technology Funds projects in Hong Kong with the total amount of over HK$16.5M, and, as the only R&D team in Hong Kong officially endorsed by ITC in the area of ITS, has secured ITC’s official endorsement on a five-year research project roadmap.

Key Focus:
- To research and develop the key Vehicle Infrastructure Integration technologies for Intelligent Transport Systems;
- To successful apply and receive R&D funds from both Hong Kong and mainland China;
- To commercialize the project outputs in both Hong Kong and mainland China Markets.
Academic Support
Facilities and Services
Academic Support Facilities and Services

The University provides a full range of advanced facilities and services in support of its academic activities through the academic support centres, namely, the Computing Services Centre, the Library, the Chinese Civilisation Centre, the English Language Centre and the Education Development Office.

There are also Video Laboratories which are specifically designed to meet the particular needs of the academic discipline concerned. Students can make good use of the facilities which support practical sessions and workshops that aim to enhance their professional skills.

Chinese Civilisation Centre

Director: Professor Cheng, Pei-kai

The Chinese Civilisation Centre is an independent teaching unit set up in 1998 to develop and implement Chinese civilisation courses for undergraduate students of the University. In recognition of the value of an all-round, and holistic education, the courses aim at widening the horizon of students and enhancing their cultural competence. The Chinese civilisation courses cover a wide range of topics. The teaching method combines online instruction, open lectures, art demonstrations, field trips, self exploration and guided studies. In addition, the Centre has also developed GE courses, currently offering the following ten:

1. Chinese Cultural Heritage in Modern Perspective
2. Chinese Cultural Canons and their Modern Application
3. Chinese Music Appreciation
4. The City in Chinese History and Culture
5. Chinese Art Appreciation
6. Women’s Lives in Chinese History
7. The Silk Road
8. Diseases, Culture and History: China and the World
9. Chan and Chinese Buddhism
10. History and Philosophy

As a general education foundation, the Centre aims to:

• Build a bond between student and staff to develop a more productive balance between teaching and learning;
• Encourage the students to take the initiative to continue learning about Chinese culture and become life-long learners;
• Create awareness of the impact of their cultural heritage and recreate the spiritual bond that characterizes the unity of civilisation.
English Language Centre

Head: Dr Jane Lockwood

The mission of the English Language Centre (ELC) is to provide English language support to all undergraduate students at City University. The ELC also provides support to postgraduate students and academic and administrative support as required and in collaboration with the Department of English and EDGE.

A pathway of English for Academic Purposes (EAP) and General Education English programmes will ensure that all undergraduate students will be literate in an academic context. These courses are designed to help students achieve the English Language Attainment Requirement of the university.

As well, ELC provides a comprehensive service and excellent facilities to encourage out-of-class and less formal language development. Our self-access centre (SAC) and language lounge provide students with access to a range of English language materials, including on-line resources. In the language lounge, students can watch satellite television or movies, listen to songs and music, use the language learning programmes on the computer, play English board games, read English magazines, or just chat to each other in English. The emphasis is on creating a relaxed environment for students to work in groups, some of these activities include practical language activities, which in the past have included conversation club, current affairs discussion group, drama group, film discussion group, karaoke sessions, singalong sessions, and etc. The ELC also runs Lessons on Demand which allow students to ask ELC staff to create a lesson based on their needs. For those who prefer to work alone in a quieter environment, the self-access language learning centre is equipped with a variety of computers and audio-visual equipment and well stocked with textbooks, reference books, language worksheets, CDs, videos and laser discs to provide language practice or focus specifically on language learning.

New additions to the ELC in 2011/2012 include the setting up of a Writing Development Centre and the integration of the English Language Clinic. Space and resources have been allocated internally to ensure that students have on-demand and planned extra language support to ensure they develop into excellent communicators in English.

Computing Services Centre

Acting Director: Mr Poon, Raymond Kin-chung

The Computing Services Centre (CSC) is the IT hub of the University. Its Student Terminal Area spans two Academic Buildings. In Academic Building 1 (AC1), around 700 PCs are distributed in 13 teaching studios each with a big screen projector and an audio system, and all PCs are equipped with multimedia devices as well as DVD/CD-RW drives. Similar set-up has been established in Academic Building 2 (AC2) with around 250 PCs distributed in 2 teaching studios and a large terminal room for open access. The main Computer Room at the far end of the CSC Student Terminal Area in AC1 is home to over 200 powerful central servers and over 60-Tera bytes Storage Area Network (SAN), NAS and Backup Systems. These servers serve around 20,700 PCs (including notebook computers) and workstations to support teaching, research, administrative functions and offer more than 80 software packages catering for a wide spectrum of needs of users in various disciplines. The Service Counter, besides offering immediate, full-range services to users, also administers the Student Notebook Computer Daily Loan Scheme to lend wireless notebook computers to students for on-campus use.
The CSC manages the CTNET, probably the largest and most sophisticated university campus network in Hong Kong. It consists of a multiple 10 Gigabit Ethernet backbone for data, video and voice transmission. Besides the central servers, around 43 student Local Area Networks (LANs), 72 staff LANs (mainly supported by NAS), 36,000 computer accounts, and 12,100 staff computers (including notebook computers), 8,600 student computers (including notebook computers) and 650 printers are connected to the CTNET.

In addition to the general data services/facilities such as e-learning, email, e-Portal, Internet, facility booking and library resources access etc., the CTNET also delivers video and multimedia services like video-on-demand, video conferencing, live Internet broadcast, multimedia courseware, and digital imaging archives.

The CTNET has 2 x 10Gbps Ethernet links (via a managed optical network service) to HARNET (the Hong Kong Academic and Research Network, which connects the campus networks of eight UGC funded institutions together), and shares with all HARNET members a 2.5Gbps (Sep 2011) to the Internet, a 70Mbps link to TEIN3, 2 x 1Gbps links to HKIX, and a 155Mbps link to CERNET. In addition, the CTNET also has a 150 Mbps private link to the Internet.

The CSC also provides computing training and education to staff and students by organizing staff computer courses, Student Computer Literacy Programme, CSC Forums, and publishing all kinds of online booklets, reference guides and newsletters. As for enquiry on IT, CSC Service Counter and Help Desk provide immediate and useful assistance to the whole University community.

Library

University Librarian: Professor Ching, Steve Hsianghoo

The Run Run Shaw Library provides comprehensive library and information services covering the entire range of academic disciplines in the University. It is located on Level 3 of the Academic 1.

As a key agent for education and research support in the University, the Library holds in its collection around 953,500 volumes of books, 202,100 bound serials and 55,500 pieces of media resource items. The Library also makes available to its users over 2 million e-books and some 73,370 serial titles of which about 70,650 are e-journals. Together with about 370 electronic databases, these electronic resources can be accessed on or off campus. The entire Library is connected to the campus wireless LAN. It provides more than 2,260 seats for its users and is open from 8:30 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. daily and 24 hours during revision and examination periods (Semester A & B), thus providing staff and students with better access to library materials and enabling them to pursue their studies and research in the Library.

In order to adapt to current pedagogies, cater for diverse user preferences, and prepare for the new 3-3-4 academic structure, the Library is transforming from a traditional library into a Learning Commons. The newly renovated areas, facilities and supporting infrastructure are designed to facilitate collaborative learning and provide support to high-end computer technology.
Office of Education Development and Gateway Education

Director: Professor Cheng Shuk Han

The Office of Education Development and General Education (EDGE) is an administrative unit under the Provost, with the role of promoting excellence in teaching and learning and development of General Education.

Video Laboratories

There are five video laboratories, each equipped with video cameras in the main classroom and monitors and recorder in the adjacent observation cubicle. These set-ups enable videotaping of teaching and learning, staff training or research activities for evaluation.

Three conventional classrooms in the Yellow Zone also perform similar function. They are equipped with ceiling concealed microphones, dome cameras and recorders for VCD, DV and VHS recording formats. All the equipment is controlled by a LCD touch panel which is rack-mounted in an equipment rack inside the classroom.
Student Services
Student Services

The University offers a wide range of student services and amenities and learning opportunities to ensure that students will enjoy a rich campus life, and a supportive environment for academic pursuit. The Student Development Services, Mainland and External Affairs Office, Career and Internship Office, and Student Residence Office take good care of student needs and help them in every way possible to overcome personal and study problems during their course of study at the University. The Alumni Relations Office retains our alumni in CityU family. The Students’ Union and various student societies/interest groups actively promote their respective causes, such that there are ample opportunities for student development in career, social, cultural and physical wellness areas.

Alumni Relations Office

Associate Vice-President: Ms Chan, Kathy Yin-ling

With the mission “Uniting alumni to support University development”, the Alumni Relations Office (ARO) seeks to support the University’s advancement by expanding and promoting a long-term and mutually beneficial relationship between the University and its alumni. It organizes a myriad of alumni programmes to strengthen links with alumni and mobilize various forms of alumni support for the University. Adding on its advisory role for over 30 alumni associations, the Office has set up the Secretariat for the Convocation.

Career and Internship Office

Director: Ms Kwok, Cecilia Sau-fong

The Career and Internship Office (CAIO) is dedicated to better preparing students to meet the challenges of a global workforce upon graduation. In addition to liaising with employers in providing job opportunities to graduates, the office provides consultation to students to enable them to systematically and continuously plan ahead for their professional development. Individual counselling services are also available to those students who need help in career-related areas such as resume write-up, interviewing and job search.

Aside from these core services, the office also provides a series of other services such as local and overseas internship opportunities; On-campus Service-learning Scheme, regular career workshops and seminars in employability enhancement. At the Fan Lee Foon Student Career Centre, located at the 4th floor of the Amenities Building, students can search and use materials related to career development and job information.

A virtual self-help centre is available online to students who are ready to prepare themselves to navigate the confusing labyrinth of job-hunting, job-relating, and self-development in the real world. To support students’ job search, the CAIO also operates three online job information systems, including the Joint Institutions Joy Information System (JIJIS), Job Plus, and the On-campus Service-learning Scheme (OSS).
It is the goal and mission of CAIO to perfect these services so that students whom we work with will be able to deploy fully what they have learnt in the university, to find suitable employment, and to serve the community at large.

CityU Postgraduate Association

CityU Postgraduate Association (CUPA) is an official postgraduate student body in the University, with its membership covering both research and taught postgraduate students.

CUPA serves as a communication channel between postgraduate students and the University. Its key objective is to promote a better academic environment and research culture in the University by encouraging communication and interaction among postgraduate students.

Mainland and External Affairs Office

Student and Academic Exchanges

In alignment with the University’s strategic plan, the Mainland and External Affairs Office (MEAO) is committed to the promotion of collaborations in research and teaching with prestigious academic institutions in the mainland and overseas through the development of academic and student exchange programmes.

As a result of our continuous outreach efforts, MEAO has to date facilitated 461 institutional and collegial/departmental agreements with 297 universities and research institutions worldwide, as well as 238 student exchange agreements with higher education institutions in 39 countries/regions. Joint research projects, exchanges of teaching/research staff and students, and joint organization of academic conferences are among many scholarly interactions between CityU and its partner institutions, made possible by the hard work of MEAO’s dedicated staff. With internationalization high on the University’s strategic agenda, MEAO will continue to strengthen existing institutional relationships and establish new links in order to broaden our students’ international perspectives and enrich their living and learning environment on campus.

“In addition to her outreach function, MEAO also acts as a central coordinating unit to provide support services for over 3,000 non-local students enrolling in degree-awarded or short-term study programmes at CityU. To assist students with their adaptation to the new environment, MEAO provides tailor-made orientation programmes and general advising services to help new members engage easier and better. Promoting cultural exchange and integration among students, CityU Buddy Scheme, administered by MEAO, also serves as a bridge to connect current students with new non-local students through peer support. The Scheme’s contribution in enhancing student integration on campus received a recommendation from the Quality Assurance Council (QAC) of University Grants Committee in 2010.

MEAO also provides central administrative support to the Outbound Student Exchange Programme, which gives students an excellent opportunity to discover the world and gain global perspective through a semester-long exchange study outside Hong Kong. Comprehensive pre-departure orientation programmes are organised to help selected students get better prepared for studying abroad and in the mainland, including generic survival skills, cultural adjustment tips, safety advice, etc. Further to those preparatory programmes, pastoral care and advising support is also available for students from campus back home at CityU throughout the whole exchange period.
Besides, MEAO will host, or sponsor, a variety of multi-cultural events throughout the year, e.g. International Day, International Coffee Hour and Non-local Students Farewell Night, etc. to celebrate and showcase campus internationalization at CityU.”

Student Development Services

Director: Mr Chan, Joseph Kai-nin

The Student Development Services (SDS) is dedicated to enhancing students’ education experience in the University by advocating and catering for students’ welfare, facilitating a challenging and stimulating campus life, as well as developing diversified learning opportunities, with whole-person-development as foundation.

It offers a comprehensive range of student service including personal advice, training workshops, psychological assessment, leadership and life-skills courses, recreational and sports facilities, welfare services, health education programmes, personal development exposure, resources libraries, scholarships and financial support that will help students with diversified backgrounds and needs to make the best use of their university education. Students are encouraged to join its programmes, use its services and discuss with its staff any personal concern or plan they may have.

Financial Assistance and Scholarships

The SDS assists students who are in financial need to apply for grants and loans offered by the government, and bursaries and loans donated by private organisations or individuals. It also administers scholarships and prizes which recognise students’ academic and non-academic achievement.

Student Activities Fund

Special student activities funds are also available to support both local and overseas study and service projects.

Leadership and Life Skills

As future leaders, students are welcome to join the Project Star Leadership Development Programme to develop the personal qualities, skills and aspiration. Topics covered include communication, decision-making, thinking, interpersonal relationship, leadership, creativity, team-building, motivation, time management, life-long-learning, community service and outdoor training.

Peer Counsellor and Mental Health Ambassadors

Equipped with counselling basics and understanding of mental health, these two groups of students work to their best to create a caring campus environment, that supports their fellow students in meeting their university life challenges.

Personal Counselling and Student Success Advising Service

Life is full of changes. Entering university denotes the beginning of new challenges which may pose some difficulties to students at times. Personal and academic stress, relationship concerns, and adjustment problems in transition all can interfere with college success.
Students can talk with our experienced counsellor who can help students select and achieve goals for personal development and make their university life meaningful and satisfying.

Students can make appointments at SDS counter, 6/F Amenities Building or call 3442 8478. All information will be kept strictly confidential.

Psychological Education

Tests are often used to gather or provide information about certain aspects of a person’s functioning. A range of psychological tests on personality, personal attitude and career interests are available to enhance students’ self-understanding, personal development and career planning. Students are welcome to take part in individual and group testing sessions offered throughout the year.

The ‘Psychological Education & Testing’ website http://www.cityu.edu.hk/sds/Psycho_test/ has also been specifically developed to heighten students’ awareness and knowledge on issues related to Psychological Testing, Mental Health and Study/University Life.

Services for Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities are welcome to discuss with counsellors on their personal needs, adjustment to college life, learning difficulty, hostel, campus accessibility as well as any other concerns. SDS works closely with departments to eliminate barriers to disabled students’ learning and participation in campus.

Sports and Recreational Facilities

A wide range of sports facilities are available for students and staff.

Facilities include a multi-purpose sports hall for badminton, basketball, handball and volleyball; two full-height gymnasias for badminton and volleyball, two practice gymnasias for martial arts, dancing, judo etc., a table-tennis room, a well-equipped physical fitness room and annex, an indoor sports climbing wall, an indoor golf driving area, six squash courts, an outdoor basketball court and a 50-metre Olympic-size swimming pool.

Off campus facilities are available in the Joint Sports Centre, jointly owned by City University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong Baptist University and Hong Kong Polytechnic University, at Renfrew Road, Kowloon Tong which has an international standard all-weather athletic track, a full size grass soccer pitch, a multi-purpose court for basketball, handball, 5-a-side-soccer and volleyball, four flood-lit tennis courts, and a golf driving area.

Physical education courses are organised throughout the year for students to participate on a voluntary basis. Students can also take part in various inter-collegiate and internal sports competitions.

Student Activities and Campus Life Enhancement

The office maintains a collaborating relationship with the Students’ Union, the Postgraduate Student Association and their affiliated student societies. It offers leadership training for student leaders, and provide advice, subsidies and resources to support student-initiated programmes. To enhance students’ campus life and development, the office orchestrates a variety of cultural programmes and art performances throughout the year in collaboration with student groups and staff members. It also manages a wide range of recreational facilities and equipment for the general student body so as to facilitate student interaction and participation.

Student Activities Fund
Special student activities funds are also available to support both local and overseas study and service projects.

Student Ambassadors Programme
The Student Ambassadors Programme (“A” Project) is a year-long student development programme with the aims to foster students’ whole person development, to enhance students’ sense of belonging to the University through the practical experience of serving the University in its major promotion and interflow functions and to develop a pool of Student Ambassadors to help promote the University’s image. To achieve the afore-said objectives, Student Ambassadors are required to attend a comprehensive training programme and to offer services to the University.

Student Mentoring Scheme
The Student Mentoring Scheme is a university-wide programme which aims to help first-year students adjust to university education, to develop a supportive personal network amongst first-year students and senior students, to create a warm atmosphere and positive academic culture on campus and to assist first-year students in enhancing their educational experience and development as a person and as a professional in their chosen fields of study. As many as 1,000 senior students participate in the scheme as Student Mentors annually.

Student Welfare
The SDS assists students to apply for MTR Student Personalised Octopus. It also provides lockers to students to store useful personal belongings in campus.

Whole Person Development Award Scheme
The Whole Person Development Award Scheme is established to encourage students to take positive, systematic steps to pursue whole person development, as foundation for academic learning in University and preparation for life after graduation. Students can register for the Scheme at SDS. Participation and involvement in extra-curricular programmes or activities inside and outside campus will add scores leading towards the Award. Those who fulfill the Scheme’s requirement will be rewarded with certificates and souvenirs. Students with demonstrated whole-person development are eligible to apply for Fang Brothers Whole Person Development Scholarships which cover successful applicants’ tuition fee, living expenses and hostel fees.

City Toastmaster Training Club
Promoting public speaking in English is the mission of this Club which meets on every second and fourth Tuesday from 6:45–8:30 pm at Room R6052, Amenities Building. Please contact Mr James Leung at sojleung@cityu.edu.hk, Tel 3442 8148, if you want more details.

Entrepreneurship Club
Starting a new business is both challenging and rewarding. This Club organises talks, training courses, competition and overseas trips to promote students’ interest. For more details, please contact Mr James Leung at Tel 3442 8148 and sojleung@cityu.edu.hk.
Student Health Service

The Young Chung-yee Health Centre provides out-patient medical service, basic dental care, first aid and nursing care for students and staff. Health education programmes are organised to promote health awareness.

Student Residence

Director: Ms Chan, Rebecca Po-yu

The Student Residence Office (SRO) provides a one-stop service for the management of student residence for undergraduate, research and postgraduate students. The SRO aspires to create a safe, supportive and stimulating residential community that embraces diversity, participation, learning and the development of excellence. The SRO is responsible for the overall management of the Student Residence ranging from hall admission and allocation, finance and budget, facilities management and promoting a stimulating environment that integrates the development and learning of students. In addition, the SRO provides information and assists students to search for off-campus accommodation in Hong Kong.

The Student Residence at Cornwall Street comprises eight undergraduate halls and one postgraduate hall. With the Student Residence at Cornwall Street and Jockey Club House, a postgraduate hall at the Academic Exchange Building on main campus, the University accommodates nearly 3,000 residents, including local, non-local, exchange and international students of different backgrounds and cultures.

Student residence is more than a place for students to sleep. In collaboration with Residence Masters, Residence Tutors and Residents’ Associations, the SRO strives to enhance students’ learning and growth through community living and educational programmes, including inter-hall competitions, academic support programmes, cultural appreciation events and leadership training. Students are also encouraged to engage in social service, cultivate social awareness, enhance concern for the environment and develop responsible citizenship.

Students’ Union

The City University of Hong Kong Students’ Union was established by student initiative. The Students’ Union is recognised as an independent official student body. It has its own autonomy in running its affairs. It operates under a constitution which endorses yearly election of Executive Committee, Editorial Board and Union Council. An Arbitration Committee under the Union was formed in October 1992.

All students registered in full-time or sandwich programmes (except postgraduate students) are de facto members of the Students’ Union with all its amenities at their disposal. They have the right to stand for election as officers of the Union who are responsible for various aspects of student life. Part-time students, graduates and staff of the University may also apply for associate membership. Also, exchange students may apply for temporary membership.

The main objectives of the Union are to foster a spirit of unity, independence and democracy as well as to promote and safeguard members’ general rights and welfare. In addition, it aims at improving the relationship among its members and with those of other tertiary institutions and the entire community.
The ultimate authority of the Students’ Union rests on its members who can exercise their power through General Meeting and General Polling. A noteworthy division of the Union is the University Affairs Committee, the channel through which students can present their views to the University.

The Students’ Union, through organising regular social functions, provides a focal point for students’ social life in the University. Every year it organises a series of orientation programmes at the beginning of Semester A for freshmen to familiarise themselves with the various aspects of the Union and student life. Affiliated to the Students’ Union are 19 societies and 39 affiliated clubs formed by the students.

The Editorial Board of the Union publishes the magazine, ‘City Print’, and the newspaper for members. The Union also runs a shop ‘Cut Price’ and a Photocopy Centre located on the 4th floor of the Academic Building and the 4th floor of the Amenities Building respectively.
Financial Assistance and Scholarships
Financial Assistance for Students

Students who encounter financial difficulties may apply for various types of financial assistance such as Government grants and/or loans, University bursaries, loans, emergency funds and temporary student loan funds listed below.

Tertiary Student Finance Scheme — Publicly-funded Programmes (TSFS)

Administered by the Government, this scheme offers means-tested financial assistance to full-time students of University Grants Committee-funded programmes in the form of grants and/or loans. The former relates to academic expenses, tuition fees and union fees and the latter to living expenses. Loans are on interest-bearing basis and recipients are expected to repay them within a specified period after graduation from the University. Continuation fees for undergraduate and postgraduate programmes are not covered by the scheme. Applicants can refer to the website of the Student Financial Assistance Agency (SFAA) (www.sfaa.gov.hk) for the maximum level of financial assistance. Electronic application forms can be downloaded from the website of SFAA.

Non-means-tested Loan Scheme for Full-time Government-funded Students (NLS)

With effect from the 1998-99 academic year, the Non-means-tested Loan Scheme (NLS) was established to provide financial assistance in the form of loans to all students who are eligible for assistance under the TSFS. The NLS loans are solely used to settle tuition fees and will be paid direct to academic institutions concerned. Continuation fees for undergraduate and postgraduate programmes are not covered by the NLS. Application forms are obtainable from Student Development Services.

Non-means-tested Loan Scheme for Students Studying Part-time or Self-financed Programme

The NLS loans, same as that for full-time students, are solely used to settle tuition fees. Application forms are obtainable from the District Offices and Student Financial Assistance Agency.

Financial Assistance Scheme for Post-secondary Students (FASP)

Administered by the Government, this scheme offers means-tested financial assistance to full-time students pursuing self-financing Associate Degree programmes or accredited degree programmes approved by the Education Bureau to cover their tuition fees in the form of grants or loans. Applicants can refer to the website of the Student Financial Assistance Agency (SFAA) (www.sfaa.gov.hk) for the maximum level of financial assistance. Application forms are obtainable from the Community College of City University or Student Development Services.

Non-means-tested Loan Scheme for Post-secondary Students (NLSPS)

Administered by the Government, this scheme offers financial assistance in the form of loans to eligible students under the FASP to meet their tuition fees, academic expenses and basic living expenses. Applicants can refer to the website of the Student Financial Assistance Agency (SFAA) (www.sfaa.gov.hk) for the maximum level of financial assistance. Application forms are obtainable from the Community College of City University or Student Development Services.
