Congratulatory Message – Professor William Ayers

Congratulations on the occasion of the ninth anniversary of your innovative Outstanding Academic Papers by Students (OAPS) project. Collecting and preserving high-quality student work as a way to help the students of tomorrow develop outstanding research and writing skills has provided a model for other colleges and universities. I am continually impressed by the work of CityU Library, and OAPS is a powerful example of an original and important innovation. Congratulations and best wishes,

William Ayers
